Seeing Is Believing

You have to show people these days. They want to see for themselves.

That's what we Are doing

Showing people that they can buy at home just as cheaply as in Portland, get just as easy terms, just as good quality and at the same time help build up home industries.

Notice our display of Book Cases, Ladies' Desks, Roll Top Desks, Library Tables, etc., this week. Remember the place.

Local News.

Chas. Paulin of 430 Gilbert street is still on the sick list.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Al Harris, Saturday, July 21, a daughter.

Mrs. A. Stucker, of the Vogue Millinery, spent Saturday in Beaverton.

G. L. Perrine has purchased two lots on North Edison street adjoining his residence on that grade-wanted street.

Mrs. George Page of Athens, Pa., has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Keeler the past few days.

R. D. Jackson, the up-to-the-hour pharmacist, wife and baby are reveling in the sea breezes and mingling with the bathers at Seaside this week.

Mrs. Mildred Stanley of 421 Gilbert street entertained Mrs. E. H. Morse of Irvington and Mrs. Bella of South Portland on Wednesday evening last.

M. D. Newton and family are taking in the fair at Seattle this week. On their return they expect to depart for Los Angeles, where they will remain indefinitely.

George N. Markle of Clearfield, Penna., brother of the editor, arrived in St. Johns Sunday evening and has been added to the Review force. He has had many years experience in the printing business and his coming will add strength to the paper.

Chief of Police Bredeson presented the editor with a fine lot of cucumbers Monday, all for which we are duly thankful. May cucumbers grow for him where they never grew before, and may his heart never grow smaller.

P. Hill shouldered a bran new rifle Monday and took his departure for Nehalem, where he will spend a few days in that hunter's paradise. Teddy's record will look like a small potato before Paschel returns.

F. W. Miller, an old time friend of S. W. Rodgers, the clock doctor, made him a pleasant visit Monday. Mr. Miller is a resident of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., and dropped off to see his old friend while en route to the Seattle fair.

The subject at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock will be "The Seven-fold Purity of Truth." Union meeting at 8 p. m. Rev. Guy L. Dick, associate pastor of the First Congregational church of Portland will preach. Everybody invited. Conrad L. Owen, pastor.

H. F. Clark has purchased the confectionary and cigar stand of George Simmons on Jersey street, and has already taken possession of the same. Mr. Simmons will hereafter devote his energies principally to looking after the interests of the Portland Journal in St. Johns.

The woolen mills ball team journeyed to Linton last Sunday and defeated the strong aggregation of that town by a score of 18 to 14. The game was quite interesting in spite of the largeness of the score, and was interspersed with plenty of slugging.

A large manufacturer of gasoline engines will be one of the manufacturing concerns to locate on the 50-acre tract now being graded at Kenton, the Swift townsite on the Peninsula. Another company that may locate is a smelter and iron foundry says the Portland Daily Abstract.

Dr. C. D. Hopper has given up his practice here and is now located at Richland, Wash. The Dr. and his wife have many warm friends here who will regret their departure. The city of St. Johns is so well provided with good physicians that the field is not lucrative for outside physicians to locate.

Mrs. Minnie Leighton of 124 Fox street gave a dinner last Thursday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Freida Benny of San Francisco, Cal. Those present were Mrs. Frieda Benny, Mrs. Kate Yarnell, Mrs. Minnie Meyer, Mrs. Grace Kansabaum, Mrs. Mildred Stanley and Masters Benny, Yarnell and Meyer.

The dance given by the Bachelors' club in Bickner's hall Thursday evening of last week was a splendid success, and those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance were delighted with the good time accorded them. The decorations were unique and very tasteful and attractive. If the bachelors do not know how to secure a wife, they know how to provide a good time at a dance.

John Noce, formerly a popular tailor of this city has once more returned and now occupies his building next to the postoffice. Hagenson & Smith retire from the field, having disposed of their business to Mr. Noce & Co. John is a skilled workman, thoroughly up-to-date, genial and obliging, and his many friends will be glad to know that he has decided to cast his lot with us once more.

Work for a Greater St. Johns.

New post cards arriving every day. St. Johns Pharmacy.

Mrs. Carl Moe of Whitwood Court, who had been quite ill for several days, is now much improved.

"Asco Addition" is the latest plat that has been presented to council for acceptance. Golly, what a name.

Peroxide Cream for rough skin, tan, sunburn, etc., guaranteed to give satisfaction. St. Johns Pharmacy.

The St. Johns Shipbuilding plant is crowded with work and an extra large force has been added in consequence.

From 25 to 35 cars of logs are being daily shipped from the loading station here to the Oregon City paper mills.

Carl Nelson has been promoted to the position formerly held by D. F. Horsman in Couch & Co.'s store, and is making good.

Rev. G. W. Nelson will preach at the Union services at the First Congregational church, Portland, next Sunday evening.

W. H. King was called to Salem the latter part of last week in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of a daughter.

The call for bids on the improvement of East Burlington and Tacoma streets may be found in this issue. Contractors, please take notice.

C. T. Prall, formerly a well known merchant of this city, has launched into the land selling business with headquarters in Portland, irrigated lands is made a specialty.

P. W. Peterson, a pleasant young man from 'Big Lake' Minn., is a guest at the home of his old friend, Councilman F. P. Brown, this week. He will take in the Seattle Fair before returning home.

Mistress Aldrich of Knoxville, Iowa, and Miss Jessie Kelley of Oberlin, Ohio, are guests at the home of ex-Mayor H. W. Erico this week. They will visit the Seattle exposition before returning home.

Mrs. W. A. Bennett gave a pleasant party last Wednesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. James Rich of Duluth, Minn. About thirty were present, and bridge was the chief diversion indulged in.

J. S. McKinney has acquired a moving picture outfit, and we presume he will soon be showing illustrations of the real estate he has for sale in the latest and most approved modern fashion. "Jerry" is a firm believer in keeping abreast with the times.

J. L. Summers and daughter of Corvallis, Mont., are guests at the home of T. J. Monahan. Mr. Summers is sojourning here in hope that the change of climate will benefit his daughter's health and will likely remain for some time. He is a cousin of Mrs. Monahan.

The time at the Commercial club Wednesday evening was taken up in making arrangements for the dance in the city dock which was held last night. As the Review goes to press before the dance comes off, we will have to postpone telling all about it until next week.

C. J. Anderson and daughter Recco returned Tuesday night from a few months' visit to Sweden. They had a delightful time throughout, and the long journey was made without mishap. Mr. Anderson says he traveled over lots of ground and saw many interesting sights, but he is willing to give it all for good old Oregon.

The alarm of fire started the natives Monday afternoon and the fire department made record time in reaching the scene of the conflagration. The fire occurred at a small dwelling on the corner of Catlin and Hayes streets, but a few buckets of water subdued the flames and the services of the fire ladders were not required.

Adam Kaemlein hid himself to Collins Springs Monday for the purpose of putting his body to soak for a few days in the springs of that place. His stay was abruptly terminated because of the fact that the man he secured as substitute in the barber shop during his absence worked a couple of hours and then calmly packed up his tools and departed.

W. J. Peddicord and one or two other gentlemen were in St. Johns yesterday in the interest of securing a trolley line leading from St. Johns to the Swift packing plant. He believed that if the people here would all lend their support that in conjunction with the push clubs along the Peninsula enough pressure could be brought to bear to bring the boon about. That it would be of great benefit to St. Johns none can gainsay, and we believe the project will have the moral support of every resident in the city.

The Smith Premier Typewriter has widened its market until it includes the whole civilized world; has become the typewriter of over 300,000 operators and has, during 1906, broken every previous record of sales, because it has from the beginning best met every typewriter need.

THE tri-color feature of the Smith Premier Typewriter is recognized as the greatest improvement in modern typewriter construction—yet in providing it, none of the strong fundamental features, for which the Smith Premier has always been noted, have been sacrificed. Complete literature on request.
