Local News.

The pesky fly has begun to seek its winter quarters.

Now is the time to order your Thanksgiving turkey.

W. A. Bennett made a business trip to Ranier one day last week.

A doll given free with every $2 purchase Saturday at the VOGUE.

The business houses of the city all report business flourishing and getting better right along.

The brick work on Wolcott's new building on South Jersey street is rapidly being laid.

The "frost was on the pumpkin" and a few other things several mornings the past week.

L. H. Campbell left last week for several weeks at Spangle, Wash. where he has business interests.

E. O. Magoon is having the front of his cigar store enclosed in order to keep out winter's chilling blast.

"Daddy" Maples has been quite ill for the past couple of weeks, and is little if any improved at this writing.

Miss Violet Smith, who has been visiting her brother Leroy H., has returned to her home in Clinton, Whidly Island.

The new high school building under progress of construction on Philadelphia and Hayes streets is coming along at a rapid gate.

Miss Jennie Rice has returned to her home at Dilley, Ore., after spending several days very pleasantly in St. Johns the past week.

The St. Johns cleaning and pressing establishment is now located on Burlington street in the room formerly occupied by the Home Bakery.

W. R. Evens of the St. Johns Hardware store, has become a resident of St. Johns, having taken up his residence on Portland Boulevard.

The four double gas arc lights placed around the Hollbrook block has illuminated the exterior and immediate surroundings in splendid style.

Smith-Wagoner Co., sold last week to L. H. Campbell of St. Johns, a 100x100 in North Portland warehouse district. The purchase price was $4500.

The revival meetings at the Baptist church, which had been conducted by Evangelist E. A. Smith, were brought to a close Sunday evening. The series were well attended and were fairly successful throughout.

L. H. Campbell and mother are visiting relatives in Pullman and in Spangle, Wash., where Mr. Campbell will look after business interests before returning. They expect to be back in St. Johns again in a few weeks.

Homer N. Clark, formerly the second-hand dealer in our town, is now running a grocery store on the corner of Corbett and Whittaker streets, South Portland, where he has a nice place and fine business.

The Commercial club held an interesting session Wednesday evening. The ladies present helped to make the meeting more enjoyable. The object of the ladies in attendance was to organize a sort of auxiliary to the club, and in this manner arouse more interest in the organization. Plans were outlined for some interesting events which will be announced later.

E. C. Clodfelter, of Portland, purchased during the past two weeks, lots 2, 3, 13, 14 and 15 of Multnomah Acres and lots 4 and 5 of the same tract were purchased by E. Gross, also of Portland. These sales leave but one 5-acre tract unsold in Multnomah acres that was placed on sale in June of this year. The entire tract was handled by the Smith-Wagoner Co.

The Raymond House on the corner of Jersey and Leavitt, which has been run for the past three years by Mrs. Minnie Plattner, has recently been sold to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Fletcher, who have already taken charge of the house and report that all their rooms are now filled. Mrs. Plattner has moved into the house just north of the feed store, where she intends remaining for a short time during Mr. Plattner's absence in Denver, where he has gone to look after business interests.

Gas Appliances Arrived.

Those who have been patiently awaiting the arrival of the Gas Mains and have longed to put in Gas for Lighting and Cooking on account of its convenience and cheapness, will be glad to learn that the HENDRICKS HARDWARE CO., have installed a complete line of Gas Appliances for their patrons.

None can question the fact that Gas for Cooking is cheaper than wood and far more convenient, and this blessing is an attainment now available by the housewives of St. Johns.

We notice the nice display window in which they exhibit "Jewel" Gas Ranges, Gas Fixtures etc., and we feel sure that the people of this City will be glad to be able to go to a reputable locally established firm for their Gas Burners and fixtures.

Mr. York will represent them in giving estimates on house piping, installing fixtures and the like, and orders given Mr. York will be executed by the HENDRICKS HARDWARE CO., in a thorough manner.

To say that the HENDRICKS HARDWARE CO., is handling the "Jewel" Gas Range is in itself a feature, as this well-known Gas Range has been the leader both for economy and durability for years throughout America.

Call up Richmond 936 for information about gas.

Too Much Turkey

And pumpkin pie might spoil the remainder of the day for you but for our aid. Better lay in a supply of our digestive Nyal's tablets and pain tablets in case of emergencies.

The drugs in our remedies

Are all as pure as it is possible to get them. The remedies themselves are of proven merit. Taken at once, if there should be trouble, they will relieve immediately and prevent serious complications.

A PROPOSITION THAT NONE CAN AFFORD TO PASS UP

It is a new Lice and Mite Killer, a Naptha Nest Egg to prevent and kill chicken lice. They are 50c a package, and with each package we give you free a wall cabinet, size 1 1/2 feet by 2 feet, a mirror front, and it is a very beautiful and useful piece of furniture—a good addition to any kitchen. The eggs and cabinet can be seen in our window.
