Keep Bright and You WILL KEEP BUSY

Electric Light is the magnet that draws trade. The bright store is the "hypnotic eye" of business. People can no more resist the attraction of a brilliant, electrically lighted store than they can resist the clarion call of a brass band. Is your competitor with the electrically illuminated show windows, bright interior and sparkling Electric Sign getting an advantage over you? The moth never flutters around the unlighted candle! Up-to-date stores nowadays consider shop-window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods.

A show window brilliantly illuminated with Electric light will make many a sale "the night before." Electric light compels attention, makes easy the examination of your display, shows goods in detail and fabrics in their true colors. And don't neglect the Electric Sign. It is soliciting "tomorrow's" business every moment it is lighted—burning your name in the public mind. It is a solicitor that never becomes weary—never stops work—costs little.

Prohibition Means Prosperity.

There has been a disposition to decry prohibition as tending to kill a town. There have been many stories as to how other Oregon towns have become "leaders" since the saloons were cut out. Eugene has been classed with this list. The following clipping from the Oregon City Enterprise will give our readers the view taken of the situation as given by the mayor of the city of Eugene; and should be reliable information: Mayor Matlock, of Eugene, Oregon, was in Oregon City last Friday night and helped the local option people in their fight for a dry Clackamas County. Mayor Matlock's remarks were well received. They were timely and showed how the people of Eugene got along without the revenue from the licensed liquor saloon. He said in part: "I come to you not as an orator, but as a farmer of Lane County and by good fortune the mayor of Eugene. I come not seeking political honors because my best days are gone, but I come in behalf of good government, the elevation of character and good citizenship. Eugene went dry two years ago under very unfavorable circumstances. The mayor of the city at that time, a man honest in his convictions and a good man, was not in favor of it, because he honestly believed that there was not sufficient public sentiment in Eugene to make the law effective. There were predictions of failure on every hand, and it was said that our present splendid prosperity would be trampled in the dust. "But what are the facts about Eugene today? Instead of grass growing in the streets we have paved miles of them under prohibition. The eleven empty saloon buildings were soon rented. Eugene prospered in spite of the loss of saloon revenue. The last two years have seen the largest increase in business and money in banks, in fact, in bank deposits. Eugene stood at the head of the list in Oregon, leaving out Portland. We have better collections, factories and mills are running full time. Last year we put up from 200 to 300 dwellings and had an increase in population of 4,000. "Let me give you a fair sample of business prosperity in the case of my own son. He was doing a business of $30,000 a year. After the first year of prohibition it was increased to $45,000, the second year to $60,000 and this year it is larger than ever before. "The first year of prohibition we decreased our city debt by $2,000, besides purchasing a site for a new city park, a team and chemical engine and hiring an engineer and surveyor and all this at an expense of $12,000 over last year. "No, the grass is not growing in Eugene streets, they are paved to the extent of $15,000 worth during prohibition and this year we are making improvements to the extent of $815,000 and the building department shows that $83,000 for permits were taken out for dwellings alone in one month."

HOOD RIVER COUNTY.
This bill is submitted under the initiative for the following, among other reasons: A county is a public corporation and it is apparent that section 2 of article XI, of the Constitution of Oregon, as amended, reserves to the people the right to create a county by initiative vote. There is no general law for the creation of counties now, and no one knows when, if ever, there will be one. The facts as to area, population and assessed valuation show that we are able to maintain a county government. Out of a population of about 7,500 the desire of a county for the Hood River country is earnest and unanimous with the exception of a small fraction of one per cent. We are assured by leading citizens of The Dalles, Dufur and other portions of Wasco County that they have no objections to the creation of Hood River County as proposed in this bill. More than 400 residents of The Dalles and Dufur have signed the petitions asking that this bill be submitted to a vote at the June election, though forty-five names from Dufur were received too late to be filed with the Secretary of State. The people of the Hood River country therefore ask favorable consideration of the voters of the state for these, among other, reasons: Because the new county will be a great benefit to the people residing therein and will facilitate the transaction of their county business. Because as the law stands a county cannot be created by the Legislature; and finally, Because the people of The Dalles and the balance of Wasco County are willing that Hood River County may be created as provided in this bill. The assessed valuation in the proposed Hood River County in 1903 was $908,568; in 1906 was $1,618,670, showing a gain in valuation from 1903 to 1906 of $710,102, or about 78 per cent. The valuation in 1907 was $2,762,250; a gain over 1906 of $1,143,580, or about 70 per cent, showing the proportionate increase in one year from 1906 to 1907 to be almost as great as that in three years from 1903 to 1906. The proposed Hood River County has a population of about 7,500; an area of about 500 square miles; and twenty school houses, seven of which are graded schools having from two to eight rooms each and with a $30,000 high school under construction. There will be left in Wasco County, after Hood River County is created an area of 1,646 square miles, a population of 11,500, and a valuation of $5,457,720, thus leaving it among the largest and strongest counties of the state. Arnold Unger, when he proposed to the Knights of Pythias that he would furnish the Havana if the boys would devote Friday night of last week to a smoker and invite the members of Calanthe and other castles to be with us, certainly played the joker. There were present about 100 knights and from start to finish it was a most enjoyable occasion. There was no degree work done, but after the preliminary work of opening the lodge Chancellor Commander declared a recess for the evening and those who were addicted to the weed were regaled with the finest specimens of the truerulent vegetation obtainable in the city. Then after Barney, the cook, had fried the coffee just the right turn, the table was spread and we ate "ham and fried bones" until we had "a plenty." After the feed there were stories and songs for another hour and we only quit when our good brothers from Calanthe were obliged to run for the last car down the line for the night. They gave Holmes lodge a hearty invitation to visit Calanthe at any time, and we will take the dare at an early date.
