Local News.

The shade of the old apple tree feels good these hot September days. E. C. Monnich and wife have returned from a pleasant outing in the hop fields.

John F. Peterson is remodeling his cottage on Ivanhoe street which will be a commodious, comfortable home when he gets it fixed to suit him.

Mrs. I. M. Pemberton has opened a restaurant at 106 Tacoma street. Mrs. Pemberton for a time managed the Jersey cafe, and will be glad to welcome her old patrons at her new location.

Mrs. S. H. Greene, who was called to Castle Rock, Wash., last week by the illness of one of the members of the family there, returned Friday night reporting everything serene in that neck of woods.

Born—Near Cedar Park in St. Johns to Mr. and Mrs. John P. Shaneyfelt a nine-pound baby girl, September 6, 1907, and John is the happiest 'daddy' in the city. May the little Miss have a long and happy life.

Little Miss Pennington's eye which she accidentally burned a few days since with a curling iron is doing nicely and she will not suffer any serious results from the accident, but it was very painful at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Demorest of Hood River were in the city sizing up the mercantile situation with a view to locating should an agreeable opening present. We were pleased to see our old friends and hope they may find something to suit them here.

The way the fish are being hauled out of the river by the local nimrods is a caution. Every youngster who knows enough to pull his line out when he gets a bite comes home with a large string of "croppies" and bull heads. The river seems to literally swarm with this species of fish.

With the energy characteristic of Portland business enterprises the Hazelwood creamery proposes as soon as the bricks cool enough for work to begin the finishing of their new home burned Monday. The walls have been found to be little damaged by the fire.

The city boarding house in the basement of the city hall is receiving its concrete floor this week and the sleeping apartments are being fitted up in first class style. It is the coolest place in the city and the patrons of that institution will have no cause to complain of their accommodations.

Thad Bullock, wife and two children from Commerce, Texas arrived Tuesday and are visiting Mrs. Stanley. They will extend their trip to Seattle and stop at St. Johns again on their return. They are greatly pleased with St. Johns and the wonderful possibilities so manifest here and will probably invest here on their return.

Talk about rich soil in Oregon. It is that kind anywhere west of the Cascades and some other locations, but Whitwood court has a showing that is hard to beat. H. G. Odgen was over there Saturday and brought over a young maple which showed a growth of 13 feet this year. We think that takes the bun for timber building in this neck of the woods.

The Portland Collapsible Box Co. is putting up some samples of their manufacture which they will display at the state fair in Salem. They will also have the same on display at the county fair at Gresham. This shows a spirit of progressiveness worthy of emulation on the part of many more of our citizens. We trust St. Johns will be well represented at both of these shows.

The fine three-story brick, new home of the Hazelwood creamery near the end of the steel bridge was burned Monday forenoon. The fire was caused by the explosion of a gasoline heater used in the asphalt work in the building. A loss by fire is always the most regrettable, from the fact that it is wholly a loss, there is no redeemable feature, no one derives any benefit from it. The world is just so much poorer. The loss was $50,000.

Miss Hazel Carlson will attend school at Eugene this year.

J. E. Kirk and family leave today for Clarks Mills, Pa., for a two months' visit.

R. Hatfield left yesterday for Arkansas to visit his old home which he has not seen since leaving there 35 years.

Rev. G. W. Nelson preached the funeral sermon of Mrs. Almira Brush of Portland, who was buried at Albany Tuesday.

Miss Viola Peddicord of University Park returned this week from Sherman, Morrow county this week to take up her school work here next Monday.

Mr. Currier, of Bonham & Currier, has purchased the residence property of W. L. Thorndyke, and these gentlemen will change their boarding places this week.

Frank Smith and family made an over Sunday visit to Corvallis last Sunday to take a look at their farm in that vicinity. It is Mrs. Smith's first visit to the farm.

Miss Grace Kent of Uniontown, Kansas, arrived in St. Johns Saturday. She is the guest of Mrs. A. C. Gessler, Oswego street, and expects to spend the winter here.

The Ladies' Aid of the Evangelical church will hold their annual bazaar and Thanksgiving dinner November 27 and 28. The place for holding same will be announced later.

D. J. and B. F. Horsman with their wives left Wednesday for an extended trip to the east and will visit Minneapolis, Chicago and other places in Minnesota, Illinois and Iowa.

Mr. Babbitt, sand hog working on the caissons for the North Bank road and who was sent to the hospital recently is improving and it is thought will be able to leave the hospital soon.

In another column will be found the advertisement of the Vogue Millinery opening. Mrs. Stucker will be particularly pleased to meet the ladies of St. Johns and display her splendid stock of feminine adornments. Don't forget the date.

Note what the New Idea man has to say regarding city park and other things in another column. Would it not be a good idea to keep these things in mind and work to the end suggested by him, that we may in later years have the blessings of our children instead of their condemnation?

The news fiend when over in the city Wednesday met one of his old boyhood friends, D. M. Watson, of Watson's restaurant. Dan, always a dandy, is worth a million, if not in money, in good looks, and it was as good as a trip to Africa to see the lad. May his shadow never grow less.

George Sutherland, who has been up the valley for several days returned to his home in Hood River yesterday. Like all our Hood River friends he could not pass without stopping to say Hello. Mr. Sutherland will move to his ranch in the valley for the winter, and possibly will remain longer.

E. E. Lyons of University Park left Wednesday for Sherman and Morrow counties to look after the crops on his big ranches in these counties. His mother and sister who have been visiting him for several days returned to their home in Lakeview, Cal., very much pleased with this country.

A meeting of the citizens of St. Johns will be held in the library rooms next Wednesday evening for the purpose of discussing ways and means for further maintenance of same. A large attendance is earnestly desired. This is a question that should appeal to all. Let everybody turn out and help the good cause.

M. J. Rood, sand hog at work on the caissons for the Hill road, was stricken with paralysis and died the first of the week. He leaves a wife and two little children, the mother in delicate health. They live in Point View. Our good people should come to their assistance generously as the father left them but a few dollars.

Talking with our old friend Daniel Calkins about old times in the army and elsewhere he incidentally gave us a sure cure for small pox. He says it never will fail if taken in time, and when the smallpox scare is started if used regularly will render the individual immune against any attack of the disease. Here is the recipe—cut it out and put it in your scrap book. It may be worth its weight in gold: One ounce of pure cream of tartar to three pints of water. Dose: a wine glass full three times daily, and the patient should refrain from eating meat.

Oscar Stranahan of University Park returned from the city of Vancouver, B. C. this week, just in time to miss the riots in that city. Mr. Stranahan does not enjoy life under the English flag and says Old Glory never looked prettier to him than when he left that wooden country where the greater part of the shade trees are big cedar stumps and snags. The only redeeming thing he saw was their fine park, where he spent two days and did not get over half of it then. St. Johns among her other good things should provide a fine city park before the property becomes too high priced to be available.
