Progressive Cinch

Saturday evening a most delightful card party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Davenport. There were 16 invited guests present and the game, progressive cinch, was the prominent amusement of the evening. After a series of games it was determined that Mrs. Gray carried the honors S. B. Coulter, of St. Paul, Minn., that went with the first prize for was in the city this week, the guest the ladies, C. H. Derrie that of the gentlemen, while the consolation prize went to Mrs. C. H. Derrie.

At the close of the game the guests were marshalled around the festal board which had for its center piece a Christmas tree on which was a present for each guest in the shape of some sort of a musical instrument upon which the guest was expected to entertain the party with a tune. Then a most delicious lunch was partaken of and the guests departed with many expressions of their enjoyment of the Frank Thorndyke, large as life and Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. machinery in motion to secure the and twice as good looking, was up Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. H.S. Clearance Sale certificate

Good for 25c in trade during December

At our branch store, No. 107 S. Jersey, this advertisement if cut out and brought to us will be applied on any purchase of $2.00 or more for cash. For example: If you buy a pair of shoes for $2, by turning in this coupon you get the shoes for $1.75. If $2.25 shoes you get them for $2.00. And this applies to anything in our dry goods and shoe store. This amounts to an average of about 10 per cent reduction in prices, which is the same as the cut in the mill hands wages.
