Local News.

Bert Swengel has gone to Coos Bay on a deal for timber land.

Mrs. M. Carl of Washougal visited Mrs. G. Ward last Thursday.

Did anyone remark to you that it was warm weather about Monday afternoon?

W. L. Thorndyke took in the Washington State Editorial meet at Everett last week.

Mrs. F. W. Valentine left Monday for a season at the beach, just in time to miss the hot spell.

A marriage license has been issued to George W. Drinkard and Miss Pearl Ferrell of St. Johns.

R. B. Smith left for Oakland, California, on Tuesday morning, where he will visit his brothers.

Mrs. B. S. Hoover will leave Sunday evening for Weiser, Idaho, where she will visit her brother, Harry Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ogden, their daughter and the Misses Van Vliet of Minneapolis spent Sunday at the Cascades.

Rev. C. P. Gates of the Evangelical church has been assisting Rev. S. J. Lindsay of Hillsboro in a tent meeting the past few days.

We are looking for our chaperone down from Hood River this week and we give the boys warning that we will have to be good hereafter.

Miss Bernice Warren, of California, and Joe Davenport came down from Oregon City Saturday to visit Miss Warren's aunt, Mrs. G. Ward.

Misses Jennie and Eulalia Green did not make connection as reported in last week's paper, but came up Monday evening for a time at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, of Portland, friends of Mrs. B. S. Hoover, were in the city recently and like St. Johns very much. It is possible they will locate here.

T. M. Doran of Hamilton, Montana, an old friend of Tom Monahan, was in the city Monday. Mr. Doran thinks it is hot enough for him and will seek a cooler climate.

A message received by Mrs. Tom Monahan Monday carried to her the information that her father, C. D. Lyman of Stansbury, Mo., was very ill and not expected to recover.

Ed Hurlbut and wife returned Sunday from their extended trip to Illinois, Wisconsin and other sections of the east. They went immediately to Estacada to be with their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wright chaperoned a merry party of young people down to the mouth of the Willamette and up to Portland and return in a gasoline launch last Friday afternoon.

The residence of Mr. Oilhouse, corner of Burlington and Hayes, is being put up in a substantial manner and the work is progressing nicely. The frame is all up and will be enclosed this week.

The Hendricks Hardware company has purchased the hardware stock of the Edmondson company. These gentlemen carry a fine line of hardware which is kept up to date in all its departments. See their ad.

Sunday, August 4, 11 a. m. at the Evangelical church—"The Man With a Purpose." 8 p. m. union service—sermon by Rev. Mr. Nelson of the Congregational church. All invited. Chester P. Gates, pastor.

John Rizley, who owns one of the largest ranches and hop farms in Clackamas county, visited G. Ward and family on Friday. Mr. Rizley was in St. Johns nine years ago and notices the remarkable change in the city.

Mrs. Zoe Polson of Turner, Michigan, arrived Monday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hinman. Mr. Hinman had not seen his daughter for nine years. Mrs. Polson brought her two boys with her, and although they had never been to St. Johns recognized some of the buildings by pictures recently sent them.

Dr. D. F. Swengel of Aberdeen, S. D. is in the city visiting his cousin, Samuel Swengel, father of W. E. Swengel, and made this office a brief call Monday evening. The good doctor went to Aberdeen almost two decades ago in the early times in that country, and grew up with the city. He says that he can see here in St. Johns the same opportunity for financial prosperity that obtained with him there, and thinks there is nothing better in the far west than is presented here.

The merry-go-quick has "flitted and flewed." Like the "lustful Turk" they have "folded their tents and silently stolen away." Incidentally they carried with them some $2000 of St. Johns' good money. While it is all right for the children of all ages from 0 to 60 to have good times and amusement, there are many who spent money with this outfit who would better have used it to buy the baby some stockings or a rag to mop the perspiration and mother earth from its dirty face. There is nothing refining, enlightening or invigorating in a crazy whirl around on their machine at 1 1/2 cents a minute, but some of us like it and are willing to dig up. It is much better than some things that cost a great deal more.

Local News.

There is to be a prize contest at the skating rink Saturday night.

Free Methodist camp meeting running full time at Cedar Park.

Roy Garlick has departed for Eastern Oregon for a season in the land of dust and hot days.

Mrs. G. Ward recently sold her farm at Oregon City to I. G. Zaker and now has all her interests in St. Johns.

Mrs. Jessie Nearing and her two little daughters, of Portland, visited last week with her aunt, Mrs. B. S. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown and daughter Nora went to LaCamas, Washington, Saturday to spend a few days visiting.

Don't forget to look up the changes made in the ads of Muck & Derrie, Couch & Co., King & Gillmore, Calef Bros. and others. There are good bargains at these places.

Fred J. Warren, who went Tuesday of last week to Seattle for his health, writes that he is feeling better and is getting so that he can take some feed. We trust he will come back fit for the prize ring.

Mrs. A. W. Markle very pleasantly entertained a number of her friends at a one o'clock lunch Wednesday of this week. There were present Messdames Busby, Wright, Shepardson, Shreiner and Solomon.

H. R. Davis and family, formerly in the grocery business at University Park but who went to Long Beach about two years ago, returned on the Roanoke Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are at Mrs. Hornung's and the Misses Davis are at W. J. Peddicord's until permanently located. They are all glad to get back.

The street car boys wish us to announce that the company will run special cars to take care of the public so that no one will get left at the car men's picnic at the Oaks August 8. Let us all jar loose and attend the picnic. The boys deserve it. They are a hard working lot of boys and the most accommodating set of fellows in their line of business.

Miss Hazel Couch and her friend Gertrude Baldwin, who have been visiting their friend Miss Gladys McKee at Perrydale for several days, returned yesterday. They say they plowed hay, chased the fishes, climbed the peach, cherry, pear, apricot and gooseberry trees all over the farm and had a lovely time. We bet they did.

Miss Laura Oberg gave a very merry birthday party Thursday to celebrate her (unlucky) anniversary. We would not tell how old she was for a cent. You will have to guess. If the entire year is as lucky as the first day of it was, our little friend will have a very jolly time of it, for the young people had a nice, good time at the party and wished their little entertainer many more of the same kind.

O. L. Chapel, the pioneer real estate man of St. Johns, returned recently from a touring trip through southern Oregon, by team with Moses Tufts. Mr. Tufts is still absent. Mr. Chapel has some interesting stories of his experiences in the drouthy country through which he passed. He is now located in Portland, but comes over to St. Johns occasionally to renew old acquaintances.

Rial M. Smith, of the law firm of Smith & Myers, Akron, Ohio, was the guest of W. W. Culver, 939 Willamette boulevard, last week. Mr. Smith is making a tour of the West with a change of location in view on account of a young daughter who is suffering from a bronchial affection. After traveling through Colorado, California and several other states he expresses the opinion that Oregon leads in climate, products, etc. Mr. Smith was especially pleased with the view of St. Johns from the river, and the trip up the Columbia.

Old Glory was raised over the city hall Monday morning and now floats in the breeze, one of the prettiest sights in St. Johns. Our genial mayor timed the arrival of that new desk just right. When Old Glory was taken off the cabbage crate he had been using for a desk that piece of furniture looked as homely as a bear's cage, and all our mayor's dignity would not have prevented the wind whistling through its slats when our elder statesmen became engaged in some heated argument. The new desk adds much to the appearance of the council chamber, to say nothing of the increased convenience to the city's chief officer.

The Chain Gang had a star session Monday night of this week. About the time the regular business of the evening was disposed of a big bunch of Rebekahs came sailing in with just the kind of a feed they know delights their brothers, and there was a feast of flesh and flow of soul that would bring a smile to the face of a termagant. We arrived on the scene of action just in time to hear the after-dinner speeches. We do not think we have enjoyed such a treat since we slipped into the circus tent under the canvas, for the door was open and we went up quietly, sat down outside and listened to the oratory, the vocal and instrumental music without disturbing the meeting. If you do not think it was good, just ask Mrs. George Hall to tell you about Jim's experience at the candy pull. We waked up in the night to laugh over it.
