FRAKES WIN PENNANT

Season Closes With St. Johns Third in the Race.

Standing of the Tri-City Teams.

Team	Won	Lost	P. C.
Frakes	21	5	.808
Kelso	20	6	.770
St. Johns	18	9	.667
Woodburn	15	9	.570
Brainards	8	18	.308
Astoria	7	16	.305
Brewers	6	19	.240
Trunkmakers	5	16	.238

The Tri-City base ball league closed with the game between the Cubs and Kelso at the grounds of the latter Sunday. The result of this game in which the Cubs defeated the Tigers was a great surprise, as it was anticipated that the Washington lads would win with ease and thus be tie with the Millers in the race for the pennant.

The Frakes, therefore, come into possession of the pennant. It cannot be said that they won it in a worthy manner. Too many shady games were pulled off to admit of this, but as the management of the league is apparently satisfied with the manner in which the games were won, nothing remains but to submit. One thing is certain, however, that if steps are not taken to prevent dishonest games being credited, next year's games will not be as successful as this year's were.

The past season has been a fairly successful one in a financial way. The local club for the greater part of the season was good, but their playing was much better at home than when on a visit.

Pascal Hill promises to make several decided improvements to the local grounds and Manager Moore has concluded to retain most of his players for next season.

The locals won a game Sunday from the Wabash team reinforced by Coast League players. The game was an intensely interesting one and was won by Moore's superb pitching. The score was 6 to 4 in favor of the locals.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father near Arbor Lodge, last week, James R. Minich and Miss Mary Gibbs, Rev. E. A. Leonard officiating. Miss Minich was formerly of University Park, but recently has been living in Portland as was her husband.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bowles, step-father and mother of the groom, on Portland boulevard near the cut of the Hill road, last week, Lawrence C. Butt and Miss Kate M. Douglass, Rev. E. A. Leonard of the Baptist church officiating. Miss Douglass is a daughter of the senior member of the firm of Douglass & Sons, and has many friends in the city. Mr. Butt is also well known here. Two of his sisters married brothers of his wife, and to try to even up matters a little he captured the sister of his brothers-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Butt will make their home in South Portland where Mr. Butt is engaged in the grocery business.

These good people all have the best wishes of The Review.

Gee Still Kept Busy.

N. A. Gee, the house mover, has been wrestling with a big job the past few days. A. Larson of the Catlin house, wished to remodel his hostelry and noticing the sills to be decaying concluded to put in new ones. Mr. Gee was employed to jack the house up for this purpose. It was found that the sills, while on the outside appearing to be quite sound, the centers had gone to pieces and all had to be removed. Mr. Larson removed the old fireplace which ate wood like a threshing machine does oats, erected an ordinary flue and will put in a stove to take the place of the fireplace.

An Ounce of Prevention is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers. Consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of Consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S. Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs." Sold by St. Johns Drug store.

Woodmen Will Celebrate.

The Modern Woodmen of America are arranging to have a high time at their hall on October 10. There is to be a fine class initiated and the crack Portland team will be over to assist in the work. Every member of the order in the city is especially invited to be present and enjoy the occasion.

GOOD AS HOOD RIVER

Strawberry Bed of L. H. Smith Yields Second Crop.

Leroy H. Smith brought us a box of second crop strawberries raised on his lot which beats anything we have ever seen either here or at Hood River, the most famous strawberry section of the world.

Mr. Smith planted this lot 45x70 feet to strawberries in the spring of 1906. This spring he did not have time to cultivate them until they began to blossom and did not dare to do so then, consequently they received no cultivation this year until after the crop was harvested. Then Mr. Smith went in and just tore up the ground, runners, weeds and sometimes the plants, cultivated deep and thoroughly, first having mowed the crop of hay and weeds. The plants at once began to grow vigorously, budded, blossomed, set fruit and he has been gathering these fine plump strawberries which pack full four-tier in the ordinary hallowck.

The first crop yielded 336 hallowcks or 14 crates. Besides what his own family used and the friends he gave berries to, he sold $20 worth in the market. Strawberries are 30 cents per box now and Mr. Smith has lots of them to sell. He says not all the hills are bearing, but some of them are as heavily loaded as they were the first crop. It will be interesting to note whether these plants will bear as well next year as if they had not made the second crop this season. The berries have as good color, shape, flavor and in every way are the same as the first crop, except perhaps not quite so sweet. Now, Hood River, where are you at?

Mistaken Identity.

Mrs. M. R. Noble, daughters, Nina and Emma of Hood River were down visiting friends in Portland and St. Johns last week and called to see the news man and his family. Sunday of last week the Byerlee tribe met the Nobles and the Poor family, their friends, and visited in company the city park. We had a lovely time and everything went well until we came to the bear's den, when the old cinnamon bear stood up on his hind feet and begged for peanuts the youngsters were eating. Mrs. Noble began to cry and stooping down close as she could to bruin asked in a stage whisper: "Why, Bud, what have they got you in here for, I thought you were up home!" We told her that was a bear, not Mr. Noble. "Oh," she replied, "that's so, I didn't notice his hands." It is to laugh, yet. But when a big pick handle and M. R. comes down to visit us, it will be to the Williamette jump in already. However, we will look forward with pleasure to a visit from the whole Noble tribe.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough.—For sale by St. Johns Drug store.

Worth 20 Cents Last Spring.

Talk about spuds. It takes the pioneers to grow the tubers. Mr. E. H. Parker brought to our office Saturday the biggest spud we have seen this season. It weighs just four pounds. It appears to be a cross between the Early Rose and the Burbank. This specimen grew to be a fair sized potato and then became afflicted with the American disease, expansion, and started two new provinces which have assumed almost the size of the first one, making it a stunner.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by St. Johns Drug Store.

Visits Ex-Mayor Hinman.

John Oleson formerly of Cadillac, Mich. now a resident of Portland, was a visitor at the home of P. W. Hinman this week. Mr. Oleson was an old friend of Mr. Hinman in Michigan and only recently learned of Mr. Hinman's residence here, hence the visit.

In the Front Row.

Eugene has made a record for progress and has set a pattern for all the cities under ten thousand population for entire Pacific Coast. She has built a first-class, hard surface pavement from the depot entirely through the business district and has contracts for double that amount. Her new electric cars equal those to be seen in larger cities. She has raised a twelve thousand dollar advertising fund and will employ an expert at $5,000 a year to handle her publicity. What's the matter with St. Johns?

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me."—For sale by St. Johns Drug Store.

Our Charges.

We make this announcement so that our good friends may understand our rule in this respect.

She Found Relief.

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not relieved help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas. "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish." Sold by St. Johns Drug Store
