ANOTHER BIG PROPOSITION

There is about to be consummated one of the most important manufacttile city near Bridal Veil falls on what is known as Gordon creek, and a tract of several hundred acres of land has been purchased as well as the woolen mills at Pendleton and the latter will be moved to the new location where it is intended to put up houses for the operatives of the mills and each one will have a little garden plat sufficient for family use. It it also intended to make the plant a sort of co-operative institu-tion, so that deserving operatives may receive a share of the profits. If nothing intervenes the work of conplant a sort of co-operative institunothing intervenes the work of construction will be begun in a very short time.

This will mean much to all class es in Portland and vicinity. There will be work for laborers, machinists mill operatives, in fact a little city will be built to add her portion to one living in this vicinity will be benefitted accordingly.

The company has incorporated fo $225,000 with the principal stockholders in Portland.
