Ten per cent discount will be allowed by Dr. Vinson Scott on all dental work done during the month of December.

Mr. and Mrs. Braasch left this week for Chicago and other points in the east. They expect to be gone for about one year.

Bradford street was also leased to the company until April 15th for a consideration of $1.00, subject to the same provision as Burlington street.

Start now to save money. Christmas comes in three weeks. Put it in the bank. The First National Bank tells how with Time Certificates of Deposit.

This seems to be a season of improvement in St. Johns, and almost any direction one cares to look alterations and improvements to business houses and residences are very much in evidence.

Mrs. Brown, the best scalp massage specialist on the Pacific coast, will give a talk on scalp treatment at the Congregational church Dec. 8th at 3 p. m. All are invited to come and hear Mrs. Brown.

The business men of St. Johns should not complain of the slow car service between this city and Portland. If it would require half a day to make the trip it would be all the better for the business interests here.

E. O. Lindboe of Aberdeen, So. Dakota, has purchased the residence of ex-Councilman F. P. Brown on Gilbert street, and will take possession of same in a few days. S. L. Dobic consummated the deal.

F. H. Collins has disposed of his interest in the St. Johns Cleaning, Pressing and Dyeing works to his partner, Gwen Manning, who will continue to conduct the business. Mr. Collins will likely locate in the city of Portland.

A new door has been placed in the basement of the city hall on the Philadelphia side. This will prove a great convenience in jailing prisoners, as heretofore it was necessary to take them through the hallway and down a precarious flight of stairs.

The room formerly occupied by The Louvre at the corner of Tacoma and Jersey streets and which has been vacant for the past year, is being remodeled and a new front being put in. It will be occupied when completed by Gus Salmond as a furniture store.

The annual summer session of the University of Oregon will be held this coming summer from June 29 to August 10 inclusive, a six weeks term. The attendance last summer reached nearly 100, most of whom were Oregon teachers, and indications point to a much larger attendance for next summer.

W. L. Marble, head machinist at the large mills of Stanley-Smith at Greenpoint, Hood River valley, and P. S. Bannon, assistant, spent several days at the home of the editor the past week. They left Monday for White Salmon valley, where they will spend some time on a ranch owned by the former.

The St. Johns Lumber Co. on Monday began running a night force of about 150 men. This means quite a help for the business men of the city as many thousands of dollars additional will be placed in circulation. It would be a good thing for St. Johns if it had several other institutions of the magnitude of the St. Johns Lumber Co.'s mills.
