FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1907.

He is a poor citizen who will not rest in boasting his own town.

There seems to be no rest for the wicked. Heney says he will get Binger Hermann in Oregon.

The total tax of Multnomah county is $2,839,462. Of this amount only $404,926 remains uncollected, which shows that the people of the county have plenty of money.

Over in Portland the politicians are on the anxious seat concerning the result of the primaries for the nominations for city offices. The gentlemen are entitled to the sympathy of all.

The Albany Democrat last week issued an attractive and exhaustive write up of the capital of Linn county. It was well patronized and gotten up in a way to interest inquirers prospecting for new locations.

Assessor Parrish of Seattle, imitating our own inimitable Assessor Sigler, is assessing all the real estate in the Washington metropolis at its full value. That Seattle spirit will throw up its tail and quit when it reaches the county treasurer's office at tax paying time.

The school teachers of Milton, Ore., are an economical, thrifty and enterprising set, and there are eleven of them. All of them are women, and none of them are married. Recently when the stock for the new hotel was offered, these feminine wielders of the birch promptly subscribed for $1000.

Late last summer there was some talk of oiling Jersey street in the business section. Representatives of road oiling companies told of the advantages to be derived from an application of oil to the thoroughfare and offered to allow the experiments to be made at a nominal cost. If these gentlemen will now come forward probably their proposition would be given consideration.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Meets and Talks Over Plans for Active Work.

The Commercial club met in the new rooms in the Holbrook block Wednesday night. There was a good attendance and considerable interest manifested in the work planned for the coming year.

Before the meeting the executive board met and elected C. A. Wood chairman, and also discussed the articles of incorporation and the matter of the adoption of a constitution and by-laws.

The matter was afterward taken up by the club and referred to the board of directors subject to ratification by the club.

The secretary was instructed to notify all members that the new constitution and by-laws would come up for adoption or rejection at the meeting to be held two weeks hence.

Pleasant Surprise.

A reception was tendered Rev. C. P. Gates by the members of the Evangelical church Wednesday evening at the home of T. J. Monahan. The affair was in the nature of a surprise and a large delegation were present to welcome the young man to his new field of labor. The evening passed pleasantly with games and social chat. Refreshments of cake and fruit punch were served. Rev. Gates made a very appropriate speech before the departure of the guests.

L. Shelk, Linnton's merchant prince, is erecting a handsome residence on the site of the old smelter.

A number of photos of the St. Johns baseball club enclosed in a neat frame are displayed at Jackson's.

N. A. Gee has built a comfortable home for himself and family on Macrum avenue in East St. Johns. Among the improvements is a well 60 feet deep.

Miss Edith Kimball, who sang with such telling effect in the Methodist church last Sunday evening, will sing again on next Sunday evening.

The daily cartoons on Jackson's store front are a daily source of attraction. As a handy man with a brush Mr. Jackson has few equals and the rapidity with which he makes the pictures is astonishing.

On account of the illness of his wife B. A. Olson has decided to sell his fine home at the corner of Willamette boulevard and Richmond street. This is one of the handsomest and most slightly residences in the city.

A blaze in the attic of the residence of Mrs. Tyner on Fillmore street was the cause of a fire alarm at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The bucket brigade was reinforced by the arrival of the chemical, and but trifling damage was done.

Mrs. Frank Smith yesterday received a telegram conveying the sad news of the death of her mother at Plattsmouth, Neb. Only two weeks ago Mrs. Smith was informed of the death of her sister at the same place. In her double bereavement she has the sympathy of many friends.

One of the latest and most attractive ways of finishing Oregon fir may be seen on the front of Cochran's new saloon. It is a patent process and is done by a blaze of fire. Of the many ways of treating this building material this burning process is one that will become popular with all who wish something new and handsome.

Mrs. M. L. Rowland surprised a great many of her St. Johns friends on Wednesday by calling upon them. The family is now living near Riverview. Since leaving St. Johns Claude Rowland has been married. He is now at the Good Samaritan hospital having his foot treated for an old injury.

Jefferson B. Nye, as big and as rosy as ever, was a St. Johns and Portsmouth visitor yesterday in the interest of his co-laborer in the vineyard, W. R. McGarry, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for city attorney of Portland. "Jeff" says when the ballots are counted tomorrow night the result will show that the flaxen haired attorney has landed the nomination.

The only members of the fire department to show up at the engine house in response to the fire alarm yesterday morning were Adam Kaemlein and Barney Noonan, both arriving at the same time. To haul the machine to the fire these young men had to appeal to a half dozen youngsters standing near for help to reach the fire. The incident was commented upon by many who saw it, and the idea advanced that the proper thing to do in a like case would be to call the nearest dray or delivery wagon to haul the machine and firemen to the point where they were needed.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by St. Johns Drug Store.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Roland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by St. Johns Drug Store.
