Local News.

We are from Iowa. Where are you from? Bonham & Currier.

L. E. Brouwer of Newberg spent Sunday at the home of his old friend, Councilman J. E. Hiller.

Remember the basket ball and dance in the skating rink tonight. It will be well worth attending. Go.

A young daughter came to glad- den the home of C. E. Royer, 317 West Polk street, Saturday, Jan. 8.

Gov. J. H. Fletcher has been suffering from a severe attack of the grippe for the past couple of weeks, but is somewhat improved at this writing.

Lessons of thrift cannot begin too soon. Thus early in the year you OUGHT to make up your mind to save. The First National Bank pays three per cent and issues Time Certificates of Deposit.

The members of the Thimble Club were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Knudson last Thursday. The next meeting of the Club will be at the home of Mrs. John Keeler, 614 Stewart street.

The young people's societies of the M. E., Baptist and Christian churches will meet at the latter church Sunday evening at 6:30 in union service. The object is to get better acquainted and effect a harmonious association of the whole in order that better and more effective results may be obtained.

The Artisans are keeping up their reputation for popularity. Last Tuesday evening they enjoyed a season of feasting and games after their regular work. Next Tuesday evening they will have initiation. New members are coming in at every session. They are a jolly bunch.

At the annual meeting of the Collapsible Box Co., January 10th, the management passed into the hands of H. R. Reynolds with C. A. Mayo as secretary. The business will be carried on along progressive lines and will be pushed right to the front. The new president and secretary have lately become residents of St. Johns.

Couch & Co. have enlarged their ad. They have realized for some time that advertising paid, and decided if a small ad was a paying proposition, a larger one should prove proportionately so. Their business has been steadily increasing, each month showing a decided increase over the previous month. Careful business methods, fair and courteous treatment, and choice and fresh stock have brought this about.

Mrs. C. V. Faulkner was the lucky one to win the prize of a bookcase filled with fine volumes, which has been on exhibition at Bonham & Currier's dry goods department for the past couple of months. Her guess of 1357 pages was exactly correct. There were several other correct guesses, but they were dated later than Mrs. Faulkner's. The contest was interesting throughout and the guesses were legion.

Farmer's Week at the Oregon Agricultural College will commence Monday, February 14. The activities will be conducted in institute form and will cover all branches of agriculture, horticulture, dairying, and domestic science and art. Any one who is interested in the practical problems of farming, fruit growing and housekeeping and the new and improved methods which may be used in their solution, will do well to attend the exercises of the Farmer's week.

Calef Bros. are now putting the embellishments upon one of the finest, neatest and most commodious furniture stores to be found outside the large cities. Now occupying the entire lower floor of the Gee Wo building, opposite the postoffice, with the finest line of furniture and house fixtures ever brought to St. Johns, they are in a position to serve the public in the best possible manner. An inspection of their goods and prices will readily convince any one that it would be the height of foolishness to go to Portland to buy with the expectation of doing better than they can in St. Johns. This city should be proud of the fact that such an enterprising firm has located here. They deserve and are getting an ever increasing patronage. Consistent advertisers, they find it pays to keep their name and business ever before the public, and anything that appears in their ads. may be relied upon to be just as it is represented. If you need anything in the house furnishing line, go to Calef's, and you will be treated right in every respect.

If you are looking for good books cheap, go to Salmund Bros. second hand department.

Post cards of every kind and description at the St. Johns Pharmacy.

Your home store needs your business. You need the home store. Bonham & Currier.

Walter Gellert of Los Angeles was a guest at the home of Geo. H. Camping for several days the past week.

Mrs. C. H. Owen is having a neat little residence constructed on Kellogg street, at the rear of the McClesney block.

Mrs. D. G. Busby and Miss Brown have opened up scalp treating parlors at Miss Brown's house, corner of Charleston and Gresham streets. 4tp.

The cold weather of the past few weeks has seriously retarded progress on the new high school building, as well as other buildings now under construction in the city.

Business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the Baptist church Monday, Jan. 16, at 2:30 P. M. Special business. All members urged to be present.

Spending is losing. The spent dollar is the lost dollar. Put it in the First National Bank for safety. It issues Time Certificates of Deposit. 1t

A son of Capt. F. E. Smith broke his arm in two places while at work on the Sacajawea the first of the week. We have been unable to learn the full particulars.

The Firemen's Athletic club will give a dance and basket ball game tonight. The Y. M. C. A. club of Portland will be their opponents and a lively and interesting contest is promised. Dancing immediately after the game. Both for the price of one admission.

The United Railways Co. objects very much to making a five-cent fare from Linton to Portland, and one of their representatives claims that rather than do that they will tear up their tracks and replace them upon a private right of way. If this is done the fare from Linton will likely be 15 cents.

The school board has placed a handsome monument over the grave of the founder of this city, James John. It cost in the neighborhood of $500 and is a fine one. The board deserves to be commended for paying this tribute of respect to one who has done so much for education in St. Johns. The members of the board visited the cemetery yesterday afternoon and inspected the new monument. They found it entirely satisfactory in every way. A description of this monument will be given in a later issue.

C. B. Haywood, an employee of the American Type Founders' Co., was seriously injured Wednesday afternoon while adjusting a foot-power press in the office of The Living Issue in the basement of the Baptist church. Haywood's right hand was caught between the press rollers and badly crushed. The injured man was removed to the Good Samaritan Hospital and an operation performed by Dr. Rybke. Unless complications ensue Haywood will not be incapacitated for any length of time.

Postmaster Valentine presided at a meeting of the Tri-City league at Portland Wednesday evening. The organization will be stronger than ever the coming summer and some good ball may be looked for. Whether St. Johns will be represented or not is still a question. The razing of the ball grounds here has made the situation rather bad. We understand, however, that Francis I. McKenna has agreed to prepare suitable grounds just this side of Portsmouth if St. Johns will be represented this year. These grounds, which lie along the car track, should draw as large a crowd as if they were situated in the former location. Patronage would be attracted from University Park, Portsmouth, Portland and St. Johns. The proposition of Mr. McKenna is receiving serious consideration, and the probabilities are that St. Johns will be represented by a first class base ball club the coming season. Mr. McKenna has done more than any one man to develop the peninsula and this latest offer to provide grounds for the St. Johns club is in keeping with his well established public spiritedness.

WHY you should have an account with

The Peninsula Bank

"THE PIONEER BANK"

- Because It is a strong, careful, safe, liberal, prompt and successful institution.
- Because It has stockholders and a board of directors consisting of able and successful business men.
- Because Your account will be appreciated by the bank and your interest will always be carefully considered.
- Because It will assist the men who will promote business and help build up our city.
- Because It is under state supervision, inspection and control.
- Because It was established at a time when there was little promise of a profitable business, and has been a helping hand in developing our city.
