Local News.

He who by his biz would rise Must either bust or advertise.

Rev. N. W. Sager of Dallas will preach morning and evening at the Evangelical church on Sunday, March 15.

Severt Glarum who has been very ill is about again. His wife and mother were callers in our town Monday.

John Shriner has sold his property in South St. Johns and will go into business at Maegley Junction in the near future.

Fraternal Brotherhood will give a program and dance tonight in the M. W. A. Hall. Admission free. All are invited to come and enjoy the occasion.

Bickford & Tennant have completed and neatly painted their new carpenter shop back of O. P. Wolcott's office on Charleston street. It presents a neat appearance.

Henry Allen has been having a high old time with the grip. He doesn't think it so hilariously funny as fighting bumble bees, and there is no honey in it either. If he had his choice he would rather go fishing.

Mrs. Geo. H. Lynn, who has been assisting us occasionally in the office, went to Hood River Tuesday of this week for a visit. There is no place quite like Hood River for her and when her solid fellow gets here from Omaha they expect to make their home there.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Griffiths, Friday, March 6, 1908 on the East side, a son. As this is the heir apparent, the first born Brother Griffith is to be pardoned for stepping around with his chin at an unusual elevation. May the young man grow up to be as good looking as his father.

D. C. Rogers has been appointed deputy assessor for St. Johns in accordance with the suggestion of our friend, S. C. Cook and if there are any kicks coming on the next assessment it will save our people the car fare necessary to personally register a kick with the assessor. We sympathize with Mr. Rogers.

The work is being pushed on Philadelphia and Tacoma streets. The only kick we have heard registered is that of Mansfield, the whisker scientist. He laments the passing of his duck pond on Tacoma. He declares the beauty of the street is gone since that placid lake has been removed. He has our sympathy.

Miss Adria Burkhardt, who has been visiting her aunts, Mrs. Tryon and Mrs. Glover since the holidays, returned to her home in Albany last Saturday. Miss Burkhardt is a very charming young lady and made many friends during her stay here who sincerely regret that she found it necessary to return home.

Just let your eye rest upon the new ad of Petersen & Noce. These gentlemen have received a fine line of new shades in chevrons and worsteds which they are making into suits of the latest patterns. Try them for your next suit. We will guarantee that you will be "suited" to your satisfaction, for they are expert tailors.

Rev. G. W. Nelson has purchased the property of Henry Yeske on the corner of Oswego and Hudson streets, repaired and refinished the same and moved in this week. There they will be found under their own vine and fig tree and there we trust they may flourish like a green bay tree, or Jonah's gourd but that they may not suffer the fate of the latter.

W. E. Neff, one of our good Hood River friends was in the city Wednesday and made this office a pleasant visit. Mr. Neff sold his Hood River home last summer at a good round price and has recently purchased a 20-acre home near Cornelius where he will make his home in the future. We hope he will make it as well there as he did at Hood River for he is a fine fellow and deserving of success.

There came near being another frightful calamity in an Ohio town and this time it would have been of greater interest to St. Johns, as a niece of Mayor Couch, Miss Corine Boulton was a pupil in the school which burned. It was a very large structure containing 52 rooms and over 1000 pupils attended. Fifteen minutes later these pupils would all have been in their places, and it is hard to tell what might have been the result. Everyone must feel grateful that these young people were spared the danger of such an experience.

The measles grip, seems to be general in its visitations, hardly a family escaping and in many cases the entire family paying tribute to its cussedness. We fooled it the last time, however. When the grip had spit on its hands and taken a good tight hold on us we took a teaspoonful of cayenne pepper, on the advice of a friend, and it cured us completely in about four hours, and there was no bad after effect as is always the case when we used whiskey and quinine; on the contrary we never felt more vigorous or free from the ills of life. It is hot stuff, though, and should not be given to any one except in capsules, unless they are put up like us, case hardened, triple nickel-plated cast steel.
