Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Moe spent Sunday at the home of Dick Currier and family, Portland. As usual a fine time was enjoyed with these genial people.

Now is the time to pay your taxes and get the advantage of the rebate. Drop the sheriff a card and learn what are the taxes you owe, then dig up before you forget it.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnett made a short visit in St. Johns, Saturday, called by the illness of Mrs. Arnett's brother, J. C. Aiken. They returned home Sunday, Mr. Aiken being much improved.

A little flurry of snow about the size of the late millionaire financial flurry visited St. Johns Monday and gave amusement for a number of the boys and girls of the city. There was sledding on the hillsides and snowballing all over.

Mrs. Matilda Greenwald, died at her home, 903 Pettigrove street, Portland, January 22. Deceased leaves four children to mourn her loss: Mrs. Matilda Herold, Will and Fritz Greenwald of Portland and C. C. Greenwald of St. Johns. Burial took place at Lone Fir cemetery Friday, January 24.

"The Sabbath, a Human Necessity" will be the topic on which Rev. J. H. Leiper, field secretary for the National Sabbath association, speaks next Sunday morning at the Evangelical church. Rev. Leiper is a man of much experience in reform work and should be heard by everybody especially upon this subject.

Someone whose hunger got the best of his sense of right or fear of the law broke into Muck & Derrie's store and also into the bakery and meat market located in the French block, Monday night. Muck & Derrie could discover no loss and there was little or none in the meat market, but in the bakery a number of cakes and pies were missing and one cake was partly eaten.

Miss Grace Stucker went over to Vancouver last week to attend a function given by a young ladies' club of which she is a member. She reports a most delightful time, all kinds of fun and good things to eat. Her story sounds so good that we are tempted to send in an application for membership. The young ladies could have the time of their lives teaching us to ride their goat on a side saddle.

E. Vandermeer sold all his holdings in St. Johns last week. Van says it is not because he does not like St. Johns, for he thinks St. Johns is a great place. He says here is where he got his start and he made it in real estate. He has purchased a big farm up the valley and expects to give his attention more closely to that. We will make this prediction, that it will not be a year until Van is back here picking up city property.

Rumors are constantly being met affirming that Schwartzchild & Sulzberger will put in an immense packing plant which will make the Swift plant look like 30 cents. That this big packing company will build is not doubted by any one. There is another thing to be considered and that is there is no place so suitable as the peninsula for establishing this plant near Portland. There will be something doing this summer in and about St. Johns.

Department Commander S. F. Blythe will be in St. Johns today in attendance at the meeting of the G. A. R. We put in several years slinging type for Mr. Blythe at Hood River and we are anticipating a good visit from him. He is one of God's noblemen. Honest as the sunshine, kind hearted as a woman and not afraid of anything or anybody when it comes to a matter of principle. May his life be spared many years to enjoy the country he fought three long years to save.

Andrew Melgarde made a few hour's visit at the home of W. O. Moe last Tuesday. Mr. Melgarde was formerly in the banking business in Goldendale, Wash., but is now temporarily located in Warren, Minn. He lately returned from a trip to his old home in Norway and is now seeking a permanent location, having California as a viewpoint. Mr. Melgarde is much impressed with Portland and vicinity and should be an unsuccessful in his quest in California will possibly return here. Let us hope he finds nothing to suit him better than the City of Roses.

T. M. Nassa of Cathlamet, Wash., was up last week on a visit to his old friend L. Rasmussen. He was returning from a trip to Hot Lake, Ore., where he has been spending several weeks. He says he has been most successful with his fish traps at Cathlamet during the past year, having caught and sold about $5000 worth of the funny tribe. He has four traps there and a fine boat of five or six tons burden, besides a launch which he attends his traps with. Mr. Nassa having friends here wished to keep in touch with the place and deposited one of the "dollars of our daddies" to insure Uncle Sam's carrying the Review to him for a year.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church are preparing for a bazar. Watch for further notice.

Francis James McHenry talks temperance next Tuesday night at Bickner's hall. Don't fail to hear him.

Dr. Leon E. Story, formerly of St. Johns, has removed to 901-2 Corbett building, Fifth and Morrison streets.

Dr. Marsh of Woodburn is in the city the guest of his brother-in-law, our genial city recorder, Mr. Esson will likely work his rabbit's foot on the visitor and get him to locate here.

The M. W. of A. are going to give a dance in their hall on Washington's Birthday. All who enjoy tripping the light fantastic will most surely have a fine evening entertainment if they attend.

W. J. Ferrell will move with his family next week to Sherman county where he has purchased a 240 acre wheat ranch. We regret to see our townsman going, but glad to know that he is going into one of the best wheat sections of the west.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church met in business session at the home of Mrs. Shelter on Oswego street last Thursday evening. There was a good attendance an interesting meeting and delicious lunch after the meeting provided by the hostess.

"The Twin Reproach—Which is Worse? The Rattlesnake that Strikes the Boy or the Viper that Stings the Girl." This is the subject that will be considered next Sunday evening at the Evangelical church at 7:30. All are cordially invited to attend. C. P. Gates, pastor.

The Peninsula shingle mill has been putting in a fine lot of new machinery and enlarging their plant. They will begin operations again Monday and will employ about 75 men. Their output will be 400,000 shingles per day. This is one of the best industries on the peninsula.

There is steady work at the drydock these days. As fast as one vessel is off there is another on and sometimes two on at the same time when they are not too large. Our drydock has one of the most favorable locations in the harbor, situated as it is in the cove made by the bend in the river at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Akers of Ione, Ore., was in the city Tuesday visiting their friend, P. J. Miller. J. C. Mount of Brush, Colo., is also in the city. The people are coming and coming early. Just wait until spring opens up. There will be things doing in the old town or we miss our guess.

S. L. Dobie has removed his real estate office from the corner of Jersey and Burlington into the rooms back of the Peninsula bank recently vacated by Leroy H. Smith on Philadelphia street. This gives Mr. Dobie an office on the ground floor in a very desirable locality. Dobie is all right and we trust he may meet with abundant success in his new location.

There is a new furniture house being established in St. Johns. This will be a surprise to many of our readers. Victor Carlson, the efficient manager of Cale Bros., is starting out for himself, with others, in the lower block temporarily, but will erect a substantial brick and concrete building in the near future for their use. Full particulars will be given next week.

A number of little girls were entertained at the home of W. O. Moe Saturday from three to five, in honor of Miss Nettie's ninth birthday. The afternoon was spent in childish games. All enjoyed a happy time. Those present were: Mamie Johnson, Alvina Coleman, Ruth Nelson, Dottie Caples, Manon Clark, Minnie Isenhardt, Lillian Nelson, Muriel Alderson, Rico Anderson.

A postal from J. E. Kirk, dated January 31, requests us to send his Review to Roman, Mont. He does not give us any information as to what he is doing up in that country, but dollars to doughnuts he is toasting his shins by the fire. When we were in Billings about the middle of October mercury stood at 8 degrees above zero, and by this time it ought to be half way down to China.

We are indebted to Mrs. Thorndyke for a beautiful scenic card showing the moonlight on Astoria bay, or whatever the Columbia is called there. It is prettier than a spanked baby and we would like very much to take a sail on those waters. Mrs. Thorndyke admonishes all of us to be good, that she is going to jar loose and come up and visit the old stamping grounds once more in the near future.

Have you been in Bonham & Currier's since they have moved their dry goods and shoe department into the room formerly occupied by Owens Bros.' pool rooms? This room has been cleared of all the old fittings and fully shelved, the south side being devoted to a fine line of shoes, while the numerous tables in the center of the large floor and the shelves on the north side of the building are filled with a splendid assortment of all kinds of dry goods and notions. Messrs. Bonham & Currier made a tenstrike when they secured the room adjoining them. This makes their store the largest in the city.

STRAUSS BROS. CLOTHING

Born, Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. George Munson of North Fillmore, a daughter.

Mrs. B. S. Hoover enjoyed a visit from her mother, Mrs. Sarah Smith of Oregon City one day this week.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hinton living down near the dry dock, died Wednesday morning of bowel trouble. Burial will be given in the care of Zeller-Byrnes' undertaker.

J. W. Reeves has moved his grocery store down from Point View into Bredeen's rooms on the corner of Jersey and Fessenden, where he has a nice little stock of groceries, canned goods, cigars and tobaccos.

A most enjoyable surprise party was given Wednesday evening to B. S. Swengel at the home of his parents in the south part of town. Games and jokes were the order of the hour. It being leap year the ladies escorted the gentlemen to the supper table which was spread with the usual good things.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Smith of Deckerville, Mich., were in the city yesterday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Smith is a pleasant man and naturally came in to see the boys. He expects to make his home here and was well impressed with St. Johns and environments.

The second address on "In His Steps" will be given at the Congregational church Sunday evening, February 9. Last Sunday's address will be briefly reviewed and all the slides illustrating the great book will be used. In the morning the Sunday school convenes at 10 a. m. and preaching services will be conducted at 11. The public is invited. G. W. Nelson, pastor.

Miss Emma McNeill, who has been employed during the past year with Bonham & Currier's dry goods department, left their service last week and Wednesday departed for an extended visit with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Shearer, at Medford, Oregon. Miss McNeill intimates that she may stay there permanently, but we do not think she will be able to stay away from St. Johns and her many friends here will never give up for her to leave them for that backwoods town. So there. Miss McNeill is a most charming, bright young lady and will be greatly missed by her circle of friends here.

Some of our people thought because we mentioned last week that Mr. and Mrs. Ed C. Petersen, when they returned from their wedding trip would take up their abode at Highland Park, Portland, that Mr. Petersen was going to sever his business relations with St. Johns but this is a mistake. Mr. Petersen had a fine cage there for his bird before he made the capture and he simply flies home to roost at night and comes to his work (after breakfast) in the morning. We are in hopes he will trade his home to some one of the chronic annexationists in St. Johns so that we may be able to get rid of one of these "undesirable citizens" and get "Pete" domiciled in our midst.

Change in Meat Market.

M. A. Bitgood and J. A. Cole have purchased the meat market and trade of B. S. Hoover on So. Jersey St. and will continue the business at the same location. Mr. Bitgood is well known to all of our people and Mr. Cole is a young man of sterling qualities and pleasing address, and we predict for this firm a full share of the patronage of our people. We know they will give them the best service they are capable of and at prices as low as can be made consistent with the business.

Ernest E. Elliott.

Ernest E. Elliott was born in Benton county, Oregon, September 25, 1873. He was married May 1899 to Miss Mary Young and died at Myrtle Park station January 30, 1908. He leaves a wife, two children and three brothers.

A large number of the members of Laurel lodge I. O. O. F. and Laurelwood lodge of Rebekahs of which lodges Mr. Elliott was a highly esteemed member, gathered at the hall and went to Portland where the funeral services were held in Finlay's chapel Sunday afternoon under the auspices of these lodges. Monday his body was taken to Corvallis where interment was made under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge at that place.

Mr. Elliott was a resident of St. Johns for two or three years and started the first drug store in this city. He made many friends here who sincerely mourn his sudden death. He was ill but three or four days of pneumonia, and the first intimation of his illness that many of his friends here had was the announcement of his death.

Miller-Bussard.

Ray F. Miller and Miss Gertie Bussard, worthy and highly esteemed young people of Albany, Ore., were joined in marriage at the home of and by Rev. G. W. Nelson, Wednesday afternoon, February 5, 1908. After a short wedding trip in Portland and vicinity, they will make their home on the groom's farm near Albany.
