

Keep Bright and You WILL KEEP BUSY

Electric Light is the magnet that draws trade. The bright store is the "hypnotic eye" of business. People can no more resist the attraction of a brilliant, electrically lighted store than they can resist the clarion call of a brass band.

Is your competitor with the electrically illuminated show windows, bright interior and sparkling Electric Sign getting an advantage over you? The moth never flutters around the unlighted candle! Up-to-date stores nowadays consider shop-window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods.

A show window brilliantly illuminated with Electric light will make many a sale "the night before." Electric light compels attention, makes easy the examination of your display, shows goods in detail and fabrics in their true colors.

And don't neglect the Electric Sign. It is soliciting "tomorrow's" business every moment it is lighted—burning your name in the public mind. It is a solicitor that never becomes weary — never stops work — costs little.

STREET WORK HELD UP

The Governor's Holiday Season Responsible.

One regrettable feature about the holiday season inaugurated by Governor Chamberlain is the delay of the work on our streets. So far this year not a street has been improved. This was through no fault of our councilmen, nor was it because no streets were ready for improvement. The death of City Engineer Goodrich made this office vacant and owing to the peculiarities of the present charter this position could not be filled at once. When Mr. Edward was appointed engineer it was hoped that street work would be taken up and pushed with all possible dispatch. Petition after petition came rolling in, and Mr. Edwards got into harness at once. Council was prompt to act, and resolutions were passed to improve four or five streets as rapidly as could legally be done. The resolutions were duly published, and all indications pointed to a speedy fulfillment of the legal proceedings necessary before the work could begin. Ordinances ordering the improvements were ready to act upon when the Governor's legal holiday proclamation went into effect. This put a quietus upon further proceedings for the present at least, and thus three or four valuable weeks will be lost so far as street work and other municipal business is concerned. Since ordinances will have to be passed and published, and proposals for street work published at least three weeks before these improvements can begin, it will be at least one month after the holiday period terminates before actual operations can commence. If the work was under way now it would be a Godsend to a number of men out of employment.

LABOR GETS A LEMON

Wages Always the First to Fall and Last to Rise.

A number of large manufacturing plants in Portland have taken advantage of the financial situation by reducing the wages of employees. There is no justifiable cause for taking this course, but it is a fact patent to all that as soon as anything comes up that offers a semblance of an excuse for doing so these grasping corporations begin to whittle down wages. In the present instance, so far as we have been able to learn, there is no excuse whatever, unless it is because labor is now easier to secure than was the case a month ago. We have yet to hear of a single instance where the price of the output of these manufacturing plants have been reduced one penny. And it is also true that these plants have certainly not been running at a loss hitherto. Therefore, if a cut is made in wages why in justice to all not reduce the price of the product? If orders are slack reduce the number of employees or shorten the hours of labor, but keep up wages. It is true that very good wages have prevailed for some time in the Northwest, but it is also true that the necessities of life have been keeping step with them. Hence, when wages go down and necessities do not follow suit, it will work a hardship upon labor.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION

Thomas Wisbey Has Growth Removed From Eye.

Thomas A. Wisbey of Point View went to the hospital and had his right eye removed because of a cancerous growth having started thereon. The surgeon said that a week or two longer and it would have been too late to do any good, but as the growth was still confined to the eyeball Mr. Wisbey would soon be all right.

The operation was performed Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and Monday morning he came home and has been back but twice since. The wounds are healing nicely and he feels no inconvenience or pain from it. A few days before the operation some of his good friends and neighbors wrote to his daughters near Dallas, Ore., and the first intimation Mr. Wisbey had they were at his house and urging him to have an operation made. He finally consented and is now the most grateful man to his neighbors and children that one can imagine. If he had been left to his own convenience he would have waited until it was too late and his life would have been the forfeit.

SHOULD BE ABOLISHED

The Country Better Off Without the Vile Weed.

We have received this week a marked copy of the United States Tobacco Journal published in New York City. It is a neatly printed, well patronized trade paper in the interests of the tobacco business. The object evidently was to call our attention to the action of the department of justice at Washington in the seizure of a consignment of cigarettes in transit from the tobacco trust to its patrons. The editor severely criticized this action as being unjust, premature, anarchistic and a whole lot more "unpretty" things. While we enjoy a good smoke about as well as anyone, and do not believe it injures us unless used to excess, there are millions who do use tobacco to excess and are not only injured but lose their lives by the pernicious use of the weed, and we really believe it would be better for our country, not only from a physical and moral point of view, but also from a monetary standpoint if tobacco were banished from our domains, if it were made a penal offense to handle or use it. Cigarettes have been proven over and over again to be the most dangerous form and most destructive to health of any. We are frank to say that this publication did not create any sympathy for their side of the question in this shop. On the contrary, because of the reasons above stated and for the further reason that we are opposed to those trusts which enable a body of men to combine to kill competition in the manufacture of any product and give them the power to put their prices to an exorbitant "altitude," we would be found with the bunch who, viewing the cartoon on the title page of the magazine sent us, would hallow "sicken" to the three dogs with cards tied to their tails labeled "state suit," "federal suit" and "private suit" until they caught the black cat labeled "tobacco combination." The cartoonist indicated that the bold bad dogs were making it strictly interesting for tabby.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Last Saturday night about a dozen good Yeomen gathered at the new home of Lee Fortune and I gave him and his good wife a happy surprise. It was a regular house warming. There was a good long visit spent with social chatting among the visitors and with their host and hostess, followed with a delicious lunch of cake and coffee, nuts and candy. Right here we wish to go on record as saying that Mrs. Fortune can make the best coffee we ever drank. After enjoying the best social evening imaginable we bade our friends good night and returned to our several homes all feeling that it was indeed good to be there.

One of the Bunch.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

Mrs. S. Rosenthal of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. We think it the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by St. Johns drug store.

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep rest possible. For sale by St. Johns drug store.

LINGERING COLD

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks. My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended to me Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "One bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." For sale by St. Johns drug store.
