Local News.

He who by his biz would rise
Must either bust or advertise.

Mrs. Ed Stockton is home again from the hospital, and is able to be out on our streets after a severe illness.

Mrs. Carl Moe entertained a few of her Portland friends at dinner Sunday. The occasion was a very pleasing one for her guests.

Engineer Craik has treated his residence at corner of Baltimore and Hayes to a new roof which will make it more pleasent during the rainy season.

W. M. Tower, an experienced watchmaker and jeweler of Portland, has taken charge of the H. T. Butterworth Jewelery store, and will continue the business.

The ladies aid of the M. E. Church of North Albina will hold a bazar the first Friday in December, Friday of next week. Any friends in St. Johns who can do so are invited to attend.

Mr. O. M. Cornell of Minneapolis, Minn., is the agent at the St. Johns station on the North Bank road. Mr. Cornell was formerly with the Northern Pacific at Minneapolis and brings his family with him.

C. N. Ryan has opened a moving picture show at the corner of Tacoma and Jersey streets, where he has fitted up in the finest of shape the room formerly occupied by Louis Richard with his Louvre saloon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitney of Grand Rapids, Mich., have come to St. Johns to make their home. They are occupying the fine Olson residence on West Richmond street but will later buy property for a permanent home here.

J. T. Murphy, the enterprising manufacturing machinist of St. Johns has enlarged his machine shop by adding a fine forge with power blower, extending his building to make room for same. It will prove a great convenience for him and enlarge his capacity greatly.

The Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters are making extraordinary efforts for their three-night entertainment to be given December 1, 2, and 3, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week. You will certainly miss a good thing if you do not take this in.

C. J. Anderson has fitted up the corner room of his store building and has moved a part of his stock of goods into it, thus giving him more room. Mr. Anderson has a fine business building with living rooms above and in a good location, corner of Richmond and Ivanhoe.

It has developed that the watchman Rasmussen was killed by a revolver shot from a 32 caliber gun, the same as that which killed Mr. Butterworth. Is it possible that the murderer is the same and that he is making St. Johns his home? It is hoped that he may be apprehended in any event.

Burlington street between Hayes and Edison is a fright. If the good people along that street could see their way to cover it with gravel after putting the grade in shape it would add greatly to the value of their property. The street is almost impassible as it is now, and will get worse as the rainy season progresses

Liberal commission will be given for solicitors for subscriptions and advertisements in St. Johns or on the Peninsula. We also want correspondents from every section of the peninsula. Anyone who can take up this work will please call at the office or write and a representative will call and complete arrangements. There is good money in this for the right person.

Roy Parker, who has been employed at Green Point in the logging camp as donkey chief, came down Monday and spent part of the day in St. Johns. He expects to spend the winter in a new camp on the Columbia in Washington. Our new devil worked with Roy at Green Point which accounts for the visit to the Review office. He is a good K. of P. and is a brother of Mrs. W. E. Swengle, wife of the harness man.

The world is growing smaller every year. The states and countries are growing nearer to eachother. Captain Sprong of Portland was married Wednesday of last week to Miss Mary M. Clodfelter of Albia, Iowa, our boyhood home. A box of Hood River apples were sent to grace the wedding feast. When we were married a little more than a quarter of a century ago it was almost like taking a trip around the world to come to Oregon, now it is nothing thought of. News, too, travels faster than light. The hapennings of London, Berlin, Paris, all the big cities of the world are known here before the hour of their occurrence. For instance, the attempt to assassinate the Czar at 10 o'clock at night was known here at three in the evening, about seven hours before the occurrence. The world is growing smaller.

Note the label on your paper.

W. L. Wright, editor and proprietor of the Brancroft Commercial of Bancroft, Michigan, an old newspaper man spending the winter in Portland, was a pleasant caller in the Review office last Saturday. He likes the country very much but was not very favorably impressed with the cloudy rainy weather that has prevailed since he came. He will get over that as soon as this little juicy spell stops and the sun comes out every day as it does nearly all winter.

Miss Ellen Vierhus, whose home is out on the East Side, and who attended school in St. Johns last winter was in St. Johns the latter part of last week visiting her sister Mary and other relatives and friends in the city, returning home Sunday evening. Miss Ellen is one of those rare, good girls, who is good simply because she connot find it in her heart to be otherwise, and one whom it is not only a delight but an honor to claim for a friend. May her tribe increase.

REBEKAHS DO SPLENDID WORK

President Mary A. Smith of the Assembly of the Rebekahs of Oregon was an honored guest at the meeting of Laurelwood Rebekah lodge last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Smith is making a tour of the state in her capacity as president and has visited a great many lodges in the state. She speaks in the highest praise of the work put on by the degree team, declaring that she had never taken very much interest in the floor work until she witnessed the work as put on by our team here. She asked Mrs. N. J. Bailey, the enthusiastic captain of the team to continue the good work and said that the team would have an opportunity to put on the work before the annual state assembly next summer, by special request. This is a very high compliment, coming from the head of the order in the state and our good ladies should feel proud of their accomplishment and be encouraged to more strenuous efforts in putting on the work. The are adhering strictly to the letter of the ritual and did not make a mistake during the entire work on this occasion. There are two or three scenes which the lodge has not yet procured the paraphernalia for that was not put on when these are included in the work, there will be no lodge that can compare with Laurelwood in the quality or extent of their exemplification.

ST. JOHNS vs GRESHAM.

A good sized enthusiastic crowd of "highs" went from St. Johns Wednesday to help entertain the people of that progressive community, and to play foot ball for their own amusement.

Gresham kicked off and St. Johns secured the ball holding it down the middle of the field for a while when Gresham made a successful punt putting the ball near the goal and by a long end run succeeded in making a touchdown by hurdling, which the umpire missnamed "side jump' Gresham then failed to make goal on their kick and the St. Johns kids kicked off and kept the ball down the field until time was called.

Second half, St. Johns kids kicked off and the ball was kept well down the field until Gresham put it near their goal on a punt, but Brick brought it back. Then Gresham fumbled and Whisler fell on it. Gresham tried a place kick and failed. St. Johns kicked off, Gresham secured the ball for a time making no gains. Teeling made an on-side kick. Brick got the ball and scattered the side line especially the brass-button-babycatcher but was finally downed and kicked by a mud scow. The score was 10 to 0 in favor of Gresham.

There was considerable complaint among the players and visitors who went from here to Gresham. The Greshamites promised to pay the expenses of the St. Johns players, but the only thing they paid was their car fare and even taxed the St. John girls to see the game. The feed was said to be cold bacon and cabbage with cold coffee. The Greshamites wrote that their average weight was 135 pounds and restricted the St. Johns team to strictly highschool kids; but when they got to Gresham found they had four players from the Whitman team and their average was 160 pounds. The boys feel that they have been buncoed.

BEAUTIFUL WINDOW.

Picturesque Display of the Happy Days of Childhood.

The national Tea Store has a very handsome window this week representing the happy days of childhood.

At the right hand upper corner of the window is the representation of a lake with its sail and row boats, while near the edge of the lake is a railroad with a train of cars. Near the lake is a grove with its swinging dolls. The center of the window represents a tea party of four dolls seated around a table. Scattered througt the picture are the little ones in the doll cabs and chairs.

Automobiles and other interesting features are cleverly arranged so as to make the whole picture worth seeing.

Don't miss seeing this window as the tea man says he has too many holiday goods to display to allow it to remain long.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a bazar the first Wednesday in December.

Keep Bright and You WILL KEEP BUSY

Electric Light is the magnet that draws trade. The bright store is the "hypnotic eye" of business. People can no more resist the attraction of a brilliant, Electrically lighted store than they can resist the clarion call of a brass band.

Is your competitor with the Electrically illuminated show windows, bright interior and sparkling Electric Sign getting an advantage over you? The moth never flutters around the unlighted candle! Up-to-date stores nowadays consider shop-window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods.

A show window brilliantly illuminated with Electric light will make many a sale "the night before." Electric light compels attention, makes easy the examination of your display, shows goods in detail and fabrics in their true colors.

And don't neglect the Electric Sign. It is soliciting "tomorrow's" business every moment it is lighted—burning your name in the public mind. It is a solicitor that never becomes weary — never stops work — costs little.

Say, Johnnie did you have a nice Thanksgiving? No, Mable, we did not. Mama went over to Portland and bought her a turkey 'nit was tufferna bile dowl 'n she paid more'n it'ud have coster in St. Johns.

What d'you have Mabe?

We had the nicest, fattest turkey, and he was as tender as chicken. Mama said he was a young and home grown. Mama bought her turkey of BITGOOD & COLE because they always keep the best. I'll bet your turkey was an old patriarch shipped in from Kansas. What's a pateryark, Mabe? One that came over in Noahs' ark? For if it is he was it sure. I am going to tell mama to trade with your butchers where she wont get soaked.
