Miss Perkins, who has been in Woodburn for the past two months, has returned home for the summer.
Dr. Holland went to Hood River this week for a look around. We would not be surprised to hear that the good doctor had snapped up a piece of good apple land there. He will make no mistake if he does.

George Campbell and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with their daughter, Miss Stella, who is teaching school at Camas, Wash. They report a fine visit, good time, lovely weather and a great game of ball Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Luckey, who has been visiting Mrs. Bitgood the past five or six weeks returned to her home in Junction City, Ore., Thursday. Mrs. Luckey is a very dear friend of the Bitgoods, who have enjoyed her visit with them very much.

D. C. Henry, principal of the Odell school near Hood River, visited at the home of D. Perkins, Sunday evening and Monday. As the school term is finished Mr. Henry will take up his studies at Monmouth again, after attending the S. S. convention at Forest Grove.

J. B. Hall the whisker expert has returned from up the valley and opened a shop at 120 West Burlington street where he will be glad to serve his old patrons. Jim is a good one and can drive in your whiskers with ease and facility without resorting to anesthetics or tying the victim in the chair.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Copple, father and mother of Mrs. D. R. Norton, were visitors in St. Johns Sunday. They are old Hood River friends and we hope to capture them for St. Johns some day as a number of their family are living in Portland and St. Johns. They are of the best of the earth, the kind we like to see come to St. Johns to live.

Frank Thorndyke, high private in the rear rank of the Owl Printery, the home of the Astoria Leader, was in the city Sunday shaking hands with old friends. Frank looks good. The close proximity to the big briny does not seem to roughen up the peachy complexion of his manly phiz. That's all right, Frank, don't mention it. Come again.

Burleigh Cash of Hood River was a visitor in the Review office Monday. Burleigh was on his way to Forest Grove to attend the State Sunday School convention held there the first of the week, and could not pass his old tillicum without dropping in to see them. The latchstring is always out to the Hood Riverites. They all look good to us.

B. F. Belieu is erecting a good seven-room house for M. L. Holbrook in East St. Johns. It is 26x28, two stories high with full concrete basement and is being built from plans and specifications furnished by Mr. Belieu. Mr. Belieu is still working on a 9-room house on the East Side which will occupy his time for some two or three weeks yet.

Mrs. E. L. Sellars, sister of O. R. Downs, has been visiting him for the past three weeks. The brother and sister had not met for 18 years and have had a delightful visit. Mrs. Sellars' home is at Sanitarium, Napa county, California, where she is a trained nurse. She has been making a tour of the coast and stopped here to visit her brother and other friends on her return from the north.

Our old friend Oscar Stranahan, accompanied by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bert Stranahan of Hood River, were callers at the Review office Wednesday. Mrs. Stranahan is a good friend of our compositor, Miss Beller. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stranahan report things lively and everything lovely in the Apple City. Big crop prospects, big building projects, big money in Hood River realty, in fact a big thing in a little valley is Hood River and her environments, and we believe every word of it; but the climate of St. Johns has that of the apple country skinned to a frazzle, and they think they have a corner on the climate up there.

Wearly Willie has returned. We were glad to see the genial phiz of the champion whisker specialist, Harry Mansfield at his old location on Jersey street Monday morning. Harry says St. Johns has grown a "heap," in his estimation, anyway, since he went away. He misses the old goose pond on Tacoma street, but thinks that St. Johns is better than anything he saw while swinging round the circle. He says that Rawhide is not what it looks to be from this distance. He saw 15 unfortunates in the morgue the day he left, victims of pneumonia, which is killing men like sheep. He thinks they would have done well there if they could have found a location for a shop, but as they could not they came home by way of "Frisco" and Coos bay. Nothing looked so good to them as St. Johns and Adam Kaemlein will soon be home with their outfit. We are glad to welcome the boys home and hope they will be good, now, settle down and grow up with the country.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to publicly express our gratitude for and appreciation of the kindness of the citizens of St. Johns and particularly the members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges, and for their generous assistance during the sad hours of the departure of our husband and father. Your kindness friends, will never be forgotten.
Mrs. W. B. Evans and children.

Another Business Enterprise.

R. S. Moore of 667 Washington street, Portland has purchased the lot next to O. P. Wolcott's office on South Jersey and is erecting a substantial business house thereon. The room will be 24x50 and Mr. Moore will put therein a fine line of gent's furnishings and all that goes with such an establishment. Mr. Moore comes from West Virginia, is an enterprising young man, thoroughly conversant with his business and we bespeak for him abundant success in his undertaking. The house will not be ready several weeks yet.

Better Fruit, with its usual neat dress and beautiful illustrations, came out for April this week. It is a credit to both its editor and publisher, E. H. Shepard and the printers who did the mechanical part of the work.

"When Ye Fast" will be the topic of Sunday morning's discourse at the Evangelical church. The evening subject will embody in its course an exposition of saloon rule under the head "The Honor of a City." All are invited. C. P. Gates, pastor.

Mr. G. W. Wilcox, an old Iowa friend, who has been spending the year in Oregon at Hood River and points up the Willamette was in the city yesterday and informed us during his brief call at our office, that he was on his way east and would stop a bit at the old home in Iowa before proceeding on to New York. He says he expects to come back to Oregon again, however.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Potter started last night for Medford, Ore., where they recently purchased a fine apple orchard. They were preceded by Mr. and Mrs. Goold a week ago, who went with the household goods to have the home prepared before Mr. Potter, who has been detained by illness arrives. We sincerely regret to lose these good friends, but wish them abundant success in their new industrial venture.

J. P. Kallarup, nephew of Mrs. C. Jaspersen, whom she has not seen for 40 years, with his wife visited her a few days since and is now up the coast. Mr. Kallarup lives in Chicago and has been making a tour of the coast. He will return to St. Johns again for a further visit with his aunt before going back home. Mrs. Jaspersen hopes to so interest him here that he will return and make his home here.
