Recent operations on the peninsula near St. Johns is causing inquiries for investments here. If you have anything to sell at reasonable figures it will be to your interest to let me know.

H. G. Ogden, St. Johns.

D. E. Young of Klamath Falls, Ore., is in the city this week the guest of his charming cousin, Mrs. F. W. Valentine, and has just about coaxed that genial pair to go to Klamath Falls this summer. It will be all right if it is only for a visit, but if it is to stay, Mr. Young will not be so young as he used to be if their friends get hold of him.

Last week the good people of Mount Scott came to St. Johns and put the beautiful cantata "Esther" on the stage in Bickner's hall. This is one of the most beautiful cantatas we have ever heard and it was very well rendered under the circumstances. The facts were the troupe almost to a "man" was suffering from the effects of the grippe and the stage in the hall was not half large enough to properly present the entertainment. There were many good points of acting and despite the colds from which the singers were suffering, a very fair presentation was made.

A very interesting meeting of St. Johns W. C. T. U. was held at the Baptist church last Monday afternoon. Reports of the various departments of work were encouraging; especially the Sunday afternoon meeting at Bickner's hall, given by the president, Mrs. Scott. Mrs. Dalgleish was then introduced and gave an interesting talk on soldier's and sailor's work. Mrs. Dalgleish spoke of the homeless sailor boy who comes into a city, the temptations he is surrounded with, his hard life; telling the ladies of the many ways he can be helped and benefited. A superintendent was appointed for that department and the work will be taken up.
