Buildings for the month of May totaled $26,570, which is a very good showing for the state the country is now in. Few cities of its size in the United States did as well as St. Johns.

If you want wood sawed have it done with the traction wood saw. Prices—straight cord wood, per cord, 60c; river and slab wood, 65c; pole wood $1 per hour. Leave orders at Walmer's Transfer, or 838 Stewart street. O. E. Bailey.

Mrs. George Simmons has been quite ill at her home in this city for the past couple of weeks. We are glad to note, however, that she is improving at this writing, and trust that she will continue to improve until she is entirely well.

The St. Johns ball team played an interesting and exciting game at Forest Grove last Sunday and was defeated by the close score of 5 to 4. These teams have now played four games, each side securing two, and when they meet again it will be for blood.

Dr. H. B. Esson of Moro, Oregon, was the guest of his brother the genial city recorder, for a day or two this week. He believes St. Johns has Eastern Oregon skinned a mile, and it was a rare pleasure to spend a few days in God's country once more.

Several vandals around St. Johns have been making a habit of breaking down rose bushes. Suspicion points very strongly toward a couple of young men, and they are being watched. It would be quite gratifying if they were captured and given the full penalty of the law. There is no excuse for such depredations and no punishment could be too severe to administer in such cases.

A word to the wise is sufficient. No questions will be asked if returned within the time specified.

One of the very finest displays of roses in St. Johns was to be seen at the Review office for several days the past week. The flowers were furnished and placed on exhibition by Mrs. E. S. Wright of South Hayes street and attracted considerable attention and many complimentary remarks were heard concerning their beauty. The same display in New York city would cost at least $1000.

Dr. A. E. Gesler, brother of the genial and wide awake furniture dealer and home furnisher of this city, A. C. Gesler, is here from Saranac, Mich. The Dr. is making a tour of the coast and will spend a few days at the Seattle exposition before returning to that state. He is greatly impressed with St. Johns and its surroundings and believes there is no doubt but that it has a wonderful future before it.
