THE LIGHT THAT'S BRIGHT

ELECTRIC LIGHT is pre-eminently the light of happy content. It dispels gloom, dinginess and discouragement. Light homes make light hearts.

ELECTRIC LIGHT is practical light—a light that is at once clean, convenient and economical. At the prevailing rates for current on meter basis, it is well within the means of all, and when used sensibly—economically—electric light is as cheap as it is good.

A BASEBALL STORY.

The Pictures of a Pitcher That Were on Exhibition.

Dad Clark, once a pitcher of the New York club, who was perhaps the most unconscious humorist the game has ever known, could be made to believe the tallest story ever told, provided the teller kept a serious face, and this sublime faith of Clark's caused him to be "stung" on many occasions.

One of the most notable cases wherein Dad got "stung" happened one morning when that genial soul and prince of good fellows, Parke Wilson, the New York catcher at that time, came hurriedly into the clubhouse just when the fellows were preparing to don their baseball clothes for morning practice and excitedly exclaimed:

"Say, men, what do you think? As I came to the park this morning I walked by Siegel, Cooper & Co.'s place and saw a big crowd gathered about their largest show window."

"Getting curious myself, I went up to see what the trouble was, and what do you imagine caused the street to become blockaded? Why, nothing more than this—they have the entire window filled with canned goods, and on each can is the picture of Dad Clark!" shouted Parke.

"What?" shrieked Dad as he began pulling on his street clothes.

"Me pieter on cans in Siegel-Cooper's window? Now, you fat heads, see whose de popular guy of dis punk outfit! I'm de little boy who's fillin' up dis park every day, an' I'm goin' ter strike for a 'tousand dollar raise in me salary right away. Me pieter on cans in Siegel-Cooper's window! If de folks at home could only see me now!"

All during this spiel Dad was hustling on his duds, and the moment he got the last garment fastened he tore out of the clubhouse and raced for dear life toward Siegel & Cooper's big store.

He arrived there all right, and, rushing up to the window, he saw the cans, just as Parke Wilson said they could be found, and on the front of each can was the picture of a great fat red lobster!—Duluth Herald.

ACME DRAMATIC CO.

Organization That Should Be Encouraged by St. Johnites.

The Acme Dramatic Co., which gives a show in Bickner's hall every Monday evening, is an organization that deserves a liberal patronage. The entertainments they have been putting on the boards are highly interesting and well executed.

The play last Monday evening entitled "Facing the Music," was a pleasing one. The actors were proficient, and proved themselves to be a cast of no mean order. It was the first time this play had been rendered on the Pacific coast, the royalty on the comedy being so high that only companies playing in a thickly populated state can afford to put it on the boards, but local dramatic organizations are permitted to use it without cost. It is a humorous farce comedy and was thoroughly enjoyed by the small audience present.

If you desire to spend a pleasant evening next Monday, take in the play at Bickner's hall, and you will be agreeably surprised at the entertainment produced.

HOW MANY

St. Johns Young Ladies Can Fill the Requirements?

Roseburg Spokesman: The State of Oregon early next fall will start a carload of Oregon beauties eastward, so that the general public may obtain an idea of one of the advantages of life in the West. The young ladies are to give free drills and concerts in parks or other public places.

Other states have advertised what they can produce in timber, minerals, grain and other commerce products; other states have boasted of the beauty of their scenery and the attractiveness of their cities. Oregon is going to show the rest of the nation a great attraction—its girls.

Here are the plans and specifications for this bedazzling bevy:
Age, 18 to 25; weight 120 to 140; complexion, brunettes; height, 5 feet 4 inches to 5 feet 8 inches; models of physical excellence, graceful carriage, with sufficient endurance to stand an hour's hard drill; ability to sing well in chorus; good eyesight—no glasses; no nervousness; no girls who wear corsets or tight shoes; certificates of forms and good looks from responsible citizens and endorsements from representative citizen, as to good character department and good health.

The girls will not represent any newspaper section or organization, nor be chosen by contest of any kind, but are designated as an immigration allotment, purely for State benefit.
