tate business with headquarters in the cement block building on Jersey street.

The boys of the high school have organized a debating society, and the girls a Chorus, and some interesting entertainments may be looked forward to.

C. T. Tochio was among the many Portland visitors to St. Johns Sunday. He owns considerable property here which looks better to him every time he sees it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wear of Alberta were guests at the homes of C. J. Anderson and C. T. Moe last Sunday. They report great improvement in their locality.

Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Carl C. Hob-bard of Portland and Miss Anna C.
Scott of Santa Pass, California, were united in marriage at the Evangelical parsonage, Rev. C. P. Gates officiating.

Burns Jones, wife and child made a visit to St. Johns the first of the week, and before leaving purchased a house and lot from O. E. Learned on Mohawk street, near the French block. Mr. Jones intends moving here from Hood River in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Everhart of Hood River, in company with their daughter, Mrs. E. B. Clark of Portland, were St. Johns visitors Tuesday.
They are very much interested in St. Johns and investigated several desirable pieces of property before leaving the city.

WE WILL TELL YOU ABOUT IT
NEXT WEEK.

A. B. Chapman of Pendleton, Oregon, is visiting friends in St. Johns.
Mr. Chapman is the father of Miss Ethel Chapman, who so ably referred the basket ball game on roller skates at the rink last week.
He is also a brother of Mrs. J. B.
Campbell of this city.

Jesse L. D. Keppy of Albina received the sad intelligence of the death of his father Wednesday at Bridgeport, Conn. His mother who came last week to attend his wedding, is prostrated by the shock and grave doubts are entertained for her recovery. Mr. Keppy was married to Miss Lillian Carlson Feb. 18th.

The revival meetings closed at the Evangelical church Sunday night with four at the altar. Seventeen in all have confessed Jesus Christ as Lord, and thirteen have united with the church, with several others yet to come. The church has been greatly edified and the membership strengthened and inspired in their ambitions for service. The services were very interesting throughout.

It rains some in California according to late reports, it having been raining steadily for the past month or longer—not a gentle Oregon mist like we get here, but regular cloud bursts. A commercial traveler just arrived in St. Johns from Los Angeles states that the washouts on the railroads in that state were enormous. No less than eight locomotives were to be seen ditched along the line on account of floods and high water in sunny California. If the rain keeps up much longer the railroad companies will be compelled to run a line of steamboats along their tracks.

The members and friends of the Evangelical church are looking forward with interest to the annual Conference session which will be held in this city and entertained by the church April 1 to April 5th. This will call together all the ministers of this church in Oregon, and will be a season of business and good fellowship. It should mean much to the city, inasmuch as from all points in the valley all who are interested will have their attention called to this city and will thus bring her opportunities, capabilities and resources before them. It is up to St. Johns as a city, as well as the church named, to look well into and consider her opportunity of boosting the city.

Be a BOOSTER for St. Johns.

Be sure it's a Vogue hat you wear.

Bargain—Residence lots, choicest part of St. Johns; easy terms. Call owner, 611 North Hayes.

Wanted—Girl to do general housework. Must room at home. Call at gagement at Woodlawn Wednesday mother, Mrs. J. L. Petty, for the last week, returned to her home at Seaside Saturday last.

Report of the Mothers' meeting, Epworth League meeting and several other items of interest were unavoidably crowded out of this issue. They will appear next week.

Don't forget that dance to be given by the fire department on the night of St. Patrick's day in Bickner's hall. Every body has a good time at these firemen functions.

Evangelical church—Morning topic:
"The Family Altar." Evening sermon: "The Very Son of God," and "The Divinity of Christ." Everybody invited. C. P. Gates, Pastor.

An informal dinner party was given last evening to a few friends by Mrs.

Frank Clark announces the fact that a goodly supply of first class ice cream will be on tap at his store next Sunday. Young ladies should make a note of this and not forget to pass that way when they have their escorts with them Sunday evening.

Miss Elsie Tallman gave a six o'clock dinner to several of her friends Monday evening. The time was spent with music and other diversions, and a delightful time was reported. Those present were: Jack Perrine, Jack Gallaway, George Perrine, Laura Gatten, Charles Garlick and Elsie Tallman.

Save money on your groceries. No use to pay more than you are compelled to. If you save money on your store bill it leaves more for clothing and other necessities. You CAN save money and lots of it by taking advantage of the closing out at cost sale of the stock of goods at the Muck & Derrie store in the French block. Everything is good and everything MUST go.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. J. P. Winter of Pendleton at the home of H. E. Collier last Monday evening. The game of 99 made the time pass pleasantly away.
Those present were Chas. Bailey, Miss Edna Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moxon, Elwood Waldreff, Miss Ella O'Gara, Wesley Overstreet and Mr. and Mrs. J. A.
Collier. Mrs. Winter, who is wife of Mr. Collier's former law partner, has returned to her home.

NEXT WEEK.

W. G. MacLaren, superintendent of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective society, will speak at the Congregational church this evening in the interest of rescue work. Mr.
MacLaren is a ready, fluent speaker with just enough of the Scottish brogue to make him pleasing and interesting. He has been a special leader in rescue work for the past twenty years, has traveled up one side of the coast and down the other, visited and addressed prisoners in city and country, and has just returned from Salem, where he has been interested in convicts. He is highly endorsed by bishops and clergymen in general as a representative man in the line of work he has chosen. The Randall Family will sing at the meeting tonight, as will also the Commons' Quartet.

MANUFACTURERS

Who have established, well advertised lines of goods to offer always seek for their representative of their goods the best store in the community. When we say best, we mean those firms who endeavor always to treat their trade right and keep up their stocks to the demands.

Keep Bright and You WILL KEEP BUSY

Electric Light is the magnet that draws trade. The bright store is the "hypnotic eye" of business. People can no more resist the attraction of a brilliant, electrically lighted store than they can resist the clarion call of a brass band.

Is your competitor with the electrically illuminated show windows, bright interior and sparkling Electric Sign getting an advantage over you? The moth never flutters around the unlighted candle! Up-to-date stores nowadays consider shop-window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods.

A show window brilliantly illuminated with Electric light will make many a sale "the night before." Electric light compels attention, makes easy the examination of your display, shows goods in detail and fabrics in their true colors.

And don't neglect the Electric Sign. It is soliciting "tomorrow's" business every moment it is lighted—burning your name in the public mind. It is a solicitor that never becomes weary—never stops work—costs little.
