Easy Shine Shoe Polish—nothing better.

Everything in the line of reading matter at the St. Johns Pharmacy.

The city was almost deserted as a result of Ringling Bros' circus being in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. M. Ford and daughter have moved from this city to 1653 Portsmouth avenue, Portsmouth.

Mrs. L. H. Chambers has returned from Ocean Park where she spent several weeks very pleasantly.

Rev. Allen Hickey, lately of North Yakima, Wash., is spending a couple of weeks with his daughter, Mrs. D. N. Byerlee, of this city.

Walter Todd, a pleasant young gentleman from Ithaca, Mich., is spending a few days with his old time friend, S. H. Satterlee, this week.

C. Sagert has once more resumed the drying business after a layoff of several months occasioned by a long and severe siege of typhoid fever.

David Horsman of Pleasantville, Iowa, is a guest of his cousin, D. J. Horsman, this week. The two expect to leave Saturday for a visit to the Seattle exposition.

The McChesney block is being treated to a fine red coat of paint this week, and as a result that substantial building is presenting a much more attractive appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Buseick and son Reid, formerly of St. Johns, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Day the past two weeks, have returned to their home in Hamilton, Oregon.

Leroy H. Smith, of the Smith-Wagoner Co., has moved his family from St. Johns, to Multnomah Acres, on the Oregon Electric line, where they will spend three or four weeks for an outing.

It was simply surprising the number of people who had urgent business calling them to Portland Tuesday afternoon. Of course while they were there they decided to take in the circus before returning.

Mrs. Foss and Mrs. E. E. Olstrum of Hancock, Wis., mother and sister of Charles and George Foss of St. Johns, are here on an extended visit. Mrs. Foss intends to make her permanent home with her sons in this city.

The St. Johns ball team will journey to Eugene on Sept. 19th, when and where they will play a game with the strong aggregation of that enterprising city. Quite a following of local sports is expected to accompany the team.

Mrs. Dunn of Wichita, Texas, is a guest of her son, R. M. of Bonham & Currier's delivery force, this week. This is the first time Mrs. Dunn has seen her son for ten years, and the meeting was a most pleasing one for the two.

E. C. Hurlbert and wife and C. N. Bransch and wife have returned from an extended sojourn at Collins Springs. It is reported that E. C. purchased 50 acres of land in that vicinity while there, and if this is true it is likely he will have a few springs of his own hereafter.

Gospel meetings are now being held at the Christian church in this city. Ernest C. Wigmore, professor of Hebrew at the Eugene Bible University, has charge of the services. The meetings are very interesting and many vital questions are discussed. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Progress on the laying of gas mains from the Portland Gas works to St. Johns is coming along in fine shape. Northern Hill was reached last week and the lines are rapidly being extended to the heart of the business district. It is only a question of a couple of months until many residents will be using gas in St. Johns.

The lady barber who has been operating in St. Johns, to show that she is not at all partial, transferred her services from Mansfield & Ksamer's shop to that of S. H. Satterlee on Saturday last. She was an object of great curiosity on the part of the feminine gender that passed that way. Apparently, she is well versed in her profession.

Many of our citizens became somewhat exercised over the report that was current upon the streets Tuesday morning to the effect that the supreme court had handed down a decision in the Cochran case in favor of wet. Investigation, however, dispelled the rumor. One of our citizens called up the clerk of the court and inquired as to the correctness of the street gossip. It was informed that no decision in this case had yet been arrived at, and the information was volunteered that no decisions were made public except on Tuesday of each week.

Easy Shine—the ladies shoe polish—at your dealers.

Fred Peterson, of Idaho, is a guest at the home of P. H. Edliefson at present.

"Nothing but the best" is still Bitgood & Cole's motto in their new market on North Jersey.

Mrs. C. A. Wood and son, William, have been spending the past couple of weeks at Tokeland, Wash.

Mrs. A. M. Eason returned Monday from a pleasant visit among her old friends in Derrle, Polk county.

B. T. Leggett left Saturday for another visitation at Ocean Park. He will remain there for several days.

Mrs. George H. Lynn of Hood River is a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. N. Byerlee, this week.

Two large vessels are busy discharging ballast at the Columbia Steel Co.'s landing on the west side this week.

Rev. C. P. Gatos has returned from Adna, Wash., where he had been conducting a successful tent meeting for ten days.

W. E. Swengel has presented the office with a fine specimen of Winter Banana apple which was grown upon one of his trees.

C. Stockton and wife of Greeley, Col., the former an uncle of Ed. L. Stockton, are visiting him and his mother, Mrs. Jennie Nelson.

We have an extra special inducement to offer on the first phonograph sale we make this week. Drop in and we will tell you about it. St. Johns Pharmacy.

Present status of the city dock situation: The Northwest Warehouse Co. has asked for an abstract up-to-date and declare they are as anxious as ever to purchase the dock.

The Christian Scientists have opened up a reading room in the Holbrook building which will be open from 2 to 4 p. m. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week.

The woolen mill club will play a game of ball on the local grounds on the 29th. Their opponents will be the Moyer Clothing Co. club of Portland and a nifty game may be looked for.

E. C. Monnich has purchased lot 26 in Sheltered Nook, a tract put on the market by the Smith-Wagoner Co., and intends to make the same his home in the near future. The lot contains five acres and sold for $550.

Mary E. Nickum has purchased lots 5 and 6 in Happy Day Addition, a new addition just placed on the market by Smith-Wagoner Co., 333 Chamber of Commerce. Joseph Voltas has also purchased lots 7 and 8 in the same addition, and Mrs. A. Welch has purchased lots 1 and 2. All of the above parties are from Portland.

No better meats were ever sold anywhere than can always be found at T. P. Ward's market. "Quality wins" is his motto and he lives right up to it. The prices are as low as good meat can be sold for and allow a living profit. If you want good meat go to Ward's, if not go somewhere else. Special prices on Saturday.

The concrete sidewalks and grade of West Richmond street leading to the river present a pleasing appearance to parties passing St. Johns on the water. When more streets leading to the Willamette have been improved the effect will be still more attractive and will give the city a metropolitan air to passengers on the river craft.

J. N. Davis of Wahoo, Neb., is a guest at the home of his brother, J. W. Davis, of this city. He was here four years ago and at that time could see no good in St. Johns. A radical change of heart has now taken place, however, and he is anxious to become the possessor of a goodly slice of our realty. A daughter and a niece accompanied Mr. Davis to this city.

The German Evangelical Lutheran Synod has bought four lots at the corner of Midway and Olympia streets in East St. Johns, where they expect in the near future to erect a school, a church and a parsonage. East St. Johns, with its close proximity to the Swift packing plant, is rapidly forging ahead and will no doubt develop more rapidly than any other portion of the city.

During a recent severe thunder storm a mother put her little boy to bed up stairs. The little chap wanted to stay below with papa as he was afraid of the thunder, but his mother assured him that he was safe for God was with him. Mother went down stairs and soon a terrific crash came when she heard her boy calling "Mama, Mama!" She went to the stair door and asked him what he wanted. The answer came quick: "Mama, you come up here and stay with God; I want to come down where papa is."—Kersey Enterprise.

More new stuff in the post card line this week at the St. Johns Pharmacy.

H. F. Clark this week disposed of his confectionary store to a Mr. Bailey of Kalama, Wash.

Geo. Bradley has sold his Electric Theatre in this city and will retire to his ranch in Washington state.

Mrs. Geo. Hall and son Verne are mingling with the sea breezes at Columbia Beach. Verne will likely have some great stories to relate when he returns home.

The finest line of fresh fruits of all kinds that has ever come to St. Johns may now be found at Frank Clark's. Parties desiring anything in this line should make the store a call.

Don't fail to inscribe your name and address in E. O. Magoon's directory book. It may be of benefit to you and is quite an accommodation on the part of Mr. Magoon.

It should be thoroughly impressed upon the minds of our citizens that simple disinfection and fumigation will, to a great extent, prevent contagious diseases. Depree's Fumigators accomplish this best. At St. Johns Pharmacy.

S. J. Palmer has departed for his Denver home after a pleasant visit with D. J. Horsman. Mr. Palmer holds the position of Etymologist and Forester at Denver and has entire charge of the shrubbery and flowers on city property. He is well versed in the care and culture of flowers, shrubbery, plants, etc., and is well up in political circles in the city of Denver. Mr. Palmer is a pleasant, genial gentleman, and while he likes St. Johns first rate, he has not yet been convinced that it excels Colorado.

THE OPENING OF SCHOOL

We admire that boy or girl who looks forward with pleasure to the opening of school. He has found his place in life to a large extent.

But that same occasion must remind the parents that there are things needed for that boy or girl's comfort during school life.

Our part is to do our best to supply the substantial, comfortable, long wearing shoes and stockings that they will require. We have received and have on the way 57 cases of shoes. Our past experience has taught us how to buy for St. Johns and we know out of these shoes we can take the best of care of your boy or girl.

If you have never used the Wunderhose you do not realize what a saving in darning they are. We have a new shipment of these aggregating $150.00.

Besides having the goods we will take a sincere interest in your boy or girl and that isn't what you get in all stores, particularly in the large city stores. If you need the force of good will toward your children we assure you it will be found at our store every day.
