Local News.

He who by his his would rise Most either lust or advertise.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Parker returned from a visit with their children near Forest Grove.

If you wish to invest some money where you will receive quick returns buy a block of stock of the Oregon Flake Food company.

J. E. Williams has let the contract for four new residences at East St. Johns, which when completed, will be occupied by customers looking for new homes. Who says times are dull in St. Johns?

Miss Mabel Shandorf of St. Paul, Minn., arrived in St. Johns recently and is making her home with her friends, J. F. Wright and family. Miss Shandorf likes St. Johns very much and will make her home here permanently.

The ladies of the Baptist church are doing nicely with their sales of homemade cookies, doughnuts and other bakery products, in the Holbrook block. Their baking beats the band. We know, for we tried it.

Rev. H. S. Wallace, president of the Christian Federation, will preach in the Methodist church Sunday morning. In the evening Rev. W. B. Hollingshead will preach and conduct sacramental service.

The illustrated service at the Congregational church Sunday evening, Nov. 3 will be interesting and helpful, and the public is invited to enjoy it. The usual service will be conducted at 11 a. m. G. W. Nelson, pastor.

A. D. Cridge, formerly with the Echo Register of Echo, Oregon, but now with the Union Guarantee Association of Portland, was a visitor in this office Wednesday. He notes wonderful improvement in St. Johns since he was here two or three years since.

Mr. C. H. Davis, a newspaper man from Michigan was in the city last Thursday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Davis is also a K. P. and if any of the boys strike him we hope they will make it pleasant for him. He is here looking for employment as accountant or clerk, having left Michigan on account of his health.

F. E. Sherwin of Brookings, So. Dakota, arrived in St. Johns with his family this week and has come to make his home with us. Mr. Sherwin is a friend of the Peterson Bros and others from that section, is a bright, enterprising citizen, such as we are always glad to welcome to St. Johns and we trust he may find a profitable opening at once and believe he will.

W. J. Ferrell, the wood man, was thrown from the top of a big four-horse load of wood Saturday evening and severely injured. It was a wonder he was not killed. The accident happened at the foot of Salem street, where a board had been removed from the road, causing the wagon to lurch, which threw Mr. Ferrell to the ground. He was taken home in a delivery hack and at last accounts was well on his way to recovery.

Mrs. Geo. H. Lynn and daughter Georgia, daughter and granddaughter of the junior proprietor of this great moral prevaricator, arrived from Omaha Monday night of this week. They lived in Hood River last winter and the greater part of the summer, and that was enough to convince them that there was no other section of our country that would satisfy them, and have returned to make their home. Mr. Lynn will come as soon as he has their affairs there in shape.

"Has Christianity Failed?" or "Is Christianity a Failure?" will be the evening topic at the United Evangelical church Sunday, Nov. 3d, at 7:30. This is the first of a series on the subject, "Questions Over Which We Stumble." "The Declining Church" will be the subject for discussion in the morning. This is the first of a number of sermons on "Christ's Letters to the Seven Churches of Asia." Every body invited to attend. Strangers are especially welcome. Chester P. Gates, pastor.

Sunday evening of this week Fred Washburn and his sweetheart of Portland, came over to see the folks and to keep us from saying anything about it they left a fine brace of wild ducks at the residence of the senior member of the Review firm. Bert didn't do a thing but invite the balance of the bunch up to his home to help punish the ducks. Well, if the balance of that band of ducks had seen the way those two were treated they would have quacked an encore that would have been a delight to a disciple of Eschylus. Come again Fred and we'll never tell.

R. L. Burke and family, who have been visiting relatives at the old home in Douglass, Kansas, returned home Monday of this week. They have had a fine time while there and things look prosperous in "Bleeding Kansas," but just the same, they were glad to get back to the modern Eden, Oregon. There is nothing quite so good anywhere in the world to one who has lived here a few years. We are glad that all the people of the East do not know what it is here. There would be such an exodus from those old states that Oregon could not hold half the people who would come here.

Dr. Mary MacLachlan wishes to announce that she is ready to meet her old patrons at her office in the Holbrook Block.

Mrs. M. E. Scott still has some fine rooms to let at The Lloyd rooming house, corner of Leavitt and Ivanhoe streets. If you want good rooms, here's your chance.

Mrs. C. M. McKinnie and her daughter, Sarah, of Augusta, Kas., are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. A. M. Essen, the better part of our genial city recorder.

Madam Rumor has it that Druggist Jackson is soon to take upon himself a helpmeet and that he is now preparing a cozy nestling place on the corner of Baltimore and Philadelphia streets. Here's hoping that the Madam may not be mistaken.

We wish to call attention to the article on the free library. Mrs. T. T. Parker is doing a good work there. She is denying herself of nearly all the social enjoyments of the city for the good of the people, young and old. She cannot do it all alone. Let our citizens make it a point to assist her by reading at least one book a week. This is an opportunity to secure good reading none should miss.

His Honor, K. C. Couch, escaped from the city between two days and is spending his time these degenerate days somewhere between here and the north pole. If he catches Peary or some other polar bear, he will present the catch to the Portland zoo. The mayor never asked us if he might go, and there is no telling what trouble he will get into before he gets back. We trust he will bring back with him a bunch of Michigananders or Wolverines to make up for the time he is absent.

The new building being erected on North Jersey street by Ed F. Day will be occupied when finished by Leroy H. Smith with his real estate office and Attorney H. E. Collier with his law office. These gentlemen will have a fireproof vault placed in the building. A fireproof vault inside a fireproof building will sound pretty good to the clients of these enterprising gentlemen who may wish to leave valuable documents in their hands. It speaks well for the business qualifications of these young men and we wish them the best of success in their new location. This they will surely win if they follow this line of progressiveness in all of their transactions.

Ballagh Bros., the popular bakers who have been doing business in the French block since last June and who have worked up a splendid business, sold their bakery this week to Kniffel Bros, who will continue the business at the same location. Messrs. Ballagh and Mrs. E. I. Ballagh will return to their old home at Ottumwa, Iowa, to spend the holidays, but will come back after that date and locate either here in St. Johns or in Portland. They are delighted with the country here and the opportunities, are energetic progressive fellows, just the kind who can do the best here, as well as anywhere they may cast their lot, and we trust they will be back here and doing business again in the spring.

Ex-Governor Fletcher returned Wednesday evening from his visit to his old home in Prince Edwards Island. Mr. Fletcher says he has come back this time to stay. That there is no place on the face of the earth quite so good as Oregon, and especially St. Johns. He had a most delightful time with his old friends, but they kept him very busy delivering lectures all the time he was there, delivering 19 during his visit. While crossing the states Mr. Fletcher noted the evidence of great prosperity everywhere, but thought he would not live there under any consideration because of this country being so far ahead of the older states in point of beauty and climate. It is the verdict of every person who has spent enough time in Western Oregon or Washington to become acquainted with the delights of this section of our country.

H. C. Hunter of the Portland Manufacturing company, returned this week from an extended trip in the east, lasting about a month. We gathered the information that he had been from coast to coast and from the great lakes to the gulf on a business trip, and it might have meant business to friend Hunter, but there are dire rumors of a matrimonial mixup, fishing adventure and other exploits which seems to require some Sherlock Holmes work on the part of the news fiend. Our readers will want to keep their weather eye on the "satiety" column to learn of Mr. Hunter's trip. He goes the last of this week to Gray's Harbor, Tacoma and other Sound points, to be gone three or four days. By the time he returns we will most likely have our sleuth work done.

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by St. Johns drug store.

LINGERING COLD

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks. My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended to me Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Oregon. "One bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." For sale by St. Johns drug store.

SWENDEL'S HAND MADE HARNESS

Masquerade Skate

The masquerade on skates at the St. Johns rink was quite successful. While there was not quite so many masked as expected, being the first of the season, it did quite well. There were 249 admissions and 128 skaters. There were some very rich costumes on the floor. Four prizes were given. The first prize, gents, Richard Armstrong, a 15-session skaters ticket, costume representing a farmer; first prize winner, lady, 15-session skaters ticket, costume representing a cow-boy-girl, exquisite indeed, represented by Miss Minnie Currier; second prize winner, gent, Robert Johnson, 8-session skaters ticket, costume representing a cannibal from one of the South Sea Isles; second prize winner, lady, Mrs. Oliver Apple; she and her husband requested another selection, which was awarded Miss Ethel Buery, whose costume was that of a Red Cross nurse, well represented. Judges were: Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Valentine and George M. Hall.

Free Library

The patronage of the free library is increasing considerably, but not as rapidly as would satisfy the little hustler, Mrs. T. T. Parker, who has the care of our free reading matter. Mrs. Parker says that after the first year, so she learned at the library meeting last Thursday, the Portland library will pay the fuel and light bill for the library here, in fact, stamps, envelopes, paper and all the accessories necessary for the librarian in her work. This will leave nothing but the room rent for our citizens to pay, and our enterprising citizens can easily make that little bunch up any time. In fact, we believe this has already been provided for.

The Club Pamphlets

The Tribune is in receipt of a neat little write-up and illustrated description of the thriving little city of St. Johns, Oregon. The pamphlet was sent by Charles Bredeson, formerly of this place, who is chief of police of St. Johns.

The above clipping from the Volga, S. D., Tribune shows the work that is being done by the splendid booklets gotten out by our commercial club. It will bring the attention of the people directly to St. Johns wherever they go, and will be worth their weight in gold. Send them to your friends, particularly if they think of leaving for the west.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.—Rev. James A. Lewis, pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by St. Johns Drug Store.

The Oregon Flake Food company has some shares of stock yet to sell which will be the best investment you can make with that spare money you wish to make quick returns on.
