He who by his bid would rise Must either bust or advertise.
Old papers for sale at this office.
Remember the memorial services at the Baptist church Sunday, May 23.
Walter Coon is doing circular work on the express cars of the Suburban these fine days.
The genial face of C. W. Stearns is again shining behind the counter in the Suburban express here.
"The American Eagle and the Weasel," the topic Sunday night at the Evangelical church—Come.
J. H. Kissel, a Portland business man has commenced the erection of a five-room bungalow in Whitwood Court which will be modern throughout.
The G. A. R. Post will visit the schools on the 29th at 11 o'clock, the same hour in both schools. The pupils will have programs for the occasion.
All the Rebekahs should take notice that the car for Vancouver leaves St. Johns tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock, sharp. You will have to hurry or you will get left.
Gordon Bragg, an old Hood Riverite, now in the employ of Gadsby & Co., Portland, was in the city Tuesday and called for a few moments to say hello. Gordon is all right, is a good employe and will vote for Tom Word which shows that his heart is in the right place.
George L. Perrine returned Monday from an extended visit at Kelso where he has been engaged in the erection of a three story brick. It is about time that big brick that so much has been said about was being put up here. Tuesday Gordon went to Stevenson, Skamania county, to help erect another big building.
The Rebekahs are going in a body in their own chartered car to Vancouver next Saturday, tomorrow, to visit their sisters across the river. A week from tonight the Odd Fellows are going to do the same thing. That is something like there is nothing so fraternal as brotherly and sisterly visits, except more of them.
Mr. Drinker of the First National bank has something that is good for the sore eyes. It is a bunch of crisp new bills of St. Johns money. There are two denominations, $5 and $10 bills. These new bills were received from the department at Washington last week, and are being put into circulation by the bank. They are good to look at and better to carry around with you.
E. C. Monnich returned from his farm near Scio where he has been spraying his trees. He reports the prospects good for a bumper crop of fruit this year. Thinks he will make as much or more than the entire place cost him. E. C. is a good fellow and we hope he has struck a bonanza, and if he will continue to make St. Johns his home we hope he will double his money every year.
Mr. Willis, who recently lived on North Jersey street, moved Tuesday to Whitwood Court where he will build a house at once. There is a keen interest being created in the fine, new residence district opposite St. Johns and the fact that the United Railways are to build a line at once along the foot of the tract will make the property values go up in a hurry. It would be a good plan to get hold of something there before the rise. We did.
The trustees of the M. E. church have held a meeting at which they decided to sell at least two of the lots of their property where the church is located in order to liquidate their indebtedness on the property. This will give them enough room for their church building and the parsonage. We think this is a very wise move. Paying rent and interest are two things which look "lots" to us like pouring sand down a rat hole and the church or individual who is able to cut out either or both has reached a happy stage in their existence.
Editor Review: The question is often asked me whether I think it pays us to carry our advertisement and in commendation of the Review I wish to say: Last week we put on a rag special and advertised it only in the Review and our windows. The result was perfectly satisfactory to us and three customers mentioned of their own accord that they had not intended to buy but noticed our advertisement in the Review and decided to take advantage of the cut price. We surely think it pays us to use the Review. Calef Bros. Per A. C. Gessler.
The Oregon commission to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition has issued a circular letter to the county judges, commissioners and to presidents of the different commercial bodies of Oregon urging them to make the necessary preparation to collect and forward to the Oregon state building at Seattle specimens of the grains and grasses of this season's growth with the fruits in their season for exhibition at that fair. It is hoped that our officials may be zealous in this work and that we may have a beautiful exhibit of the many resources of the greatest county in the state, Multnomah.

Did you see the local of Prall & Co. where they offer a free picture with every $2 purchase? It will pay to investigate for the pictures are beauties.
P. S. Bannon, who has been spending the past several months at White Salmon, Wash., and Greenpoint, Ore., returned to St. Johns last week.
It is rumored there will be a big temperance speech made in the open air in St. Johns Sunday evening, May 31st. If we can locate the particulars in time we will let our people know.
Mrs. Shepardson, mother of Mrs. E. S. Wright, is visiting at the home of the latter on South Hayes. Mrs. Shepardson's home is at Catlin, Wash., and she is quite taken with our beautiful little city.
Mrs. J. F. Hendricks and daughter, Miss Jennie, left yesterday for Seattle where they will visit the fleet. Mrs. Hendricks has a nephew on one of the vessels and the ladies anticipate a delightful visit with him.
Mrs. H. E. Collier, who went to San Francisco to see the big fleet, returned this week and reports a most enjoyable visit. The night scene with the big war canoes all ablaze with lights on the waters of the bay was indescribably magnificent.
The work on the new school building at Peninsula is progressing nicely in spite of the weather. It was a much needed structure and the people of that section are delighted that they are to have better school facilities.
Some of our people and others from Portland have formed a corporation and purchased some 60 acres of land adjoining the Swift tract and will have it platted and put upon the market. This will be another booster for the peninsula.
If the young men wish to know which of the girls have holes in their stockings, all they have to do is to keep their eyes open, according to an exchange, which says that a girl who giggles in church is almost sure to have holes in her stockings for she isn't worth a darn.
In another column will be found the first publication of the standing of the First National Bank in accordance with the National Bank laws. It is indeed a very good showing to be made in these times of so-called financial depression, and is another evidence that the depression does not depress St. Johns to any great extent.
T. M. Goodrich, brother of C. L. Goodrich, of Goodrich & Goodrich, architects, has come to Portland from New York City and is engaged with his brother in their office in the Fenton building, 84 Sixth street. These lads have been kept very busy the past few months because of the great activity in the building line.
Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Greene gave a delightful little party in honor of their daughters, Misses Eulalia and Jennie. There were covers laid for 16 and the evening was spent in singing, music and dancing. The table was decorated with blue and yellow, and two immense jars of roses adorned the center. The young people enjoyed a most happy time.
Yes, if you are a K. of P. and belong to Holmes lodge you will miss the time of your life if you do not attend the social they give in Odd Fellows hall tonight. If you are a stranger in the city do not fail to come up to the hall and meet the boys. They are the right kind and you will be made welcome. This invitation is to all knights who may be in the city.
W. J. Sterling leaves this week for Los Angeles where he has an office. He has been visiting his brother, J. A. Sterling, who is erecting a fine home at St. Johns heights on Tyler street that will be an ornament to that part of the city. We would be glad if Mr. Sterling could do like his brother, make him a home here in St. Johns, for there is no better location for a home this side of the new Jerusalem.
To the thoughtful and practical mind there is hardly a magazine that is more interesting or attractive than the Scientific American. It does not necessarily mean that the mind must be that of a mechanic, an inventor, or scientist; but it must be one who takes an interest in the advancement and progress of the human race. To such an one, in whatever walk of life he may be, the Scientific American will prove intensely interesting.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams and Mrs. Green, who is visiting the family of Mr. Wood, composed a party who went to see Uncle Sam's big canoes at Astoria. The party went out to see the fleet on the steamer Roanoke some ten miles from shore, and the entire fleet steamed by their vessel at a distance of little more than a block. It was the grandest sight, the visitors declare, they ever saw, and was well worth the trouble and expense of the trip.
