Miss Laura Kocher from Aurora was the guest of Anna Swengel over Sunday.

Mrs. C. Little and Mrs. Haskins left Monday for an extended trip through California.

Mrs. Eugene Wright left on Wednesday for Catlin, Ore., where she will teach school for the ensuing term.

Mrs. B. L. Snow is quite ill and suffering severely, we are informed and her many friends will sympathize with her.

J. J. Shriner and wife have returned from a couple of weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Jefferson, Oregon.

Mrs. B. F. Hoover, Mrs. J. F. Hendricks and Miss Jennie Hendricks spent a day at the state fair Thursday of last week.

Mr. N. J. Bailey, formerly of St. Johns, now of the Sedro Manufacturing company at Sedro Wooley, Wash., is visiting here for a few days.

Miss Stella Camping leaves today for Camas, Washington where she has been engaged to teach the young idea how to shoot for the coming school year.

Rev. C. P. Gates, pastor of the Evangelical church visited his mother in Dallas, the first of the week and incidentally attended the opening exercise of Dallas college, the prosperous little 'college midst the hills.'

Have you seen J. S. Downey's new twins? They are beauties. He has them at the office every day, and is as proud of them as a little boy with red top boots. Just ask Sam to show you. He will understand that you are from Missouri.

Deputy Assessor North was in the city Wednesday and informs us that the new assessment for St. Johns is practically the same as it was last year there being but a very few minor changes where the assessment has been raised slightly.

Rev. James D. Corby, minister of the church of the Good Tidings Universalist, East Eighth and East Conch street, Portland will preach on 'The Practical Powers of Christian Universalism,' in the Congregational church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

The Norwegian tramp steamer Elsa is taking on a cargo of 3,000,000 feet of Oregon fir lumber at the dock of the St. Johns Lumber company. This is the first of a number of such shipments which will be made by this firm in the near future.

The subjects that will be considered at the Evangelical church on next Sunday are, 'The Unknown Sepulchre' and 'In the Hollow of His Hand,' morning and evening respectively. Everybody is cordially invited. A special welcome to strangers. Chester P. Gates, pastor.

Miss Cora Abraham of Sparta, Wis., who has been visiting her friend Miss Camping, will leave with that lady today, to take charge of a school in Washington. Thus St. Johns will lose two of her pretty 'schoolmams' for the school year. We wish them the best of success and a safe return.

Charles F. Foss is making a number of his combination railroad ties which will be placed in the track of the street railway here in St. Johns for trial. We are satisfied once tried they will be adopted, for Mr. Foss assures they can be manufactured cheaper than the wooden tie and their life will be many times longer than the latter.

R. C. Clark left at this office a very unique specimen of work in the shape of a small Indian arrowhead, which he manufactured by a secret process from a piece of broken beer bottle. It took him but about five minutes to do the work. If the noble redman had been possessed of this knowledge and a sufficient number of beer bottles it would have proven a boon to him during a vigorous campaign.

Charles Estes and wife of Centralia, Wash., are among the latest residents to locate in this part of the world.

Dr. Mary MacLachlan returned this week from her trip to Europe, where she has been taking a special course of study, and she will be very glad to meet her friends and patrons again as of yore.

Carl Hayner and family moved back from East St. Johns to Edison street. They think it is too far out for the winter. It will be different when the streets are improved out that way. East St. Johns is a fine residence section.

Captain F. E. Brink returned this week from his trip east as a delegate to a gathering of the Eagles in Virginia and reports the time of his life. He says he got everything that was coming to him on the trip.

The Wabash base ball club, which claims the independent championship of Portland, has been matched against the St. Johns Tri-City leaguers and the game will be pulled off on the local grounds next Sunday afternoon. It will start at 3 o'clock.

The ladies of the Congregational church gave a splendid dinner and supper Wednesday which the citizens patronized liberally, but had they known all the good things they would have been supplied with for the small sum of 25 cents they would have simply swamped them.

R. A. Dunmire, assistant secretary and assistant cashier of the St. Johns Bank and treasurer of the St. Johns Gas Light & Heat company arrived in St. Johns yesterday and will make his home here. Mr. Dunmire is from Massachusetts and will make a good acquisition to our business circle.

F. L. Mauzey sent us samples of potatoes raised on his property on Cruikshank street near Cedar Park that are certainly beauties. They will be seen in our window. The middle one is an Early Rose. The two white ones are Burbanks and fine specimens. Mr. Mauzey harvested eight sacks of these from his little patch on his lot.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blount and daughter Mrs. Steinhoff old friends from Hood River were very welcome callers yesterday. Mrs. Steinhoff is now living on the East Side, and her father and mother contemplate coming to St. Johns. We trust they may soon do so as they would be gladly welcomed by our people here.

Mrs. T. J. Monahan received a letter yesterday from Stansbury, Mo., informing her of the death of her father at that place. The letter was written August 8th and did not reach Mrs. Monahan until yesterday, and it seems to have been lying in the postoffice at Portland nearly all this time. The queerest part of it is that the letter was addressed to St. Johns.

The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting in the Evangelical church Monday afternoon. Two new members were added to the Union at last meeting. Mrs. J. C. Scott, Mrs. Emma Smith and Mrs. D. Bushy, were elected delegates to the county convention to be held in the Goodenough building at Portland, Friday, the 27. Every member of the Union should try and attend this convention.

Captain Bredeson is installing quite an art gallery in his studio in the city hall. The Captain is a connoisseur in the line of fine arts. His latest acquisition, however, is a regulation police baton made of birdseye maple and other things, which is a present from Captain F. E. Brink, who brought it from Norfolk, Va. Just ask the Captain to show you the new instrument of torture. It is a beaut.

N. A. Gee, the house mover, is busier than an old hen with 17 chicks these days moving people out of the way of the Hill road, out of the way of new buildings being erected, and otherwise straightening up the inconveniences and mistakes of house users. Wednesday he took the office of O. R. Downs next door to the Review and moved it over on Oswego street to his property there, where Mr. Downs will make a storehouse of it.

C. W. Gee, with his sisters, Mrs. Winn and Mrs. Wakeley of Livermore, Cal., arrived in St. Johns Tuesday evening and they have made up their minds to make this their permanent home. They say that everything in their section is dry as a powder house and it was a great relief to them when they came on to the bright, green vegetation of Oregon, and that nothing could induce them to return to California. They are uncle and aunts of our townsman, N. A. Gee.

W. W. Raser, our ex-member from Clackamas, was in the city Wednesday with a sample of St. Johns roasting ears which beat anything in that line we had since we left the 'grasshopper state.' They are fine, big, well filled ears of the Stowell's evergreen variety, perfectly free from worms or any defects. Mr. Raser divided with the boys and it took about two minutes to empty his sack. They were grown by him in St. Johns. Hood River may do us on apples but we have them skinned to a frazzle on corn.
