Mrs. J. E. Williams returned Saturday from a very happy outing at Newport beach.

Miss Boss principal of high school, spent a delightful week at Newport beach last week and is now at Monmouth.

Miss H. R. Ogden, the bright, and pleasant little lady who officiates in the St. Johns Land company's office as chief clerk is away on her summer vacation.

The Telegram in a recent issue gave an interesting write up of the new developments on the West Side. The article was embellished by the use of several cuts.

BORN--To Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Norton, of St. Johns, August 18, a Son. If the lad makes as handsome a man as his father and as good as his mama, he will be a dandy.

F. P. Drinker, the genial cashier of the First National bank, has moved this week into his residence recently purchased on South Jersey. We are glad to welcome Mr. Drinker as a home owner in St. Johns.

We cordially invite all young people who are not interested elsewhere to come and join the Glory Class of the Baptist church and help us to increase our number to 50. John Keeler, teacher; Eva Clark, secretary.

Miss Lulu Hollenbeck found a tan colored pocketbook on the street car as she was coming out from the city Wednesday and turned it over to the conductor and it may be found at the general office at First and Alder.

Everybody reads the Review. Its friends for the good they can get out of it, its enemies to see what they can find to knock. It is all the same to us, just so it is read we will answer for the consequences.

The little daughter of Charles Bredeson died last night and will be buried at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Particulars will be given next week. Mr. and Mrs. Bredeson have the most earnest sympathy of all our people in this bereavement.

There was a jolly surprise party given to Herman Sholtz at his home on North Ivanhoe last Saturday evening by a bunch of his young friends. There were games, and a most delicious feed and the young folks all declare they all had just the finest kind of a time, and that Herman is a jolly good fellow.

Mrs. M. E. Truman, of Volga, S. D. was in the city Monday the guest of the families of Charles Fredeson, P. J. Peterson and others who came from that city, having grown up from childhood together there. Mrs. Truman is making a tour of the coast, and stopped at St. Johns, Portland, Astoria and other points where she has friends and relatives.

L. G. Morgan, late of Hood River, but now living near Oregon City was in the city Wednesday looking into conditions here with a view to locating here. He was very favorably impressed with the appearance of our little city and if satisfactory deals can be made he and his brother will come out early in May. We hope they may, for they are rustlers and will be a good pair to draw to.

Our good friend, Wolcott, the Rent Man is still rustling in the hills and is becoming bearded like the pard, as Billy Shakespeare would say and is growing stronger every day. There is a wonderful improvement in his looks, and if he keeps on improving long enough he will eventually become as handsome and healthy looking as the editor, and that is going some.

A modern dude with narrow striped clothes, saddle colored shoes, a loud necktie, hair parted over his nose, and smoking a cigarette, addressed his best girl thus: "If you was me and I was you what would you do?" She hesitatingly said with a smile: "I would take off that ridiculous tie, put that cigarette in the stove, put my hair on one side then pray to God for brains."

The latest in on Brother Gates. It is too good to keep. We will probably have to hide for a day or two but we will have to tell it. Brother Gates was talking with Captain Black yesterday and the captain held in his hands a pair of handcuffs. Brother Gates picked up one of the bracelets and before the captain could stop him playfully snapped it upon his own wrist to see how it felt to have on the shackles. But the joke was apparent to him when Captain Black explained to him that he had no key for that particular pair of ornaments and the good Dominie had visions of going home to his pretty young wife wearing jewelry of the Kelly Butte variety, but a happy thought struck the boys and hustling over to the locksmith at the corner of Ivanhoe and Jersey, the decoration was removed to the great joy of Brother Gates.

PARABLE OF THE TOBACCO SEED

Then shall the kingdom of Satan be likened unto a grain of tobacco seed being cast into the ground grew and became a great plant, and spread its leaves, rank and broad, so that huge and vile worms formed a habitation thereon. And it came to pass in the course of time that the sons of men looked upon it and thought it beautiful to look upon, and much to be desired to make lads look big and manly. So they put forth their hands and did chew thereof. And some it made sick and others to vomit most filthily. And it further came to pass that those who chewed it became weak and vainly, and said: "We are enslaved and cannot cease from chewing it." And the months of all that were enslaved became foul; and they were seized with a very violent spitting; and they did expectorate even in the ladies' parlor and in the house of the Lord. And the saints of the Most High were greatly plagued thereby. And in the course of time it came to pass that others snuffed it, and they were taken suddenly with fits of sneezing, and they did sneeze with a mighty sneeze, inasmuch that their eyes were filled with tears and did look exceedingly silly. And others cunningly wrought the leaves into little rolls, and did set fire to the one end thereof, and did suck vehemently at the other end thereof and did look very grave and callid; and the smoke of their torment ascended up like a fog and the cultivation thereof became great and mighty in the lands of the merchants waxed rich by the commerce thereof. And it came to pass that the professed saints of the Most High defiled themselves therewith; even the poor, who could not buy books nor bread nor shoes for their little ones, spent their money for it. And the Lord was greatly displeased therewith and said: "Beware clean that bear the vessels of the Lord." "Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh." "Wherefore come out from among them and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you." But with the accord they exclaimed: "We cannot cease from chewing, snuffing, and puffing!" This half serious, half earnest protest is particularly applicable to the followers of Christ. The man of the world, without God, and without a thought or care of the life to come is excusable if he can find any consolation in the use of the filthy weed but one who is trying to prepare himself to associate with angels in the presence of the Creator of the universe would do well to free his mind and body from the slavery of anything that tends to degrade the life. This is not a religious publication, but we have many readers who are followers of Christ, and we claim the right and privilege to express a good sentiment for their benefit whenever the opportunity presents. It will do the man of the world no harm to read them.

ANOTHER SURPRISE PARTY.

One of the pleasantest and most delightful surprise parties of the season was given last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cole at 712 Salem street.

About 20 of the Y. P. S. C. of the Christian church met up town and marched to the residence. The object of the surprise was the celebration of Miss Eva Bredson's birthday. The evening was passed in conversation and playing appropriate games. At about 10:30 lemonade, ice cream and cake were served to their hearts' content. Then after playing a number of games and singing a lot of songs they decided it was time to "hit the hike" for home and all took to their heels.

It was declared that it was the best time they had had since they didn't care when, for they did not realize that time was passing until it was time to go. Those who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Cole and their two little ones; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bitgood and their daughter Gertrude; Mrs. A. C. Stucker, Misses Eva Bredson, Clara Beller, Carrie Halcy, Flora McNeven, Sarah McKinney, Alda Overstreet, May Johnson, Grace Stucker, Minnie Vassar and Messrs. John Johnson, George Donaldson, W. A. Trout, F. Tyler, Alex McNeven, Jack McNeven, David Byarlee.

A little local in the Review costs but little and is always a sure money getter.

Homer Rundel and his sister, who have been spending their summer vacation with their sister and father in St. Johns, returned to their Iowa home today.

Miss M. I. Page says her mamma Mrs. D. L. Page, has just returned from Hood River, where she has been visiting friends in the apple country, but she says St. Johns is the best of all.

One of the neatest and most comfortable little cottages we have seen in the city has recently been erected on the corner of Fessenden and Edison streets on the Bansey estate. It is an ornament to that part of the city and Walter may well be proud of his home.

Mrs. J. C. Scott, and daughter Kathryn, left Friday morning for a visit with relatives and friends in Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa. On the return trip they will take in the national convention of the W. C. T. U. at Denver. From there they will come home via Spokane and Seattle.

The difference between poor stock and first class stock on a job is a small item when you consider the value of the job. It is the price of a satisfied customer. It is better to make 50 cents less on a job and have a customer who will come back, than to use the flimsy stock, make the extra 50 cents and lose your customer. That is the way we figure it.

Bring in your printing now.

We Believe in Newspaper Advertising

But its value to us is not compared with the advertising that satisfied customers are daily giving us. When a shoe "just like this last pair" is called for because it was "so comfortable" and had worn a "solid year," we feel that we sell the right sort of shoes. This remark has been made by several ladies who have tried our $3.50 line of John Stroottman's Welts. Then we feel that our Grocery department is making friends because within a week three parties have brought in new neighbors for introduction with the remark "I have brought you a new customer." This all means that our prices must be about right and that we are making friends of our trade. If you have not bought a pair of shoes from us we suggest that you try us for that pair you must have in September or October.

Keep Bright and You WILL KEEP BUSY

Electric Light is the magnet that draws trade. The bright store is the "hypnotic eye" of business. People can no more resist the attraction of a brilliant, electrically lighted store than they can resist the claxon call of a brass band.

Is your competitor with the Electrically illuminated show windows, bright interior and sparkling Electric Sign getting an advantage over you? The moth never flutters around the unlighted candle! Up-to-date stores nowadays consider shop-window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods.

A show window brilliantly illuminated with Electric light will make many a sale "the night before." Electric light compels attention, makes easy the examination of your display, shows goods in detail and fabrics in their true colors.

And don't neglect the Electric Sign. It is soliciting "tomorrow's" business every moment it is lighted--burning your name in the public mind. It is a solicitor that never becomes weary--never stops work--costs little.
