He who by his biz would rise Must either bust or advertise.

The woolen mills started up again Wednesday.

The weather man is certainly rubbing it in rather strong.

The Novelty Theatre has ceased to do business in St. Johns.

The schools are again in running order after a few days' lay off.

Portland is to have a new court house, and it appears to be badly needed.

F. J. Hall has opened up a pool room in the McChesney block and is now ready for business.

Captain Chas. Bureau, of Okanogan Wash., is a guest at the home of George Perrine this week.

As recorded in the building permits this week, Albert Olin is erecting a neat dwelling on Nicklin street.

Hendricks, the up-to-date hardware man, has a new ad in this issue. Look it up and note what it contains.

F. V. Forbes and H. O. Crook, two bright young men from Eureka, Cal., were visitors to St. Johns this week.

A Mr. Whitney from Grand Rapids, Mich., has begun the erection of a handsome residence on North Ivanhoe street.

Zero was reached Tuesday morning by the weather god after about a week's vain attempts. Wonder what this country is coming to, anyhow.

E. W. Angell has secured a lucrative situation with the Black Eagle Mining and Milling Co. at Elkhorn, Ore., and is now located at that point.

P. T. Bannan is spending a couple of weeks in the White Salmon valley in Washington state. As there is now reported to be 30 inches of snow there, he is likely enjoying himself.

Mrs. B. M. Lockie of Kellogg, Idaho, who has been a guest of her niece Mrs. C. J. Anderson on Richmond street for a week or so, is spending several days with friends in Salem this week.

J. T. Mayes, who was operated upon at the Portland hospital the first part of last week for double hernia, is now getting along very nicely, which will be good news to his many friends here.

Miss Viola Peddicord, of University Park, teacher in the St. Johns public schools, has been suffering from a severe attack of quinsy this week, and as a result was unable to conduct her class.

Harry Caples, who has been taking a course of treatment at an open air sanitarium in Salem, is reported to be improving nicely. He has gained thirty pounds in weight since beginning the treatment.

Ole M. Nelson, brother of Carl Nelson and half brother of Ed L. Stockton, visited in St. Johns and Whitewood Court last week. Mr. Nelson came to Portland in the interest of the Western State Vaudeville association.

The beginning of a new year is a good time to subscribe for The Review. Remember the price is still one dollar per year unless you desire a pair of our dollar shears, when the subscription and the scissors together will be $1.50.

Sam Cochran has been undergoing a severe siege of illness at his home in this city during the past week. He was first attacked with the grip, which finally developed into pneumonia. He is now reported to be rapidly improving, however.

Barney Noonan had the misfortune to get tangled up with a team of horses while coasting on Burlington street Tuesday evening. Outside of a sprained wrist and a general shaking up he got out of the affair in good shape.

The water front was pretty effectively locked in winter's icy grasp for several days the past week. Practically all works were closed down, and as a consequence there were more idle men in the city than have been visible for a long time.

It almost makes one seasick to keep in the trail ploughed on and off the pavements in the city. While the trail is wonderfully crooked, yet it is greatly appreciated by pedestrians and the city authorities are entitled to a vote of thanks for their thoughtfulness.

Prof. White of University Park is the new leader of the St. Johns Brass band. Mr. White is a fine musician and quite competent to fill his new position. The band boys are anxious to secure new members. Clarinet players are especially wanted, but any one who desires to join the band is requested to meet with the boys at the city hall. A good band is a great attraction for any city, and we hope the organization will be as secure as many good members as they desire.

D. N. Byrlee is visiting friends and old "tiltums" at Hood River this week.

Pork took a jump of five cents and beef four cents per pound the past week. Certainly agreeable (?) news for all.

Harry Saterlee, the tonsorial artist, had quite an experience with a bursted water pipe Wednesday afternoon. His shop was almost flooded before the catract was stayed.

M. J. Ballantyne, Presiding Elder of Portland District, will preach both morning and evening at the United Evangelical church next Sunday—communion at close of morning service. All invited. C. P. Gates, pastor.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in the Congregational church Monday, Jan. 18th, at 2:30 p. m. All members are earnestly requested to be present as this is the first meeting since the holidays and there is much important business to attend to.

On account of the spell of cold weather the evangelistic services which had been announced to begin last Sunday at the Baptist church were put off for one week and will begin, Sunday night, January 17th. Rev. C. L. Owen of Astoria has been secured to assist Rev. John Beutlegen, the pastor, in these meetings.

A. C. Everett, of Rockland, Me., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Cox at 1029 S. Ivanhoe street. Mr. Everett is seeking some good farming property in this section of the country, and it is hoped that he may be able to secure the kind of property he desires. Like many others he has tired of conditions in the far East, and he believes the Western country is far superior to the East, both as to opportunities and climatic conditions.

L. L. Page returned Wednesday from a business trip to Seattle. He was there during the earthquake and says he never knew anything about it until he saw the people coming out of the Alaska and New York buildings like bees swarming out of a knot hole. He thought a show had just broken loose, or else two people were crazy. An extra gotten out in a few minutes later telling all about the quake put him on. It takes a great shock to jar a St. Johns man.

Councilman William Windle was the victim of a poor bargain one day last week. He is the owner of a handsome buggy, and a young man around town came to him and stated that he had a fine pair of steel runners and suggested that the place them on the buggy, thus enabling them both to take advantage of the delightful sleighing. The proposition on the face of it looked good to Mr. Windle, and he told him to go ahead, only he requested that the shafts be replaced by a heavier set. This was agreed upon and the young man promised to have the improvised sleigh in good shape for the next day, but when the Alderman came to look for the cutter the next morning it had taken wings and flown, and it was not until five days later that Mr. Windle was able to locate it. Had the snow not lasted longer than the five days "Billie's" sleigh ride would only have been a pipe dream. The young man had taken advantage of the opportunity and made a trip far into Washington state.

A FEW ICICLES

It only occurs once every generation.

A genuine cutter appeared on the streets Wednesday.

This is a good time to discover if your house needs fixing.

The Linton saw mill has continued to run during the cold snap.

That chinook wind must have gotten frozen up somewhere along the line.

The Suburban freight car has not missed a day in making the trip over their lines since the snow appeared.

The county road leading from Richmond street is the best coasting place in the city, so the youngsters say.

It took four horses to each wagon for the Union and Standard oil companies to make their deliveries to this city this week.

That good old Oregon mist, which is a standing joke among other states, would be more than welcome just now.

A man from Michigan writes that they have not yet gotten the usual amount of snow there yet, as the tops of the trees are still visible.

If you have no felt for weather strips for your doors windows, etc., use your old bicycle tires, they are better and answer the same purpose.

The numerous wagons and improvised sleds and sleighs should be proof positive to the Easterner that sleighing is something unusual in St. Johns.

Outdoor mechanics work all the year around in Oregon, whether the snow falls or not. Back east they have a few days grace during the winter season.

Parties living near the river are already making money catching logs. The drifting ice is breaking the booms in several places. When a thaw comes there will be all kinds of wood drifting upon the water. So if you are out of a job it will be a good time to get busy. Wood is as good as gold these days.

BASKET BALL ON SKATES.

A very interesting event was pulled off at the Dreamland rink Wednesday evening, in the nature of a basket ball game on roller skates. The Newberg team was the opponent of the St. Johns team, and the game was highly interesting throughout. It was the first game played by the locals and the showing they made against the experienced and strong Newberg players was certainly remarkable. Many of the local players had never witnessed a game on roller skates before, and the showing they made under the great handicap they played under proves conclusively that the team is composed of championship material.

The St. Johns players, previous to this game did not have a coach, but now Rev. C. P. Gates has been secured to act in that capacity, and as the parson is an all round athlete, there promises to be something doing when another game is pulled off.

The rink was well filled with spectators, there being more ladies present than gentlemen and all apparently heartily enjoyed the novel entertainment. The score was 23 to 6 in favor of the Newberg team.

Manager Thomas is to be congratulated upon for the success of the affair, and also upon the pleasing manner in which he is conducting the rink. There promises to be many more interesting and exciting events at the Dreamland before the winter is over.

$100 FOR YOUR THOUGHTS.

The Combination Salt and Pepper Shaker company, as will be noticed in their ad in this issue will give $100 worth of securities to the person who suggests an appropriate title for their ingenious invention—combination salt and pepper shaker. This will furnish employment for your "thinking box" for a few minutes these cold winter nights. Give it a trial and see if your brains are worth $100.

Bonham & Currier's

On Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Every person there will have a bunch of red tickets. Each ticket represents a previous purchase. On it is stamped the time of day. The person holding the ticket having on it the nearest the time our clock stops gets $5.00. You will see that some persons have 50 or 60 tickets; some more. Each of these means a dollar sale. Count the people, find out the number of tickets each has and you will find out about what our sales run.

1908 was something of a panic year, but our sales were $15,000 more than 1907; and the second week of this month our sales were $377 more than the second week of 1908.

Keep Bright and You WILL KEEP BUSY

Electric Light is the magnet that draws trade. The bright store is the "hypnotic eye" of business. People can no more resist the attraction of a brilliant, electrically lighted store than they can resist the clarion call of a brass band.

Is your competitor with the Electrically illuminated show windows, bright interior and sparkling Electric Sign getting an advantage over you? The moth never flutters around the unlighted candle! Up-to-date stores nowadays consider shop-window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods.

A show window brilliantly illuminated with Electric light will make many a sale "the night before." Electric light compels attention, makes easy the examination of your display, shows goods in detail and fabrics in their true colors.

And don't neglect the Electric Sign. It is soliciting "tomorrow's" business every moment it is lighted—burning your name in the public mind. It is a solicitor that never becomes weary—never stops work—costs little.

Roller Skating Rink

NOT OPEN SUNDAYS

Caters to the respectable element only, and positively refuses admission to objectionable characters.

Everybody should learn the fascinating art of roller skating now while it is in its infancy. This is demonstrated by the fact that thousands of large and costly rinks are being erected at the present time throughout the United States, Canada, South America and Europe. Large factories are being constructed to meet the ever increasing demand for roller skates. In South America alone they are several months behind on orders. It is a pleasure to note that President-elect Taft is an enthusiastic skater and heartily endorses roller skating as the best form of amusement and exercise for the public in general.

The Dreamland is going to make special inducements to all beginners, especially the ladies.

Note—Thursday night the "Sans Souci Skating Club" has the exclusive use of the rink.
