good-looking. President Bowerman of the Senate, is a slow-going kind of man, and I suppose will manage to worry his way through the session I fear that we are going to have an expensive and reckless legislature. There are so many requests for ap propriations, so many bills introduced for the increase of salaries so many unreasonable demands for all kinds of grafts and pulls that I look forward to a depleted treasury at the close of the session.

Think of the domands of the In dian War Veterans for $100,000 for horses used by them which have been dead over forty years and hav ing already received $100,000 for their services in addition to a sec tion of land from the state. Think of the Scattle-Alaska Commission asking for $50,000 over and above the $100,000 voted last session. An it has just leaked out that Messra Wehrung and Wisdom have been paying from $1.00 to $1.25 for meal $3.00 a day for rooms in addition to a salary of $10.00 a day. If this do mand is granted the men who vote for it should be branded from one ond of the state to the other. The Normal schools are again asking for $320,000. Last session's appropria tions amounted to $3,000,000, but this session's are likely to go over $4,000. 000. Thus, it will be seen, the expenditures have trobled in ten yars The State Fair at Salem is as hungry as usual, and the managers are ask ing for an increase over the appropriations of other years. It is about time that these gentlemen understoothat the state does not belong to them. Eastern Oregon wants a branch asylum and a coyote bounty. A bill will be introduced for the purchase of the locks at Oregon City. All the other state institutions are asking for increased subsides, and there are large deficiencies in every one of them. It appears that no matter how much money may be voted for them at one session, they are sure to come up again next session with a large deficiency bill. The members appear to be fairly stunned by the demands made upon them from every quarter. There are two mem bers-one in the house and the beth J. Ward, Deceased. other in the senate, Mr. Campbell in the House and Ben Selling in the Senate-who will make a hard fight for economy, and there are undoubt-edly a few others, but they will have Ward, deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of, and all persons have a hard and thankless fight before a hard and thankless fight before them. People are also looking to Gov. Chamberlain to fearleasly brand isb his yeto knife as usual, but not ish his veto knife as usual, but not withstanding all that can be done. the taxpayers of Oregon will next year have the biggest bill to pay they ever had since the organization of the state. If ever Oregon required a watch dog of the treasury, it is now. J. H. Fletcher,

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY.

A friend living in the East writes: St Johns must be a rather dinky own judging from the advertising olumns of your paper. You say that t is uptodate in all respects and he various lines of business are well epresented, yet in looking over your paper I can find but few enterprisng enough to advertise, and you say it is the only paper in the town. Not dentist, not a druggist, not a clothng store, not a harness shop, not a mkery, not a jewelry store, one cal estate firm, one lawyer, two hystcians, two groceries, not a dry onds store, not a hotel or rooming sc, not a feed store, not a blackwith shop, not a barber shop nor a undectionery store can I find repre-ented in the copy now before me, I to not believe I would care to locate in a town that displays such an abence of enterprise and willingness o ald its local paper." Of course this friend is a printer and takes uch matters more to heart than we angine most individuals do. Howver, we hope to have a better showin; in the near future.

If two correspondents from the same locality sends the same item we will cut out the duplicated notes. This means much to the Peninsula and we hope our friends will take hold of the matter and give us all the news or the entire Peninsula.
