Must either bust or advertise.

Come in and get a Bonnyville Monthly, 15 cents. The best short story magazine published.

Dr. A. L. Kinney, wife and son were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hartel last week.

Why is an apostle like a penny? Because he is one sent. The same might be said of any skunk.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fortune, December 2d, 2:30 a. m. a son. Lee says he is a born Knight of Pythias and is for the present filling the chair of Grand Chancellor in his Castle Hall.

BORN—Saturday December 5th to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Swengel, an eight-pound girl. The young lady and her mother are doing nicely and her father is "pulling leather" to beat the band.

The most beautiful number of the Sunset we have yet seen is that for December. The typography, the engravings, the makeup and presswork are all of a high order and blend in one harmonious whole making it the delightful literary pastime for a day of recreation.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick, an old friend of Mrs. Stucker of the Vogue Millinery has been here the past two weeks from Chicago, awaiting the arrival of her husband who will probably reach here this week. They will locate either here or in Portland. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Stucker used to play with the same dolls when little girls, swap gum, and enjoyed the same frocks and fancies and haven't gotten over it yet.

Have you seen Bonnyville Monthly for December? It is the best yet and if you haven't received one from any source you may find the magazine on sale at this office. This is a new magazine and one that is sure to make its way rapidly to the head of the list. If you have one, it would be a good idea to buy another and send a friend. The price is only 15 cents and it is everything that could be desired typographically and otherwise. It is filled from the first page to the last with the most interesting short stories, just the thing for a day's travel, or to have in the home for a few moments recreation. Come to the office and get one, 15 cents per copy or $1.50 per annum.

MR. AND MRS. CURTIS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Curtis returned Tuesday from a trip to Eastern Washington and Idaho. They visited Garfield and Pullman, Wash., Lewiston, Grangeville, Whiteburg, Riggin and Pallock, Idaho and saw some country. Some of it looked good, but more of it was built too much on the perpendicular plan, particularly for Mrs. Curtis.

When you can take a cox of tobacco and without leaning over the side of the buggy, you can paint an autumn landscape on a lady's bonnet 500 feet below it becomes a little too altitudinous and abrupt according to her ideas of propriety; then again when you are in such a delicate situation, to have a measles, vicious, degenerate broncho get tangled in barbed wire and endeavor to buck his rider 'till he nearly entangles the entire outfit and kills himself, and while this good lady gets out of the buggy and endeavors to escape, is chased back by wild cattle, she just simply draws the line and declares, that while she is fond of a little excitement this is too strenuous and she would not go back there for a lead cack on the whole state. Both our good friends think St. Johns is good enough for them and their relatives, and Mr. Curtis thinks that his sons-in-law and their families will be here in the spring to make their homes here. We will be glad to have them come and a million more with them.

Come in and see our premiums we offer for clubs. You never saw their equal.

Master Laverne Hall celebrated his birthday last Thursday, December 3, in a very happy manner. He called in a number of his friends and they enjoyed the season and all kinds of good things as only young healthy children can. Verne is a bright young man and will grow up to be President of the United States some day, or if he takes to politics early, maybe justice of the peace. Anyway he is our kind of a lad and we wish him many happy returns of December 3 and when he comes up for election he will receive our vote.

Christmas is coming and a set of our premium teaspoons or pair of scissors with a year's subscription to the Review would make a most acceptable and appropriate present to an absent friend.

Mrs. H. Rambo, mother of our genial dentist, is reported very ill at her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hustid of Portland visited with their daughter, Mrs. Hattie McKinney, over Sunday.

Read the premium offers in this week's Review. We wish to double our circulation in the next 30 days.

C. J. Miller, as we are going to press is fitting up the room next door to the Review office for a cigar stand.

Mrs. Geo. H. Lynn of Hood River spent the week visiting her parents, the Byerlees, and friends in Portland.

The Fraternal Brotherhood dance tonight promises to eclipse anything of the kind given in St. Johns this winter. Galloway's orchestra will have an entirely new list of musical selections, never before played here.

If you will make a little effort you can secure one of the beautiful prizes we offer for clubs.

Mrs. John Willis is very anxious to locate her brother Patrick James Linwin, who was last heard of at Elgin, Ill., just prior to the Spanish American war. His presence is wanted to settle his father's estate.

You are entitled to a premium whether you are a new or an old subscriber, we make no distinction; but we will like just a little better if you will bring a new subscriber with you.

Miss Clara Beller, formerly an employe of this office, but recently has been in Dunsmuir, Cal., returned to her old stamping ground the first of the week. There is no place like home when that home is in St. Johns.

The many friends of Miss Dagmar Peterson, formerly Mrs. David Sorber will be greatly surprised to hear that she was married November 28 to Mr. Wm. Middleton, son of a prominent lawyer of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Middleton will make their future home in Portland.

The shears we offer as a premium are of the best make and a five year guarantee goes with every pair.

We wish to tender our heartfelt thanks to the Fraternal Brotherhood and Rebekah lodges of St. Johns, the United Artisans of Oregon City and the Oswego Rebekah lodge, and to the many friends for their kindly sympathy during our late bereavement. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings. Gilbert Ward and Family.

Mr. J. H. Long of Donnell & Long, Portland, who is interested in the St. Johns Gas Light and Heat company was in the city Wednesday looking after the interests of his company. He says that David is out of the company entirely, has not a thing to do with it, but that it is in entirely other hands. Those who have it now are going to begin active work of construction within a short time and will make a cash deposit bond to guarantee good faith. He will place a representative here in St. Johns to take care of things here as soon as arrangements can be effected. It now, really looks as if something was going to be done to make the proposition materialize.

The spoons we offer are warranted solid nickel silver, the same metal clear through, therefore there is no plating to wear off. If they become tarnished through use, as all silver will, a little Bon Ami or any good scouring soap and elbow-grease will brighten them up and will not injure them in the least.

The skating rink is again in operation. This time under the management of Mr. C. M. Thomas. Mr. Thomas is an experienced and successful rink manager and aspires to operate the rink in such a manner that the most refined will be pleased to patronize him. He says he never operated a rink on Sundays and will follow his rule here, keeping the rink open every day except Sunday. He has a new process for preparing his floor, doing away with all dust, so that, after he gets his floor and skates all cleaned up, there will not be sufficient dust on the floor to soil the most delicate fabric. We certainly hope Mr. Thomas may do well and believe he will. There is no more delightful or more healthful exercise and if a man runs the rink as Mr. Thomas proposes, he should have the hearty support of the best people of the city.

Corner Charleston and Jersey

WE are displaying in one of our windows a large clock. It has been wound and tells you the time when running; but it will stop and if you happen to be fortunate the stopping of that clock will mean five silver dollars to you—and it will stop once each week whether the saloons open in St. Johns or not. When you make a cash purchase of $1.00 or more or when you pay your account you will be given a card with the time of day printed on it for each $1 of cash paid. Then on Saturday afternoon of each week at three o'clock you bring all your tickets to the store and the person holding the ticket having on it the time nearest to what the clock says when it stops will be given five dollars. This is to continue till February.

BONHAM & CURRIER

Keep Bright and You WILL KEEP BUSY

Electric Light is the magnet that draws trade. The bright store is the "hypnotic eye" of business. People can no more resist the attraction of a brilliant, electrically lighted store than they can resist the clarion call of a brass band.

Is your competitor with the Electrically illuminated show windows, bright interior and sparkling Electric Sign getting an advantage over you? The moth never flutters around the unlighted candle! Up-to-date stores nowadays consider shop-window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods.

A show window brilliantly illuminated with Electric light will make many a sale "the night before." Electric light compels attention, makes easy the examination of your display, shows goods in detail and fabrics in their true colors.

And don't neglect the Electric Sign. It is soliciting "tomorrow's" business every moment it is lighted—burning your name in the public mind. It is a solicitor that never becomes weary—never stops work—costs little.
