Local News.

Remember the Commercial club dance in the new city dock Thursday, August 5th.

Otis E. Learned and wife returned Monday from a week's visit at the Seattle exposition.

The whole city should turn out at the big dance in the new city dock next Thursday evening. All are welcome.

A. F. Kaemlein, the tonsorial artist, spent Sunday and Monday at Amity, the guest of F. E. Penny, formerly of this city.

A. Gunderson, formerly a resident of St. Johns, but lately of Vancouver, Wash., died at that place July 15th, of cancer.

Miss Stella Campling is home on her vacation from normal school at Los Angeles. She expects to return there this Fall for a course in music.

Mrs. W. E. Dobson of Aphenas, Oregon, has been spending the past couple of weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Downs, in this city.

B. T. Leggett and wife and Mrs. L. H. Chambers departed Wednesday morning for Ocean Park, where they expect to remain for a period of about six weeks.

L. Badger and wife, after spending several months at St. Helens, have returned to St. Johns and have taken up their residence on their Philadelphia street property.

Mr. Business Man, don't you think it would be wise to carry an ad. in the Review, if you are not already doing so? The paper needs support, whether it deserves it or not. Every little helps.

A car load of household goods arrived at St. Johns over the O. R. & N. from Russellville, Arkansas, last Friday. They were shipped by Samuel Dallas, who has emigrated here from that place.

J. A. Collier has removed his family to Portland, where Collier & Collier expect to open up a branch office the first of August, and J. A. will look after the Portland end of the business.

Miss Ollie Curran of Henleyville, Cal., is a guest at the home of her uncle, Mayor J. F. Hendricks, this week. While she believes there is no country like California, she is delighted with St. Johns.

The Linton people are up in arms over the United Railways charging ten cents fare from Linton to the heart of the business district in Portland. The case has been tried before Judge Morrow of the Circuit Court and a decision will be rendered next week.

William Davis, a former resident of St. Johns, has returned after an absence of a couple of years at St. John, Wash. He is the father of Inkerman Davis of this city, and is glad to once more be a resident of St. Johns, Oregon. There is not so much difference in the names of the two places, but there is considerable in many other respects.

O. P. Wolcott has purchased the old dancing pavilion at Cedar Park and has had the same removed to Point View, where we understand he will have it remodeled into a business structure. The lumber contained therein is in fine condition and of the first quality, and Mr. Wolcott turned a good deal when he secured it.

Robert Thompson and wife, and Monroe Hartman and wife of Douglas, Kansas, and Mrs. T. C. Sinclair of Oklahoma have been guests at the home of Councilman J. W. Davis for the past week or so. They say the corn in Kansas and Oklahoma are fairly burning up, and that the heat is something fierce. It was a great relief to them when they reached this cool and pleasant clime.

Hewitt & Wright have finished up their contract of building a modern and up-to-date school house at Houlton, and have transferred their forces to the new East End building. The edifice they just completed is almost identical with the one they are erecting here. The people of Houlton can congratulate themselves upon securing a school building that is neat and substantial throughout, because these contractors never do a job of work that they are ashamed of.

If you are looking for an investment that is a sure winner, buy half of block 16 at Whitwood Court. The tract is 100x600, lays fine and lots across from it are now selling at $350 for 50x100. If cut into lots $3000 could easily be realized, and then the lots would be cheaper than any can be brought for in that neighborhood. In five years $10,000 would not be an exorbitant price. If taken at once $1500 buys it, $500 cash, $500 in six months and the balance at $10 per month. B. H. Blanding, real estate office, Whitwood Court.

Wanted: Apprentices and hat makers at once at the Vogue Millinery.

Remember the Commercial club dance in the new city dock Thursday, August 5th.

City Attorney H. E. Collier and wife returned from a pleasant week's visit at San Francisco Tuesday.

Earl Crouchley is rustivating on the farm of Williams & Bailey, in the Tualatin valley, this week.

Mrs. A. E. Learned and O. E. Learned, wife and child left this week for an outing at Ocean Park.

Miss Florence Malmes of New Lexington, Ohio, has been a guest of Miss Ada Holcomb the past few days.

The best time ever will be given at the big dance in the new dock next Thursday evening. Be sure to be on hand.

Real estate, real fire insurance, rentals and real watch and clock repairing at Rogers', 309 N. Jersey street.

"Cap" Snow, the veteran attorney and O. K. collector, has been indulging in a vacation at Seattle the past week.

J. E. Williams is spending a few days at Tokeland, Wash., this week, where he is the guest of M. L. Holbrook and family.

Miss Della Fuller, after spending a couple of months at the home of Gus Salmond, has returned to her home at Sock Center, Minn.

"Dick" Perrine, the musical barber, has transferred his services from Harry Satterlee's shop to his first love, George Hall's shop.

Furnished rooms, best in the city. New brick building, newly furnished, prices reasonable. Calef Bros., home furnishers, opposite postoffice.

Any one desiring Peninsula magazines may obtain same free of charge by calling at this office. They are fine things to send to friends in the East.

The new chief of police, Cox, of Portland may not make a better official than his predecessor, but one can pronounce his name with some degree of certainty.

We understand that the Cochran liquor case, which was scheduled to be taken up by the Supreme Court yesterday, is now being held under advisement and that a decision will be rendered in a few days.

Calef Bros., opposite P. O., have a 2nd hand range nearly new for sale cheap, also a good Pedestal dining table, chairs and nearly a complete outfit. Will be sold on easy terms.

Subject for the morning sermon at the Baptist church: "Christ Jesus the Lord." Other services at regular hours. Union meeting at the Evangelical church at 8 p. m. Conrad L. Owen, pastor.

W. M. Points and wife of Inavale, Neb., are guests at the home of his brother-in-law, O. R. Downs, this week. This is Mr. Points' first visit to the great west, and he is agreeably surprised with the many attractions he sees here.

Many people from Portland and the Peninsula will be in attendance at the dance in the city dock next Thursday evening. The hundreds of couples dancing at one time will be an unusually interesting sight. The city should turn out en masse.

Sarah E. Bailey, Hattie E. McKinney, Martha E. Hoover and Ruby E. Markwell were met at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, by P. Hill and Henry Allen of the general relief committee of the I. O. O. F. one day this week, and about 75 bouquets were distributed.

See Hendricks & Horsman's new ad in this issue. This new firm takes charge of the grocery now being conducted at 111 South Jersey street by D. M. Newton. They have ordered a fine new stock of fancy and staple groceries and will be ready to do business next Monday, August 1st. A share of your patronage is solicited.

The Glory class of the Baptist church will give a "Measure Social" August 3d at the home of Miss Ethel Waldref, 735 Dayton street. Every foot in height costs 5 cents, while every inch over will cost 1 cent. Refreshments will be served. All young people cordially invited. Eva Clarke, class reporter.

A number of the friends of ex-Councilman P. J. Miller gave him a pleasant surprise Monday evening. Mr. Miller has attained the age of fifty years and the party was in commemoration of that fact. About one for each year of his age was present, and that a good time ensued goes without saying. There are few jollier men than P. J. and he is the life of any assemblage that he gets mixed up in.
