

Sleep for Sale

$6.75

The only man who can afford to trifle with his sleep is the man who is of no value when he is awake. Mental acuteness is largely dependant on the brand of sleep you buy, for one really can "buy" sleep. At least many have bought their freedom from insomnia by a change of the conditions under which they have been sleeping. You need a good bed. We are making very low prices on iron beds, springs and mattresses. There is a reason for this, namely, by being in the low rent district, and having a large, light store; by being conservative in our advertising and other expenses; by buying in large quantities direct from the factories; by conducting our store under a modern system, we are able to handle a greater volume of business with the least expense. Bear in mind these beds are not the "flimsy," thin tubing which dents and dulls in a month's wear. It is a bed that is sold by our competitors from $12.00 to $15.00. The mattress is 50-pound weight, covered with art tick, round cornered and roll edge; a comfortable, sanitary one that our competitors sell for $10.00 and $12.00.

The spring, the best on earth, has ninety-six oil-tempered, noiseless coils, the celebrated patent "Leggett" spring, fully guaranteed. We carry in stock at all times a large selection of these standard goods, which we fully warrant.

Local News.

Ray Bullis has been working in Corvallis recently.

A sister of Mrs. Lougheed is visiting her for some days.

J. H. Price, editor of Loveland Register, was in the city Sunday.

W. L. Thorndyke and son left for Ilwaco and Astoria for a week Monday.

The Apple family has moved into the property recently vacated by Dr. Rossiter.

Have your home photos taken by Stockton. Leave your orders at Review office.

W. F. Johnson, a former resident of St. Johns, now a citizen of Dallas, was a visitor in St. Johns this week.

Cottage Grove poultry growers have organized a poultry association. Is there not enough good blood in St. Johns poultry circle to support a live association here?

H. A. Galloway, who has been editor of the Oregon City Enterprise for the past six months has severed his connection with that paper and is succeeded by Mr. E. C. Thomas of Troy, Ohio, who was associated in the paper with Mr. Galloway.

Charles Arnett, an old timer of St. Johns now living at Sunnyside, was a visitor here Tuesday, and brought with him some samples of Gloria Mundi apples grown by him at Clackamas, which are beauties and are of the Lowndsdale quality.

Mrs. Sparschuh of the Home Bakery has leased the building on Leavitt and Ivanhoe streets, formerly occupied by the West Coast laundry, and will conduct a rooming house therein when the building is remodeled which work is now being accomplished.

R. L. Burk, who has been a resident of St. Johns the past two years, went with his family this week back to the old home in Douglas, Kan., for a visit of a few weeks. Nothing like a trip to the old home to emphasize the superiority of St. Johns to anything in the east.

Miss H. Louise Ebert of Glenn Ferry, Idaho bought a nice resident lot while visiting her friend Miss Hendricks last week. When Miss Ebert lands that nice young man it will be just splendid to have a pretty location for him to put the new home upon. We congratulate Miss Ebert on her wise action.

J. P. Wrinkle and family went to Ocean Park Thursday for their summer outing. They will come back in a week or two covered with "skeeter bites" and glory, happier than the clams at Ocean Park at high tide and a great deal safer than the clams at low tide. The worst we can wish them is more of the same kind of outings. They are great. The outings, of course.

Mr. C. T. Prall of Detroit, Michigan last Thursday bought the stock of the St. Johns Grocery company and will put in an up-to-date dry-goods store. Mr. Prall is a man of many years experience in the business both as a buyer and a seller and it means that there will be less excuse for our citizens to go to Portland to do their trading. We are glad to give Mr. Prall the glad hand and wish him abundant success in his new enterprise.

A letter from D. C. Rogers to one of his friends here, commenting on the climate at Bandon, Ore., says they are enjoying every minute of the time, that the temperature has been no higher than 75 or 76 degrees this summer. He also says the wind is rather frisky there, which constitutes the only disagreeable feature to the nicest and most picturesque beach on the coast. He also sends his regards to all inquiring friends.

George and Robert Bragg, sons of R. B. Bragg, one of Hood River's prominent merchants, were pleasant callers at The Review office Monday. They were in the city in company with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Blowers and their sister, Miss Fannie Bragg, and of course hunted up their brother Berean. They say everything is lovely at Hood River, and it couldn't be otherwise if it tried. We were sorry we were out when the other members of the party called.

Hon. J. W. Morton of Hood River was a welcome visitor at this office Saturday. Mr. Morton was in Portland on business and ran over to say "hello". He has been recently admitted to practice at the bar in Oregon and has associated himself temporarily with Hon. A. A. Jayne at Hood River. Mr. Morton was accompanied by Fred Snow, another oldtime Hood Riverite, but who is now a resident of Portland. Come again, boys, the latchstring is out to you.

A nice little girl came to visit Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Epps, Thursday, and arrived just in time for dinner. She evidently enjoyed her board and lodging for she will stay permanently. The little Miss is receiving the glad hand of relatives and friends. It also brings to us a smile to think of the time three or four years hence when the little lady will receive the glad hand from Mamma Epps when she plays in the nice, black dirt and soils her Sunday frock. May the skies be ever bright and sunny for the new-comer.

Mrs. F. A. Kinch, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, grand organizer and inspector of the grand international auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who is visiting the coast in the interest of her order spent a delightful week visiting her old friends J. E. Williams and family and like all our eastern visitors was charmed with the lovely climate and location of St. Johns.

LINNTON!

There will be great doings on Hill's ball field Sunday. Kelso, the leader of the Tri-City league will be present and have a tussle with the locals. Kelso is a tough proposition, and in order to make it good and warm for the Washington lads, the local management has signed Porkoney, Schimpff and Calif, three of the Coast League's able players, for the occasion. A movement is on foot to have the band boys turn out and liven things up with a few stirring selections. Kelso has proven a boomerang for our boys so far, but if you want to see the fur fly be on hand. Manager Moore promises to pull a few kink's out of the Tigers' tail. A good attendance is desired.
