Confidence

What a wonderful amount of meaning there is in that one word "confidence." The business of the world hinges upon it. It applies to all walks of life and the Millinery business in particular. We are proud to state that our goods and prices are winning the confidence of the people. We invite a test by comparison of our goods—quality and prices—with others.

A Methodist Minister Recommends

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.—Rev. James A. Lewis, pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by St. Johns Drug Store.

Work Wanted.

A good, sober and industrious man desires to secure employment. Anybody who has use for the services of such a person, who is willing to work at anything, is requested to leave word at this office.

Wanted.

Good bright girl, who is a good speller, to learn typesetting at this office.

Local News.

He who by his big words rise Must either bust or advertise.

If you know any news tell us.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Muck, Saturday, November 2, a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frederic at 828 North Jersey, Sunday, November 3, a son.

The Portland Collapsible Box Co. received a carload shipment of iron from the east this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Humphrey of Jefferson, Ore., visited at the home of B. S. Hoover and family the forepart of last week. Mr. Humphrey is editor of the Jefferson Review.

Rev. C. P. Gates went to McMinnville Wednesday to attend the wedding anniversary of his grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Hoberg. It was their 56th anniversary.

The good roads meeting being held this week in the Portland Club rooms closing tonight will be of special interest to many of our people and today will be the best day of the meet. Let's all go.

The ferry company has placed the new rudders on the steamer James John and she works like a charm. The captain says he can turn the boat on a half dollar piece. She rounds up to the dock just as gracefully as a regular Royal Mail liner.

A. C. Lender, ad and job man and foreman of the News Letter of Hood River, with his wife, was in the city Wednesday of this week and called to see the scribe, who was sorry to have been out until after their departure. Come again Bert, we shall be very glad to see you at any time.

We do not suppose it will do any good to say anything about street improvement, but we wish that those who are responsible for the "delectable" condition of some of our streets would have to go through them some dark night and that the electric lights would fail while they made the trip, so there.

Potter & Goold seem to be scared over the financial situation. They received a big consignment of plated ware Wednesday and there is more coming. We believe that is the way to get scared—scared that you will run out of goods when things jar loose, for there will be a big rush after a few days or weeks of scrimping and our merchants should be prepared for it.

"Will those who reject Jesus Christ be lost eternally?" This vital question in regard to the future destiny of men will be the topic presented at the United Evangelical church next Sunday evening at 7:30. At 11 a. m. the subject will be "The Impure Church," the third in the series of the "Letters to the Seven Churches of Asia." All are most cordially invited to attend these services. Chester P. Gates, pastor.

Messrs. Ingledue & Yerby have purchased the West Coast Laundry of Messrs. Johnson & Ground, who formerly operated the plant and are putting it in first class shape for business. They will add new machinery in the near future and prepare to handle the laundry business of surrounding towns. They are thorough business men and we anticipate service most satisfactory to their patrons. They inform us that their business has already doubled since taking hold of the plant.

R. F. Robinson, superintendent of public instruction for Multnomah county, was in the city Tuesday visiting the schools here. Mr. Robinson is a most enthusiastic educator and greatly interested in his work. The schools of the county are most successful under his supervision which speaks strongly for his efficiency. We were very glad to meet him as we had known him several years in a business way but had never the pleasure of meeting him personally until that date.

The city council is becoming a very weak sister. They meet every meeting night and adjourn without doing any business on account of the holidays. At the last meeting Tuesday evening the matter of clearing the city of rats was discussed and it seemed the opinion of the solons that this should be done lest that dread scourge of the Asiatics, bubonic plague, should get a foothold here. We are not much scared at the plague, but we have no love for rats and we hope those who have a supply of the rodents will get busy and make them hard to catch.

Miss Edith Anson is the luckiest unlucky girl in the city. A few days ago in crossing the street the chateau pin to her gold watch became unfastened and the ticker dropped in the soft dirt on the street. Mayor Couch drove along a few moments later and picked it up. The chronometer was ticking away as if nothing had happened and the young lady was delighted to receive it back again. Next time Miss Anson will endeavor to lose it in a safer place, for had not Mr. Couch's pony been very careful to step over it the timepiece would have had a bad case of indigestion, gastritis or other internal disorder, and as it was the animal's foot barely missed the watch.

Many new subscribers are being added to the Review list these days.

Talking about weather, did you ever see anything to beat the kind we have been having the past few weeks for this time of year?

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wolf and wife of Salem are in the city visiting at the home of Mrs. J. B. Campbell, sister of the former.

Rev. J. G. Crouch of Philadelphia will preach in the Methodist church Sunday morning and Bishop L. B. Wilson in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ren of Fishers, Wash., visited with the family of W. F. Bolton the past week returning home November 12.

Mrs. S. H. Greene, who went with her daughter, Jennie, to their country home on the Cowitz, last week, returned this week. Miss Jennie remaining on the farm for the winter.

The phantom party on skates at the St. Johns rink last night was a well patronized and successful affair. The management is sparing no pains or expense to make these special events enjoyable.

The county authorities are improving the county road at Richmond street by the application of a thick layer of gravel. This act will be greatly appreciated by all horsemen who travel this route.

Rev. J. R. Knodell, assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of California, an eloquent man, will deliver his great lecture, "The Liquor Traffic a Crime," at Bickner's hall, Sunday, November 17, at 3 p. m. Hear him.

The illustrated service at the Congregational church Sunday evening, Nov. 17, will be superior to anything yet given. The ladies quartette will sing a beautiful selection. The usual morning services will be conducted. All are invited to attend. G. W. Nelson, pastor.

We were surprised and pleased to receive from Mrs. F. E. Petty yesterday a fine spray, each, of Cuthbert and white raspberries. The berries were full size, fully ripened and as delicious as if they were grown in midsummer. Who can beat it either here or any other section. There's a number of other berries on the bunches of all sizes, from the blossom to the full grown berry.

A. H. McKern, an old Albion, Ia. friend of the Review man made a short call at this office yesterday. He was attracted to our office by photograph of the old fire engine we used to chase after and was surprised to find an old Hawkeye tiller on our wall. The two young bucks had not seen each other for 30 years or more, and they are now both grandfathers. Mr. McKern's son accompanied him.

Miss Ryan of the Peninsula bank returned Wednesday evening of last week from a visit of several weeks at her old home in Saginaw, Mich. Miss Ryan reports a most delightful time with her old friends and relatives and says the time was too short and that she was really loath to part with them when the time came for her return. She also said times were good there and everybody seemed prosperous, but there is no place quite so good as St. Johns after all and she was happy to be home again.

Frank Gregory, an old Hoodriver, who is now operating as district manager for the Tampico Fruit company with headquarters at LaGrande, Oregon, was a visitor at this office Wednesday. This company has a large tract of land in Mexico especially adapted to the growing of bananas, and it is Mr. Gregory's business to dispose of this land improved and set to bananas. Frank is a rustler and wants to secure some good solicitors to help him cover the field. He will move his headquarters to Portland or St. Johns in the near future.

Through a misunderstanding we were informed last week that the Pythian sisters would meet Wednesday nights hereafter, but the good ladies evidently made it warm for the recalcitrant brother knight, and he came with profuse apologies and made arrangements for the sisters to meet as usual Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows hall. We hereby and hereon transmit his apologies to the sisters and express the hope that our announcement of last week did not prevent any of them from enjoying their fine social sessions.

When you go to Portland from now until Monday, ask for a transfer to the Washington street line and run up to Sixth and Washington and see the prettiest display of apples the eyes of man ever beheld. It is the exhibit placed there by Messrs. Wilson and Shepard, two of Hood River's most rampant pomological warhorses. Mr. Shepard is the proprietor of Better Fruit the best horticultural magazine yet, and Mr. Wilson, well, he just boosts Hood River apples for the love of it. He has the best there is and knows it, and it makes him laugh and grow fat just to tell about them. Now, don't forget to see this show or you will regret it.

Public Notice.

Next!

Bonnie Barney Noonan.

O, my! O, my! the years go by
Like sheep the dogs are harryin';
But late we had a lispin' lad,
An' now he talks o' marryin'!
Lord bless us! but he has the strut
Of one that's grand and knows it;
No lass so prim that looks at him
But likes his cut an' shows it.
An' faix 'twould do your heart good, too
To hear him at the barnyard;
There's scarce a lass that sees him pass
But wears a smile for Barney—
Our Barney—
A wistful smile for Barney.

The Cupid lays cute snares these days
When Barney goes philanderin'.
An' all his traps hold geese, perhaps,
None takes this bold young gander in.
Ah! none as yet, but there's a net
That will, one day or other,
An' her I'd name to bait the same
Is one like his good mother.
Aye, sure as fate, he'll take for mate
Sweet, roguish Nora Kearney,
Who meets his wiles with scornful smiles,
That beats the band with Barney—
Our Barney,
Our Bonnie, bloomin' Barney.

We could not swear to the fair one's name but this one rhymes with Barney anyway and if we could have secured her photograph would have placed it alongside that of our new firechief. Our spring poet has left us little to say. There is none more popular, or deservedly so than Barney and the boys will stand by him to a man. We congratulate the fireboys on their choice of a leader.

St. Johns Football News.

Last Sunday South Portland and St. Johns football aggregations met on the sawdust arena in Hill's park in a fierce battle for supremacy and at the last were retired to quarters without having been near the desired goals, the score standing 0 to 0.

The stars were: Walker at tackling, Brishon at advancing the ball and Bryan's 50 yard punt in the first half. "St. Johns has the grittiest bunch of football players I ever saw" says Coach Brink. Ferrell's leg was wrenched badly and he was carried off the field but he was determined to sit on the fence and watch the finish. Bryan had both eyes swollen shut in the first half but he returned from a doctor's prescription and played the second half.

Monday evening a new management was elected for the team as follows: Will Jones, president; H. Hunter, manager; Tom Carroll, secretary; L. D. Brink, coach; Joe Brishon, captain.

The management has secured a return game with South Portland for next Sunday at St. Johns to play off the tie. We must win this time.

The lineup for Sunday will probably be as follows:
Center—Slim McKaoun.
R. G.—Chas. Andrews.
L. G.—Stewartson.
R. T.—Reed and Marksburg.
L. T.—Seaburg.
R. E.—Daniels and Crowe.
L. E.—Walker and Young.
Q. B.—Bryan.
R. H.—Brishon.
L. H.—Emerick.

The new management will first promote the interests of the football sports, having secured several new players and will give some fine games when they have everything arranged. Later basketball teams will be organized for both men and women and they expect to have games regularly. As the season advances handball and track sports will be taken up and some interesting events are anticipated. Then will follow the national game of baseball when the season opens.

Death of Mrs. Dunbar.

The many friends of Mrs. Dunbar, wife of Captain George W. Dunbar, of the government dredge boat, Chinook, will be deeply pained to learn of the demise of that most estimable lady at the home of her father in Castine, Maine, which occurred November 8.

Mrs. Dunbar had been ill for some three months before her decease, but Captain Dunbar received a letter that morning informing him that Mrs. Dunbar was improving and was considerably better, then, later in the day, he received a wire announcing her death, but no particulars were stated.

There are many here who knew Mrs. Dunbar and who speak in the highest praise of her many virtues, her gentle, sweet disposition, and who will most sincerely mourn her early death. Their sincerest sympathies go out to the bereaved husband and other relatives. She leaves beside her husband, a little son 5 years of age, her father and mother, two sisters and one brother.

At the Baptist Church.

The revival meetings at the Baptist church are well attended. Considerable interest is manifested. Rev. John Bentzien is preaching acceptably. His last sermon will be Friday 7:30 p. m. The pastor will be assisted next week by Rev. E. A. Smith of Portland, who will preach his first sermon Sunday at 7:30, at which time the ordinance of baptism will be administered. You are cordially invited to attend all these services. E. A. Leonard, pastor.
