POTTER & GOULD

STOVES

Yes; we have had a fine stove trade this fall, and have some left. The Lorain Range beats them all. Just received from factory another shipment of the celebrated Reed Turquoise Enamelled ware, Reed Anti-Rust Dishpans, Wash Boilers, Tin and Galvanized Pails, and Combination Toilet Pails—the best ware ever shown in St. Johns. We have the '1900' Washer, the best ever. We want Clearing House Certificates and want more of them.

POTTER & GOULD,
THE HARDWARE MEN.

Wanted.

Houses to rent. If the owners of dwellings and business places desiring renters would leave a list of their places at this office, would be able to rent them immediately, especially a residence.
L. H. Smith & Co.

For Rent.

Furnished rooms with heat and baths. 531 South Jersey.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.—Rev. James A. Lewis, pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by St. Johns Drug Store.

To Whom it May Concern.

For the name and residence of the owner of any property in St. Johns or vicinity, call on or write T. T. Parker, attorney at law, in Holbrook building.
Titles to real property.

Wanted.

Good bright girl, who is a good speller, to learn typesetting at this office.

Local News.

He who by his bid would rise
Must either bust or advertise.

P. L. McKinney of St. Johns has purchased a farm at Canby, Or., and moves there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Nelson and son Carl, of Bandon, Or., were in the city last week looking around with a view to locating.

Mrs. Braasch, formerly of this city, now living at Estacada, was in the city last week, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert.

Miss Marie Bredeson experienced the delights of a party Monday evening, when some 20 of her young friends gathered at her home and made her happy.

Dr. A. W. Vincent has moved his office from 203 Jersey to 107 South Hayes near city hall where he will meet his old patrons and welcome all his new ones.

It is reported that the Columbia Engineering works have sold a part of their land on the hill opposite St. Johns for $50,000. Pretty good for paucity times, but it is worth the "mum."

Sheriff White of Columbia county was a visitor in St. Johns last Thursday and complimented our little city very highly. The sheriff knows a good thing when he sees it and is not afraid to speak right out in meeting.

One of our old tillicums says for us to announce that Sam Downey is in need of a button hook. He did not say whether the genial Sam wished to use it to button his collar or for a toothpick but we hope some of his good friends will supply him with one.

The West St. Johns Land company has opened up an office in Whitwood court, the new and attractive home district on the west bank. Shepard and Ogden are the realty hustlers who are making the wheels go round for this company and are doing things over there.

T. A. Jensen, a newspaper man recently from Watertown, Wis., and now a resident of St. Johns, spent a few hours very pleasantly this week and last helping us get this great moral prevaricator out on time. Mr. Jensen likes St. Johns very much and will make it his future home.

H. Hurlbert is another fig grower in St. Johns who is making a success of it. Recently we mentioned one or two citizens who were harvesting two crops of figs per year. Mr. Hurlbert gathers about two bushels each season and they are the most healthful fruit grown in the land.

Last week before the Oregon mist struck us the potato digger was singing his tuneless lay while he turned out the tubers at the rate of 250 to 300 sacks per acre in St. Johns. As spuds are worth $1.30 per sack it begins to look a little like the old strawberry crop of Hood River, to the bank account.

Mrs. Stansberry of Hood River and Mrs. Kinney of Grand avenue, Portland, were callers at this office last week looking for our castle on the Willamette, where they wished to honor our little chaperone with a call; but our auto-gasoline-buggy was in the stable and as the car line does not pass our domicile and the distance was too great to walk, the good ladies were obliged to send their regrets.

The Oregon mist is getting to be an almost daily visitor here now and we do not hear any one "holloing" for the council to oil the streets. We have been told they are going to spoil Mansfield's duck pond on Tacoma street, though, and incidentally deprive the small boys of their temporary "regatta" grounds. Sorry for Mansfield and the boys, but the mills of the gods must grind even if they are a little slow.

Sam Downey received a letter Tuesday from D. C. Rogers announcing that he and his family were on their way home and would stop a couple of days at Salt Lake, and would be in St. Johns about December 8th to occupy their residence. The letter stated they were enjoying themselves and that they hoped the Wall street gambling was doing no injury to their home city and wished to be remembered to their many friends here.

B. S. Swengel gave a most interesting address to the pupils of the high school Wednesday of last week on banking and finances in general, explaining clearly to the pupils the nature and manner of employing the clearing house certificates so that they could thoroughly understand the matter. The pupils gave the closest attention during the entire address, thus showing their appreciation of the subject generally and the speaker's remarks in particular.

The Oregon Corn Flake company (made in St. Johns) has sold its stock to permanent residents of St. Johns and this secures this most desirable institution for our city. They intend to enlarge their plant at once and begin the manufacture of this cereal product on a large scale. They will probably locate near the water front. There is more of this product sold in St. Johns than all other kinds combined and it is the best yet. There will be no cold, stale goods from this factory. It will always be nice and crisp. Eat it.

Don't forget the shoe social of Pythian Sisters next Tuesday night.

Rev. C. Buechler of the Lutheran church was in the city this week and expects to return next week to take steps toward beginning pastoral work here.

Rev. C. Buechler of the Lutheran church was in the city Wednesday of this week and expects to return next week to take steps to begin pastoral work here.

George Campling came home from Carleton and North Yamhill where he has been for several days "lathing" some buildings. He goes to Dayton today where he has another large contract.

P. S. Bannon returned Thursday from his vacation of a week at white Salmon, Wash., and reported a good time there, with nice weather until the last day when it rained in regular Oregon style.

The stern Sunday school teacher asked the newly arrived small member: "Who led the children of Israel out of Egypt?" The little fellow squirmed under the stern gaze awhile and finally blurted out: "It wasn't me sir, we just moved here las' week."

John McClave of Redlands, Cal. who has been visiting in Seattle and other Sound points recently was in the city Saturday on his way home. He said he could not afford to pass up Portland and St. Johns on his route and felt well repaid for his visit here.

Pilgrim's Progress will be illustrated at the Congregational church Sunday, December 1, at 7:30 p. m. The book is great and the slides are beautiful. All are invited to attend. Usual morning services. G. W. Nelson, pastor.

Miss Stella Campling, one of our good girls, came home from La-Camas, Wash., where she has been teaching school and will remain over Thanksgiving and then attend the teacher's institute at Vancouver, Wash., before she returns to work.

The chain gang held an election Monday night which resulted as follows: H. S. Simmons, N. G.; C. P. Gates, V. G.; E. B. Holcomb, sec.; Victor Carlson, treasurer. It is thought the new officers ought to be made "wet down" their new jobs. What do you say, Odd Fellows?

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Keogan returned from Clackamas Wednesday, where they had been in attendance on the funeral of Mrs. Keogan's brother-in-law, F. N. Brezee, at that place. Mr. Brezee has been a resident there for the past five years and was ill about four months preceding his demise.

"If a man die shall he live again? If so where and how?" will be the questions considered at the Evangelical church Sunday evening. The morning topic: "The Dead Church." The fifth in the series of the Letters to the Seven Churches of Asia. You are most cordially invited to attend these services. Chester P. Gates, pastor.

W. E. Byerlee, who has been operating in a lumber camp in Washington opposite Viento, was down to visit the tribe the first of the week and incidentally to have his teeth filed and set. We do not suppose he "beavers" a tree down occasionally, but like the cross-cut saws he uses, his teeth sometimes need dressing up. He returned Tuesday to work until the snow runs him out for the winter.

An Irishman wanted to take a "homestead," and not knowing just how to go about it, sought information from a friend. "Mike," he said, "you've taken a homestead an' I thought maybe ye could tell me th' law concernin' how to go about it." "Well, Dennis, I don't remember th' exact wordin' uv th' law, but I can give ye th' exact manin' uv it. The manin' uv it is this: The government is willin' bet ye 160 acres uv land agin $14 that ye can't live on it five years without starvin' t' death."—Ex.

The first social function of the Commercial club for the season was held last night at their rooms. It was a most delightful affair, the rooms being filled with many of the most enterprising citizens of St. Johns with their wives and daughters. It is intended to make this a feature of the club's work and will do a great deal to promote interest and goodfellowship in the club. We regret that we were unable to attend last night but will be sure to meet the club at their next social.

W. R. C.

Mrs. Cora M. Davis, the department president, Mrs. Sarah A. Kemp, department chaplain, and Mrs. Courter, of Portland, department ad visited Gen. Compton's W. R. C. No. 52; the department president as inspector.

The work was very thoroughly done. The president and color bearers, with other members of the Lincoln and Garfield W. R. C.'s were also visitors. The color bearers brought their colors and put the color work on for inspection, which was very highly appreciated. Gen. Compton's Corps, being a new one, never had put on the color work. One of the members has been asked to give a reading at the convention at Toledo, O., this coming year. After inspection they served an informal banquet with the Post.

R. D. Jackson Turns Benedict.

There is crape on the door of the 40-mile club. One of their staunchest members, in whom they had the greatest reliance has turned traitor and handed in his resignation — a beautiful, lithographic work of art—done, it is said, by Willis Moxon for Mr. Jackson, the retiring member. All this because Mr. Jackson, aided and abetted by Miss Alma Villeneuve committed matrimony in the first degree last week.

The happy young people returned from their bridal trip to Seattle and other Sound points on Sunday evening. Monday noon the mourning members of the 40-mile club presented Mr. Jackson at his store with a beautiful four-piece silver set, which was most highly appreciated by the recipient; in fact, he was so delighted that he held his clerk from his noonday lunch until he was nearly starved while he took the beauties home to show them to Mrs. Jackson.

Tuesday evening the boys, young and old, organized a tin pan brigade and surrounding Mr. Jackson's pretty home on the corner of Baltimore and Fillmore streets proceeded to entertain him and his pretty bride in the orthodox style. Mr. Jackson was obdurate and the band was compelled to perform several and sundry pieces, cover his domicile with tinware, gunny sacks and other ornaments, until Bro. Jackson relented and met them with a generous reception. Then they decamped, calling down all kinds of blessings on the new benedict and his happy bride. The serenaders then went to Magoon's where they ate ice cream, smoked cigars, drank root beer and cider to the health of their generous hearted friends until after the hour when the witches ride before their stock of clearing house certificates were used up.
