Local News.

He who by his biz would rise Must either bust or advertise.

Miss Grace Stucker, who has been quite ill the past week or so, is rapidly improving.

J. Martin of Manitoba is a guest of his sister-in-law, Mrs. T. R. Anderson, this week.

John McDade left yesterday morning for an extended visit at his old home in Ithaca, Mich.

W. W. Mossman secured the five dollar prize at Bonham & Currier's store Saturday afternoon last.

New subscribers are becoming a daily occurrence with the Review, a fact that is very gratifying to the publishers.

Gus Solmond has been having quite a time of it with a bad attack of neuralgia, but the twinges are becoming a little less fierce now.

S. Kluge, an old resident of St. Johns, leaves this week for Madison, Minn., where he will visit with relatives and friends for some time.

A new counter has been added to Unger's cigar store the past week. This will make quite a convenience to Mr. Unger as well as to his patrons.

J. B. Sears and J. H. McLean, two old cronies of Geo. M. Hall, were here from the Dakotas last week, and the visit was greatly enjoyed by the three parties.

Many calls were made the past week for extra copies of the Review, many St. Johns people desiring to let their Eastern friends know about this city's prospects for the coming year.

A leenath is now mill foreman at the St. Johns Lumber company. He is well versed in everything pertaining to the lumber business and will be a valuable addition to this prosperous concern.

Mrs. Leah Thompson of Hood River is a guest at the home of D. N. Byerlee. She will spend some time in Portland learning the new millinery styles to be in vogue this spring before returning home.

Olin Shephardson, wife, two children and mother, of Catlin, Wash., were guests at the home of E. S. Wright for several days the past week. They were en route for an extended sojourn in Southern California.

The label on your paper tells you when your subscription expires. Therefore, we do not deem it necessary to send out statements of a subscriber's standing. Take a look at the label, and if you are in arrears we would be glad to see you.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church held its monthly business meeting and social at the Manse Wednesday evening. A goodly number were present and all enjoyed the occasion very much. A "taffy pull" was the final number in the way of amusement.

Gilbert Overstreet entertained the Peninsula Band boys in a very pleasing manner at his home in this place Friday evening of last week. A number of St. Johns young people were present and the evening was greatly enjoyed with music and games to soce the time away.

The chemical engine has been placed on four wheels under the skilful manipulation of Fire Chief Chas. Bredeson. The job is a first class one, and henceforth there will be no danger of it falling to pieces at a critical moment, as had been the case several times in the past.

An election of officers of the Peninsula bank was held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the following officers elected: President, R. T. Platt; vice president, F. C. Knapp; cashier, C. A. Wood. Directors—R. T. Platt, F. C. Knapp, M. L. Holbrook, Peter Autzen, H. L. Powers, Thos. Cochran and C. A. Wood.

Many improvements are planned for Whitwood Court in the next few months. A number of residences will go up, streets will be graded and every thing will hum in good shape. It will not be long until the hillside on the west side will resemble Portland Heights as a residence section.

J. T. Bolden had a little scrap with a hen the other day that might have been quite amusing for an onlooker, but it certainly was not the case with Mr. Bolden. During the melee the critter made a strenuous effort to put one of his eyes out of commission. The first pass it made caused a beautiful carmine crease to develop just over Mr. Bolden's eye, and the second made a lightning shaped streak just under the peeper. There is still plenty of room to see the beauties of St. Johns between the two creases, but as an improvement to Mr. Bolden's good natured countenance it is an utter failure.

See the First National Bank statement on the fourth page of this issue.

The Claremont tavern is again doing business under new management.

H. E. Collier spent several days at The Dalles this week on legal business.

Lester Rose, clerk at Bonham & Currier's store, is on the sick list this week.

Sprague Marsh of Skamawaka is visiting his sister, Mrs. O. E. Learned, this week.

Miss Pansy Racey of Jefferson, is visiting at the home of Mrs. E. A. Markwell in this city.

Thomas Nelson is now watchman on the Chinook, Mr. Donnelly having resigned that position.

Chief of Police Black had been under the weather the past day or so but is now around again as usual.

Mrs. C. N. Braasch has been very ill the past week and at one time her life was despaired of, but now she is on the road to recovery.

Joseph Goldstein has purchased the handsome residence of E. C. Hurlbert on Chicago street, and will hereafter be numbered among St. Johns' citizens. The consideration was $4,000. Mr. Goldstein was a captain in the Russian army during the Russia-Japan war.

Rev. J. R. Knodell, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, addressed a large audience at the Evangelical church Monday evening. Rev. Knodell's mission here was to secure funds for the employment of an attorney in the cause of the saloon question. We understand that about $100 was raised.

Grace, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Darling, died at her home in this city Thursday evening of last week, aged nearly 16 years. She had been ill for about two weeks with an abscess that formed on her brain. Deceased was a bright, pleasant and well liked young lady and her death is a great blow to her parents and numerous friends. Funeral services took place at Zeller, Byrnes & Co.'s undertaking parlors on Russell street Sunday, interment taking place in the Columbia cemetery.

A cash prize of five dollars will be given each Saturday afternoon to some one attending the matinee at four o'clock on that day, and will be continued for a period of thirty days. At each matinee tickets will be given at the entrance entitling the holder to a chance on the prize offered. These coupons are good for thirty days, but the holder must be present at four o'clock Saturday afternoon in order to secure the prize. Coupons will be given at matinees only, and Sunday afternoon, next, will begin the prize winning period. Electric Theatre.

The Pacific Coast Biscuit Co. team, which makes weekly trips to St. Johns, met with quite an accident at Portsmouth last week. The wagon bed was submerged into one of the numerous chuck holes on that thoroughfare causing the wagon to turn over and destroying a great many eatables. The driver landed in a soft bed of mud with no bones broken, but he swears that it is the worst street in the city. Portsmouth is in the city of Portland, too. If St. Johns was annexed to Portland wonder if our streets would get in the same condition.

IF EGGS SHOULD GO HIGHER.

If eggs should continue to advance in price, items similar to the following are likely to be of daily occurrence in papers throughout the country:

The safe in the office of Smith & Jones was broken open last evening and three eggs were secured as booty, two of them being almost fresh. The loss is a very severe one to this well known firm.

Great excitement prevails in this section over the discovery by two little boys of a hen's nest; under an old barn which contained two eggs. What makes the find of greater importance is the fact that after an exhaustive examination by experts the eggs were declared to be not over two weeks old.

Last evening a Pittsburg billionaire made a vulgar display of his wealth by ordering a dozen eggs in a fashionable New York restaurant. It was suggested that he might much better build a library with the money.

Aunt Betsy Hopgood, whose will has just been probated, left nearly three dozen eggs to a faithful maid servant. Several noblemen have already proposed to the heiress.

Michael Jackson, the millionaire egg king, was held up last night and robbed of 200 carats of eggs.

Throngs of tourists are daily flocking to the Metropolitan Museum of Art to witness the egg that is now on exhibition in the loan exhibit. It is said to be a genuine egg.

Keep Bright and You WILL KEEP BUSY

Electric Light is the magnet that draws trade. The bright store is the "hypnotic eye" of business. People can no more resist the attraction of a brilliant, electrically lighted store than they can resist the clarion call of a brass band.

Is your competitor with the Electrically illuminated show windows, bright interior and sparkling Electric Sign getting an advantage over you? The moth never flutters around the unlighted candle! Up-to-date stores nowadays consider shop-window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods.

A show window brilliantly illuminated with Electric light will make many a sale "the night before." Electric light compels attention, makes easy the examination of your display, shows goods in detail and fabrics in their true colors.

And don't neglect the Electric Sign. It is soliciting "tomorrow's" business every moment it is lighted—burning your name in the public mind. It is a solicitor that never becomes weary—never stops work—costs little.
