The woolen mills are rushing things to the limit these days. A full force is working every day and it is often necessary to work at night to keep up with their orders. This is one institution at least which is not bothering about dull times.

The baby show at the Electric Theatre is attracting quite a good deal of interest, and some mothers have become so enthusiastic in "rooting" for their babies that they are paying the way of different people in order to induce them to vote for their offspring.

J. N. Keeler and wife, Mrs. E. Hutchinson and Ethel Hutchinson left this week for Columbia Beach where they expect to remain for a fortnight. This resort has only recently been opened, and is said to be the finest on the coast as a delightful place to spend a vacation.

Rev. C. L. Owen of Astoria has assumed the pastorate of the Baptist church in this place. Rev. Owen conducted a series of meetings here several months ago which were very successful. He is an able, cultured and energetic young man, and the members of the Baptist church can congratulate themselves upon securing his services.

St. Johns and the Vancouver Pioneers pulled off a double header on the Vancouver grounds on the 4th. The first game was an 11-inning contest and was won by the Apostles by a score of 8 to 7. The second game went to the Pioneers by the score of 5 to 2. Both games were very interesting and the attendance was quite large.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs took themselves to St. Helena Monday on the steamer Kellogg and had one of the best times of their lives. Strange to say no rain fell at St. Helena on that day with the exception of a little in the evening, and as a result the program was carried out in full. All returned in the evening tired out but happy.

If you are looking for an investment that is a sure winner, buy half of block 16 at Whitwood Court. The tract is 100x500, lays fine and lots across from it are now selling at $350 for 50x100. If cut into lots $3000 could easily be realized, and then the lots would be cheaper than any can be brought for in that neighborhood. In five years $10,000 would not be an exorbitant price. If taken at once $1800 buys it, $1000 cash and the balance at $10 per month. B. H. Blanding, Whitwood Court.

For rare bargains in all kinds of reality see P. Hill.

Mrs. A. W. Vincent is a contestant in the Portland Journal subscription contest and is hustling early and late to secure one of the first prizes. While it is not our purpose to boom the circulation of some other paper, we would be glad to see Mrs. Vincent carry off first prize. Her many friends are lending their aid in a material manner.

The Collapsible Box Company has been more than busy lately filling orders. A couple of salesmen on the road are sending in orders so rapidly that with their present capacity it is hard to keep up with the demand. The merits of their output is so obvious that in most cases it only requires the goods to be shown to create a demand. Since the company has struck its gait it is more than likely that a scene of activity will constantly be enacted at their plant here. Gov. J. H. Fletcher has recently been added to the force of directors.

Viola Bean, a 12-year-old girl, living at 133 Nicklin street, St. Johns, was injured Wednesday afternoon at Fargo street, on the St. Johns line. She had signalled the conductor to stop, but he evidently did not see the signal. The girl started to alight from the trailer and couldn't stop when she discovered that the car was not going to slow down. She was thrown violently to the ground. The girl's arm and shoulder were injured and Patrolmen Burri and Mackey picked her up and carried her to a nearby drugstore, where she was revived. Friends called later to assist her home.

First of the victims of the Fourth in Portland was Joe Goska, aged 14, who lives in Portland. A toy cannon exploded last Friday night and both his hands were almost blown off at the wrist. At Knott and Delray streets the Goska boy was holding a cannon in his hands, while another boy pounded powder into the muzzle with a rock. The piece blew up, and young Goska got all the shock. His companion escaped without a scratch. Both the injured boy's hands were terribly mangled. Several fingers and one thumb are gone, and the flesh and bones in the palms are shockingly torn.
