Local News.

Merry Christmas to all.

The children will certainly be happy tomorrow, when the long-looked for day will be here.

Mrs. Pliny Sheperdson and two children of Castle Rock, Wash., spent several days at the home of E. S. Wright on South Hayes St. this week.

Miss Isabel Esson, who has been assisting her brother, Recorder A. M. Esson with the clerical work at the city hall, spent Sunday at her home in Gervais.

The price of wood almost makes one shudder as he contemplates the rapidly depleting stock in the wood shed. Now if we only had that high bridge to Whitwood Court—but what's the use?

Miss Stella Camping returned home for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Camping, last Saturday evening. She has been attending Normal School at Los Angeles, Cal., and will return to her studies after the holidays.

Bonville's magazine will resume publication next month and come out in a much larger and improved form. Those who have subscribed for same through the Review may look for it about the 10 of January, from which date their subscriptions will commence.

H. Ettenger of Marshfield, Ore., was a pleasant caller at the Review office last Saturday. Mr. Ettenger was a former resident of St. Johns and expects to soon return here to reside. He is the owner of some desirable St. Johns property which he purchased seven years ago.

O. C. Cooper, a prominent citizen of Hamilton, Mont., and also chairman of the board of commissioners for that county, is spending the holidays with his family here. Mr. Cooper and Mayor J. F. Hendricks were associated together in business in Montana for a number of years.

Wishes You

A Merry Christmas

A Christmas entertainment and tree laden with good things will be in evidence at the Baptist church this evening. The Sunday school has the affair in charge, and it is a foregone conclusion that a most enjoyable occasion will be afforded. All are invited to be present.

W. H. Hamilton received a request this week from the county clerk of Boone county, Nebraska, for his photo. The clerk stated that he was endeavoring to get a photo of all the former county commissioners of that county in order to have them grouped for hanging up on the wall. Mr. Hamilton was county commissioner there about thirty years ago, and was also sheriff and deputy sheriff of the same county at different times.

C. W. Stamp and wife, General Conference Evangelist of the Free Methodist church, and B. H. Alberts, District Elder in the Washington Conference, are expected to hold a revival meeting at the Free Methodist church of St. Johns, corner of Hudson and Richmond Sts., commencing about Jan. 1st and will close these meetings with the dedication of their new church. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

The boys' debating club of the high school has elected officers for the ensuing term as follows: President, Howard Brice; vice-president, Khusu Anderson; secretary and treasurer, Theodore Bugbee. At the last regular meeting held Friday night two new members were voted into the club; parliamentary drill was engaged in most of the evening as no debates have been scheduled for until the first Friday in January. The club is under the supervision of Prof. Wollenhaup, who has had several years experience with similar organizations.—Club Reporter

MERRY CHRISTMAS! The First National Bank wishes to every man and woman in all of this great Inland Empire country a Merry, Merry Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year. To those who know this bank, to those who have come into intimate relationship with us and whom we know as friends and most useful and helpful friends we extend greeting. Merry Christmas and a Happy Prosperous New Year.

Apprentices wanted at the Vogue Millinery.

A. L. Miner has returned from an extended trip to Chicago, New York and Eastern cities.

The little son of Sherman Cochran who has been quite ill with pneumonia is now improving rapidly.

Thos. Condon has returned to St. Johns and will, we understand, again assume charge of the Central Hotel.

Superintendent P. H. Edlefsen of the St. Johns Water Co., has presented each of his employes with a 12-pound goose as a Christmas gift.

The St. Johns laundry and H. Henderson of the Peninsula Title, Abstract & Realty Co. have each presented the Review with very handsome calendars for the coming year.

Married—At the home of the bride's parents, 414 Lively street, Sunday, Dec. 19, by Rev. C. P. Gates, Ralph Confer of Kalama, Wash., and Miss Maud Trumbo of St. Johns.

The Vancouver Athletic Club will play a game of basket ball at the skating rink next Wednesday evening. They will have for their opponents the Firemen's Athletic club of this city. A lively game is promised.

The funeral services over the remains of the young son of A. L. Harrison, formerly of St. Johns but now residing near Hillsboro, was held in the Evangelical church Tuesday afternoon. The death of the little boy is an unusually sad one, as it resulted from being accidentally shot by an older brother.

A late report from M. L. Loy, who is now in the oil fields of Eastern Oregon, states that stock of the Eastern Oregon Oil & Gas Co. has been selling at Boise, Idaho, for 50 cents a share. Mr. Loy has sold large blocks of stock to parties who have visited the field, and he is very enthusiastic over the outlook for a huge volume of oil. Stock in St. Johns has been selling at a rapid rate, and if the sales continue nearly every one in the city will possess a bunch of this desirable stock.

You will have money to buy Christmas presents with if you save. You spend the interest it earns and have your money left. The First National Bank will explain this. 3 per cent.

At the Congregational church, corner Ivanhoe and Richmond streets, the annual Christmas tree, with a good program by the children, will be given Friday, Dec. 24 at 7 p. m. Gifts may be put on the tree by the public. All the regular services will be held next Lord's Day. A seat and welcome for all. G. W. Nelson, pastor.

At the M. E. church the Sunday services are as follows: Sunday school 10 a. m., subject, Birth of Christ. Public worship, 11 a. m., Christmas sermon. Junior league, 3 p. m. Epworth League, 6:30 p. m., topic, The Coming of the Redeemer. Evening service, 7:30. This will be an evangelistic service. Special evangelistic meetings will begin at the M. E. church Sunday evening, Jan. 2nd. A very cordial welcome is extended to the public to all the services. Rev. Frank Sandifur, pastor.

The Woodmen of the World initiated a large class of candidates for membership at their meeting Wednesday evening. A big attendance was present and the work was carried through in a most pleasing manner. A number of prominent Woodmen from Portland were present, among whom were Chief of Police Cox and Deputy Sheriff Bird, who very ably assisted in the work. After the initiatory ceremonies were concluded some fine and amusing addresses were made by various members. Refreshments of an appetizing nature were served, and a most enjoyable season of mirth and good fellowship ensued.

The First National Bank buys Christmas presents for its depositors who have saved enough during the past year. The bank will explain to every one who asks free of all cost. They pay 3 per cent and compound interest every six months.
