Watch St. Johns grow this year.

Local News.

He who by his biz would rise Must either bust or advertise.

Voters in precinct No. 1 will register at 110 No. Jersey at the office of Richard Shepard & Co.

There were eight foreign vessels anchored in our harbor last week. Guess Portland must be crowded for room.

Mrs. C. W. Potter, who has been confined to her bed for some days by serious illness, is slowly recovering.

Mr. Mellien of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ward of Olex, Ore., visited at the S. J. Schelter home Sunday.

Ed. Stockton, resident reporter of the Telegram at St. Johns, has rented his residence at Whitwood Court, and is now living in our city.

St. Johns Citizens club will meet at city hall Wednesday evening, Jan. 22 at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody interested in the future of St. Johns cordially invited.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will render a program in Bickner's hall at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Absolutely free. No collection. Everybody welcome.

A physician was called and an operation made to relieve an abscess behind Mrs. Coffyn's left ear. It was a very successful operation it is reported and the lady is recovering.

It will soon be time to repaper your homes and repaint the building. Kindly see E. C. Monnich's ad and call on him when you need anything in his line. He will "fix you plenty."

B. F. Belieu, who has not been well for some time has gone to Southern California in hopes that his health may be improved. We hope he may soon regain his health and return to St. Johns.

W. E. Swengel, our popular harness maker, attended the Harness-makers' and Dealers' convention at Portland Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. He is Johnny on the spot when there is anything doing in his line.

A series of sermons will be preached at the Baptist church Sunday evenings commencing January 16, at 7:30 on the topic: "Is the Bible from God or of Men?" All are cordially invited. E. A. Leonard, pastor.

Mr. Frank Mason of San Francisco and formerly of St. Johns, made Dr. and Mrs. Hartel a visit Wednesday. Mr. Mason is chief engineer of the steamer Johan Poulson, which plies between Portland and San Francisco.

Mrs. Lasher, who has been in the city attending her daughter, Mrs. Rambo, during her recent illness, returned home to Cheney, Wash., accompanied by Mrs. Rambo, who will visit with her mother for awhile as she regains her health.

A movement is on foot to start a creamery here which will be a first class institution, enabling our people to get cream, milk, butter, cheese, eggs, etc., fresh at all times. We hope the gentlemen interested will succeed in doing so for it is something St. Johns needs badly.

Mr. Averell, the representative of Western Life, is meeting with good success. The business men particularly are subscribing liberally to his magazine. His offer of a free write-up for the city with good illustrations is a very liberal one and we trust the full number of 300 subscriptions may be secured here.

Mrs. M. A. Bitgood left this week to attend her daughter, Mrs. Fountain, at Waverly, Ore., who is ill with the measles. Mrs. Bitgood anticipates a picnic, as neither Mrs. Fountain, her husband or any of their four or five children have experienced the pleasure of a seance with that disease. The family and Mrs. Bitgood have our hearty congratulations.

A mother sent her minor children down from Portsmouth Tuesday to get her some beer. When asked why they came here instead of Portland, replied that the policemen were getting too strict over there. They were brought up before the municipal judge, where they were taught that St. Johns policemen were up to date, and mother will have to get her own beer until her boys become of age.

H. E. Harris, president and manager of Harris Bros. Ice Machinery Co. was in the city Tuesday looking after his interests here. Mr. Harris says that the machinery for the ice plant is all finished and ready to be sent to St. Johns. He is having the ground put in shape for the erection of the building and as soon as the material can be gotten on the ground will have it put up. He says they will be making ice there by the first of April.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rice of Mason City, Ia., who have been making an extended tour of the Southwestern states arrived in St. Johns last week. They expect to make this their future home. We congratulate them upon their taste and judgment and wish them the best of success. Mrs. Rice is a daughter of R. W. McKeon, our predecessor on the Review, is a chip off the old block, a bright, happy young woman who will be welcomed to the society of the city.

Commercial Club.

The commercial club met in regular session last Wednesday and the rooms were crowded with interested citizens. The club was met by a couple of representatives of the Portland Board of Trade Journal, with a proposition to give St. Johns a write up in that publication's anniversary number. The club endorsed their proposition and expressed the desire that our merchants and business men would contribute liberally to the fund. A representative of the Journal will call upon you in a few days. Dig up liberally and let our city be known on the outside.

The matter of the free ferry was taken up, a committee appointed to confer with the county commissioners with a view to having the county purchase the present ferry and operate the same free.

Other matters of minor importance were discussed and all members appeared to be blowing up their muscles for a strenuous effort when the robins nest again.

Mrs. Carrie Wilkes.

Mrs. Carrie Wilkes, wife of Mr. Wilkes of Point View, died at their home on the corner of Dayton and Seneca streets Sunday at 11 p. m., of tuberculosis and heart failure.

The funeral services were conducted at the home on Tuesday morning by Rev. G. W. Nelson of the Congregational church. Interment was made in the Rose City Park cemetery. Mrs. Wilkes leaves a husband, daughter, mother and sister to mourn her early departure.

A Home Made Happy by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well to day.—Geo. W. Spence, Holly Spring, N. C. For sale by St. Johns Drug Store.
