V. W. Mason has moved his family into their new home at the corner of Hartman and Myers streets.

Miss Cordella Cross celebrated her fourteenth birthday August 12th, but she says not to give the party away.

"Sandy" Scales has returned from his short vacation and says he had a fine time and also found a nice girl.

Eli Hilover, father of Mrs. S. Turner, our popular lady butcher, is attending the G. A. R. reunion at Salt Lake City.

Miss Ester Bateson of Iowa is a guest at the V. W. Mason home this week. She will remain here a couple of months.

Mrs. Minnie Leighton and Miss Frieda are attending a family reunion at the farm of Mrs. Leighton's father on the West side.

Mrs. Charles Defke and Mrs. Benjamin Marsh of Greeley, Col., were the guests of Mrs. J. V. Nelson the latter part of last week.

J. J. Hurlbert was caught in the tolls Monday for rapid speeding with his auto. He enriched the city exchequer to the extent of $10 for the privilege.

The Baptist Sunday school picnic was held in Peninsula Park August 4th. The Evangelical S. S. picnic will be held at the same place next Wednesday.

The W. R. C. of St. Johns will give a literary and musical entertainment on August 21st, at 2 p. m. All members of any G. A. R. are cordially invited. Mrs. R. H. Miller.

P. T. Hanson and J. H. Giles left Saturday evening to take in the National Encampment at Salt Lake City. They expect to put in a week or so mingling with the old veterans.

Lee fortune is able to be out again after being laid up by severe injuries sustained from a fall from a cherry tree several weeks ago. His friends are rejoiced to see him around once more.

Mrs. G. W. Cochran, daughter and son of Bemidji, Minn., are guests at the handsome home of Thos. Cochran. They will remain here for a month or so and will visit the Seattle Fair before returning home.

Mrs. V. W. Mason has returned from a ten weeks' visit at her old home in Iowa. She thought there was no place like Iowa before she went East, but she is now more in love with St. Johns than ever before.

Geo. W. Simmons and wife spent Sunday with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Scotten at Battleground, Wash. George says things look pretty dry in that neighborhood, but the fishing there cannot be excelled anywhere.

A gang of men are busy removing the 50 pound rails on the O. R. & N. on Bradford street and replacing them with 75 pound rails in order to get in readiness for the passenger trains which will soon be skirting around the lower end of the Peninsula.

Mrs. Thos. Anderson has removed her building from Tacoma street to Catlin street. W. H. King says that it is the other buildings on this lot would catch the moving fever he would at once begin the construction of a modern two-story brick business block thereon.

Several Portland parties were in St. Johns the past week looking for a suitable location for a wagon factory. Overtures were made for the lease of a good sized structure here, and it is probable that satisfactory terms will be arranged between the two parties. If the new industry comes employment for quite a number of hands will be furnished.

Mrs. Sarah Kemp is quite ill at her home in this city.

Get your Sunday meat at Ward's market. Special prices Saturday.

The chickens' salvation—Hess' Instant Louse Killer. At St. Johns Pharmacy.

C. B. Young and family were called to Lewiston, Idaho, Monday by the serious illness of Mrs. Young.

The St. Johns Pharmacy is authorized to fill all prescriptions issued by the National Hospital Association.

D. N. Byerlee left Wednesday for Chicago where he will spend some time in the interest of the Portland Couapsible Box Co.

Frank Finn and family of Prosser, Wash., are visiting at the home of V. W. Mason this week. They are more than delighted with St. Johns and vicinity.

Street contractors should not overlook the large number of proposals for street work in this issue. Street improvement is right at its height in St. Johns just now.

R. W. Johns and family, who have been living on South Ivanhoe, have moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. Huff on the corner of Hudson and Dayton streets.

The St. Johns Fire department will be the guests of the Oregon City department next Sunday. A barbecue is on the program besides many other things that go to make a good time.

Rehearsals are now taking place for a home talent play to be put upon local boards in the next few weeks. It will be under the auspices of the Fraternal Brotherhood. More about it next week.

C. R. Thompson, one of the genial proprietors of the St. Johns Pharmacy, in company with his wife is taking in the interesting attractions at Seattle this week. They expect to remain for about ten days.

Harry Chorpensing and A. Boyd Kline, former Pennsylvania young men, were guests of the editor and family Wednesday. They have been taking in the Seattle fair and stopped off en route to California.

Another call for bids for the new high school building appears in this issue. The plans have been amended to such an extent that it is believed contractors will have no difficulty in coming within the sum on hand for the building of this structure.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Denton and daughter, Florence, of Rockland, Maine, arrived in St. Johns last week and for the present are residing at 214 Fessenden street. They intend buying acreage in this vicinity and making the West their permanent home.

By request of the council the city engineer will be in his office in the city hall from 8 to 9 a. m. each day for the purpose of explaining any street questions that parties interested may desire to obtain information upon. So if you have any kick coming hereafter don't kick at the recorder—kick the engineer.

No better meats were ever sold anywhere than can always be found at T. P. Ward's market. "Quality wins" is his motto and he lives right up to it. The prices are as low as good meat can be sold for and allow a living profit. If you want good meat go to Ward's, if not go somewhere else. Special prices on Saturday.

The K. L. C. E. of the Evangelical church gave a military party at the home of Wm. Edmonson Wednesday evening. The hats were trimmed by the male attendants and worn by the ladies. Some of the effects produced were marvelous, wondrous and amazing, and were the cause of much merriment. The K. L. C. E. orchestra furnished music for the occasion. About fifty were present and over $7 realized.

Another indication that St. Johns is right up to the hour is the fact that a simon pure, unadulterated, genuine article of the latest in the tonsorial line—a lady barber—has struck the city and now may be found at Mansfield & Kaemlein's barber emporium on North Jersey street. We presume that men who never shaved before will cast their hirsute adornments to the breeze and become daily habitués of this establishment, and that men who have been in the habit of shaving once or twice a week will now have it done daily and feel sorry that the fungus does not develop fast enough to justify two shaves per diem. Harry is trotting around like a young colt and all signs of advancing old age, rheumatic twinges and symptoms of other infirmities have been laid aside in a valorous attempt to appear as young and agile as the best of them. Adam may rest content in the fact that business will be well taken care of during his vacation and the patrons will forgive him if he stays a week or two longer than he anticipated.

Arnold Unger and family have moved into their new home recently purchased from R. W. McGeon on John street, and they feel very happy over the fact of now being under their own "vine and fig tree."

The Endeavor Society of the Christian church will give a lawn social on the handsome grounds of Recorder A. M. Esson's residence, 410 Maple street, Wednesday evening August 18th. Ice cream and accessory good things will be in evidence. So follow the crowd.

The local Lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood will hold an open meeting this evening. Invitation cards have been sent out by the committee in charge to friends of the members, and a large attendance is expected. Admittance will be by card of invitation only. The object of this open meeting is to awaken increased interest in the four-fold object of the organization's policy which is protection in the event of death, accident, total disability and old age.

A musical program is being prepared, after which refreshments will be served, to be followed by dancing. O. B. Read, state manager, will be present to deliver a short address. J. J. Banbury, one of the state organizers, has taken up his residence in the Calef building, opposite the postoffice, for a few weeks and will devote his time and efforts in the interest of the Lodge. A marked increase in the membership will likely result from the meeting tonight.
