George Hughes is erecting a barn at the rear of his lot adjoining the skating rink.

A new girl baby came to gladden the home of H. F. Clark on Friday of last week.

Watch the basket at The North Bank Pharmacy. There is something in it for you.

J. B. Cambell and Charles Linquist made a flying business trip to Gobie last Saturday.

A. M. Stearns is making preparations to erect a handsome residence on Crawford Street.

Mrs. A. B. Chapman of Pendleton is visiting her brother, J. B. Campbell, and wife of this city.

Owing to the wet weather Sunday the game of ball between the Albina Red Cocks and the St. Johns club was called off.

Wm. Saterlee, recently from Kansas but now of Hood River, was a guest at the home of Burns Jones several days the past week.

City Attorney H. E. Collier is having plans drawn for a handsome and modern bungalow to be erected on his lot on Stafford street.

V. W. Mason, the concrete man, has begun the construction of a building on Myers street for the manufacture of cement blocks.

A dance will be given in Bickner's hall Saturday evening, May 22, by Karr's Orchestra. This promises to be an interesting event and is worthy of a good turnout.

The schools re-opened again for business Monday after ten days or more lay off, and the croppies in the river will not be hounded quite so hard except on Saturdays.

A. Unger, than whom St. Johns has no better booster, has purchased a house and lot on John street from R. W. McKeon, and Mr. Unger will thus become a permanent fixture in St. Johns.

Thad Parker left the first of the week for the scene of his labor in Clackamas county, after an enforced vacation of a couple weeks duration by reason of an injury to one of his walking pedestals.

E. C. Hurlbert, of the Combination Salt & Pepper Shaker Co., is in Seattle this week looking after affairs connected with his company. The shakers will be on sale at the Exposition there this summer.

Calef Bros. have so much faith in the future of St. Johns that last week they purchased seven lots in this city at one fell swoop. As we have many times stated before, no better investment could be made than in St. Johns realty.

Rev. Chester P. Gates, having been called to Corvallis to assist Rev. E. E. McVicker in a tabernacle meeting, Rev. A. A. Winter, acting president of Dalles College, will occupy the pulpit at the Evangelical church morning and evening Sunday next. Everybody invited.

Mrs. H. G. Odgen of Dayton spent a few days this week with relatives and friends in this city. She says they are getting along nicely in their rustic retreat and that the simple life is all that it is cracked up to be. Mrs. Odgen's many friends were glad to greet her once more.

J. B. Holbrook and others have purchased the Dr. Jones tract of land adjoining Whitwood Court on the north, and later will plat it into lots and place it on the market. The west side is developing at a rapid rate, and it will not be long until the hillside resembles Portland Heights, only the land lies much nicer than is the case there.

There will be a great convention of the Presbyterian Brotherhood in Portland June 8 and 9, 1909. All the Presbyterian churches of Oregon are being asked to send delegates, and it is expected that these will number several hundred. The principal speakers will be men of national reputation, who will come to the coast following the meeting of the General Assembly at Denver in May.

A REAL BARGAIN.

If you are looking for an investment that is a sure winner, buy half of block 16 at Whitwood Court. The tract is 100x600, lays fine and lots across from it are now selling at $250 for 50x100. If cut into lots $2000 could easily be realized, and then the lots would be cheaper than any can be brought for in that neighborhood. In five years $10,000 would not be an exorbitant price. If taken at once $1800 buys it, $1000 cash and the balance at $10 per month. St. Johns Realty Co., Review office.
