A Stolen Game.

The base ball season as far as the Tri-City league is concerned is about over. The Frakes are now in the lead with Kelso a close second. St. Johns is third in the race. Kelso has one more game to play with St. Johns, and if they win will be tie with the Milliners for first place. The pennant really belongs to Kelso because the Frakes have won several of their games by dirty ball playing, and therefore are in nowise deserving of the rag. The morning game Sunday between the Cubs and and Milliners was a fair sample of the way the latter wins some of their games. In the fifth inning with Arch Parrott on second Antoine singled and Arch made a wild run for home. The catcher got the ball long before the runner reached home, and exclaimed: "Now I've got you," and touched the runner at least two feet from the plate. But to the amazement and disgust of the spectators, Troy Myers, who was officiating in the Frakes favor as umpire, called the runner safe.

Claims All the Titles Going.

Charles B. Soward, who hails from the east, was in our office for about a breath and a half the other day, handing us a big card punched full of holes, which indicated, (the card, not the holes) that Mr. Soward was the son of his father and a grandson of another man and a general son of a gun along the United States and part of Texas. That he was Hui Tyee of Indian U. S. Police and ditto of an order by the name of T. U. I. A. of B. and a hole lot more, but he can't spell beams, or rather the place where he claims, Iowa to be, the printer of the card spelled it Clerindia, Iowa, and he took the dope gracefully. Mr. Soward is welcome to all our secrets if he and his swish agents agents serve them aright.

Rather Tall Stories.

The Willamette valley may not be able to carry off the bun when competing with Hood River for big red apples, but the valley papers are giving an account of a horse that swallowed a live chicken hawk that ate its way through the side of the horse, but died, probably from over eating, before making its exit; and also an account of a hog that committed suicide by eating its way into the stomach of a dead cow. There is no discount on the appetite of men and things in this country anyway, but there should be a little more discretion used in their gormandizing.

General Robert E. Lee

was the greatest General the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for Rheumatic pains. I am never without it. Sold by St. Johns Drug Store."

Second Degree Work.

There were things doing in the Odd Fellows' hall Monday night. Golden Rule encampment came over 27 strong and visited Laurel lodge, witnessing the work in the second degree. After the work and routine business were attended to the tables were prepared and real old army coffee and fat buns and sandwiches were served with pickles on the side. The addresses of the visitors were particularly interesting and every Odd Fellow in attendance must have felt fully repaid for the time spent. There were 31 visitors and 40 regular members present.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. For sale by St. Johns Drug Store.

G. A. R. and W. R. C. Picnic.

General Compton Post No. 22 G. A. R. and W. R. C. will hold a picnic in Columbia park, Tuesday, Oct. 1st, 1907, to which all veterans, families and corps friends are invited. Bring well filled baskets. Committee.

An Ounce of Prevention

is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, Consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of Consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S., Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs." Sold by St. Johns Drug Store.

Effects of Alcoholism.

If every man who throws back his head, allows the oil of corn to trickle down the inside of his neck, wrinkles up his face, smacks his lips, wipes his mouth with the back of his hand and exclaims: "Ah! that just touches the spot," will but carefully read the following from an eminent physician of France, Dr. A. Joffrey, who has had and improved every opportunity to make a careful study of alcoholism and gives his findings therein, and will then shut his eyes to his surroundings and look forward a few generations and see his children or his children's children with delicate constitutions, predisposed to diseases, lacking in vitality to withstand the ills of life, see them imbeciles, idiots, maniacs, criminals and know that within five or six generations his very name will be blotted out; would rather the spot should remain untouched. The extract reads: "And I repeat again that, in the creation of these new morbid aptitudes, this hereditary predisposition, which dominates almost all pathology, alcoholism stands pre-eminent, doing more harm and counting more victims than tuberculosis. Alcoholism, in fact, not only affects the individual, but its effects are continued to his descendants. One cannot be, with impunity, the son of an alcoholic. Alcoholism begins with the father and strikes down his children; and generally its action continues, until, in the fourth or fifth generation, it has destroyed the family. But before this final result is reached, the alcoholics and their descendants are, according to circumstances, hurled into disease, madness, or crime, filling our hospitals, asylums and jails, as I have already said."
 "Blind indeed, are those who ignore the dangers of alcohol, see in it only a source of revenue!"

Fine Showing of Spuds.

Those potatoes Mrs. Stanton left in our windows about a month ago were kept there where the sun burned them considerably and where the shrinkage was perhaps more than it would have been in a cellar during the whole winter, but there were about two ounces less than ½ pound shrinkage on the hill of potatoes weighing about four pounds. They are a fine variety with very shallow eyes, cook fine and mealy and are very prolific. They are one of J. Atlee Burpee's famous productions.

Likes St. Johns Best.

Charles Plummer and family of Redlands, Cal. have been visiting W. L. Plummer, 229 Oswego street for a few days. They are cousins and had not seen each other for 17 years until this visit. Mr. Plummer has visited all the principle towns on the coast and the Sound country and was more favorably impressed with Portland and particularly with St. Johns, than any other city seen during the entire trip.

Remember the Fair.

Don't forget the Multnomah county fair at Gresham. Remember it is our fair just as much as Gresham's. If you have anything particularly good in any line whatever do not fail to take it and place on exhibition. See their ad in another column and respond not only with your presence, but with some kind of a display. It is thus that these fairs assist in the development of the country.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by St. Johns Drug Store.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.— R. G. Edlefsen, Supt.

She Found Relief.

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas. "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Sold by St. Johns Drug Store.

The Smith Premier Typewriter

has widened its market until it includes the whole civilized world; has become the typewriter of over 300,000 operators and has, during 1906, broken every previous record of sales, because it has from the beginning best met every typewriter need.

The tri-color feature of the Smith Premier Typewriter is recognized as the greatest improvement in modern typewriter construction—yet in providing it, none of the strong fundamental features, for which the Smith Premier has always been noted, have been sacrificed. Complete literature on request.
