Buying Cheap Goods to Save Money is Like Stopping a Clock to Save Time

It is so with a Refrigerator. The "WHITE FROST" is the standard of perfection, clean and sanitary. It saves the food. It saves the ice.

KITCHEN WORK IS HARD IN SUMMER

There is no let up, no matter how hot it is—three meals a day, just the same.

Do you know you can save half the work if you have a GOOD KITCHEN CABINET?

A small payment down, a small payment weekly buys one, and you never miss the money. Remember the place—

We receive each week something new in the Post Card novelties. The latest is "The Merry Widow." St. Johns Pharmacy.

Those wishing to enter the Ladies' Contest at the Electric Theatre must have their photos placed with the management by tomorrow.

Furnished rooms, best in the city. New brick building, newly furnished, prices reasonable. Calef Bros., home furnishers, opposite postoffice.

Wayne L. Mills has had his office building removed from Jersey street to Whitwood Court. He expects to erect a handsome residence at the Court in the near future.

Calef Bros., opposite P. O., have a 2nd hand range nearly new for sale cheap, also a good Pedestal dining table, chairs and nearly a complete outfit. Will be sold on easy terms.

N. A. Gee's good natured countenance was visible upon the streets the past week after a severe siege of illness. He looked a little "peaked," but he is still good for moving many more houses around in St. Johns.

J. H. Black is now the proud father of a bouncing boy baby, the same having arrived at his home July 9th. "Joe's" height has increased a little over two inches as a consequence.

"Go to father," she said, when I asked her to wed, and she knew that I knew that her father was dead. She knew that I knew what a life he had led. She knew that I knew what she meant when she said, "Go to father."—Ex.

Mrs. E. Olstrum and mother of Hancock, Wis., expect to arrive in St. Johns about the first of August where they will spend some time with Charley and George Foss, brothers and sons of the two ladies. They will visit the Seattle exposition before returning to their Eastern homes.

The Columbia Steel Works company is busily engaged in getting their ground in condition for the erection of their mammoth plant between Linnton and Whitwood Court. How soon actual construction will begin has not yet been divulged, but from present indications the time is within the very near future.

The Portland Woolen Mills team will play a game of ball Sunday afternoon with a crack Japanese club that has lately been touring the western part of the country. If you never saw a Jap play ball this will be your opportunity. The mill boys will have all their best players in action, and there will be something doing.

Edward Fawcett, formerly an employe of V. W. Mason, the contractor, committed suicide by the poison route at Pendleton last week. Mr. Mason states that he was one of the very best workmen he had and lately aided in putting down the South Hayes street walk and also worked a few days on Portland boulevard. Domestic trouble is assigned as the cause of his rash act.

Hon. K. C. Couch spent a day at mountain climbing last week in an attempt to find a good fishing hole. He followed Wind River for many weary miles but it seemed that the good fishing place was always just a little farther on. At last wearied, disgusted and worn out he threw three little fish that he had captured away and arrived at home 11 p. m. in fit frame of mind to do the party who had told him there was fine fishing on Wind River bodily harm.

Saturday's special at Couch & Co. is certainly a money saver.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Carl Majeska, July 7th, a daughter.

Miss Sarah Cowles is on a vacation to her old home at Gaston.

E. L. Perkins will leave Saturday for a ten days' sojourn at Falls city.

Mrs. Lyle Bishop of Havre, Mont., is enjoying a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. J. M. Gillespie. She expects to stay the greater part of the summer.

M. E. Mann and family of South Dakota, old time neighbors and friends of Chief Bredeson and who recently paid him a short visit, have located at Centralia, Wash.

M. S. Cobb has opened up a branch store at Sellwood. By purchasing the wants of two stores at the same time the saving in the cost of the goods will be quite material.

Mrs. E. L. Cox returned this week from a trip to Washington state. After visiting the Fair at Seattle, she went to Tacoma, and from there to Mount Ranier, where she camped for a while on ten feet of snow. The sojourn was greatly enjoyed by Mrs. Cox.

Mrs. A. E. Mansfield has returned from a few days' visit at the Seattle Fair. Her husband thought it a good time to surprise her by making some material changes to their residence during her absence, but returning sooner than expected, she found things badly torn up and Harry busy in the midst of it.

The members of Grace Church Male Chorus were invited to the home of Mr. Henniman, at Milwaukie, Monday evening to help him harvest his Royal Ann cherries, and the way the boys went after the fruit was a caution. After enjoying a pleasant evening with songs and stories, we departed for our homes with a warm spot in our hearts for Mr. Henniman, a faithful member of the bunch. One of 'Em.

The woolen mill team was defeated by a score of 9 to 7 in a game of ball Sunday by a picked team. The latter paid little regard to the batting order, and when a good batter was needed he was pushed to the front regardless of whose turn it was. As all is fair in love, war and baseball, the scheme worked all right, although there was plenty of protesting on the part of catcher Poff, who finally retired from the game.

The dance at the city dock was taken up at the Commercial club Wednesday evening and the date for holding the same is August 5th, full particulars of which will appear in next week's issue. The matter of local freight for St. Johns is very promising and will likely be placed in commission in a very few days. The club has put in good work along this line and can congratulate themselves that their efforts in all probability will be crowned with success.

F. P. Drinker, of the First National Bank of our city, and M. Van Alstine of Portland have purchased a fine 100 acres of land on the Oregon Electric, two miles from Multnomah station, only some six miles from the center of the city, and have platted the same into 5 acre tracts, and are placing the same on the market. This farm was the old Hayes farm and has, in part, been in cultivation for a number of years. The Smith-Wagoner Company, Portland, Oregon, are selling agents for the tract which has been named "Multnomah Acres," and has already made some sales from the same. Valley Vista, which the Smith-Wagoner Co. put on the market some three months ago has been closed out with the exceptions of only three tracts.
