FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1908.

UNIVERSITY PARK.

BORN—On Saturday, Sept. 19th, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Feeley, of Haven street a son.

Miss Lorna Collamore left last week for Salem where she will attend the university.

Miss Alice Lovering of South Bend Washington, is here visiting at the home of Mrs. Jennie Palmer of Seaside Place.

Mrs. A. T. McCord left a week ago last Monday for Carlton, Oregon, to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Briggs of that place.

Mrs. C. Ingram, of 1823 Exeter st. has been quite ill the past three or four days and Dr. Vincent of St. John was called in the place of Dr. Webster who is suffering from a very sore hand.

The community was shocked and grieved to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. W. Monahan on Monday last. Mrs. Monahan has been an invalid for some time and on Friday night was taken suddenly very ill and on Monday afternoon passed away. She was of sweet disposition, by nature uncomplaining. The relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

The ladies aid of the Congregational church gave a bazaar in the new brick building on Dawson street near Portsmouth last Friday afternoon and evening and continued it on Saturday until about seven o'clock, in the evening, when a gasoline stove used in the booth presided over by Mesdames White and Cheney exploded and the large plate glass window was broken. Mrs. Cheney suffered with a burned hand, but aside from that every one escaped with thankful hearts (that it was no worse) and badly shattered nerves.

OREGON FERN

WE LOSE REV. YOUNG.

It will be with sincere regret that our people will learn that Rev. P. L. Young, pastor of the M. E. church, will leave in a few days for Newburg where he has been sent by the conference just closed.

During the time that Mr. Young has been in St. Johns he has made hundreds of friends, by his integrity, his strenuous efforts on the side of right in all the walks of life in ever instance where he had an opportunity to express himself. Enemies he has made, so did the Master whom he served, but they are such enemies as the Christian may well be glad of those who are opposed to a clean life and all that is good.

Mr. Young is a warmhearted, energetic, aggressive Christian gentleman, an able pastor and faithful in his work. In his going St. Johns loses one of her best citizens and Newburg can congratulate herself upon the acquisition of Rev. Young and his family to her society.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR COUNTY OF MULTNOMAH.

Mary E. Scott, Plaintiff vs.
Alvah Scott, Defendant.

To Alvah Scott, the above named defendant: In the name of the state of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: Friday, the 2nd day of October, 1908, and if you fail to so appear or answer or otherwise plead to the said suit, the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief prayed for in plaintiff's complaint filed in the above named suit. To-wit: For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and yourself and absolutely divorcing plaintiff from you and for the care and custody of the minor child of plaintiff and yourself, to-wit: Lloyd Scott, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem equitable. This summons is published, pursuant to an order of the Hon. C. L. Gantenbein, Judge of the above named court made in open court in this cause on the 24th day of September, 1908, which said proceedings and this summons are published in the "St. Johns Review" once each week for a period of not less than six consecutive weeks. The first publication of this summons was on the 2nd day of October, 1908, and the last publication thereof will be on the 24th day of November, 1908.
