Local News.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Markle this morning, a son.

Mrs. R. Hutchinson has returned to St. Johns after an absence since August 2d at Duluth, Minn.

Mrs. Otis Learned was called to her former home at Skamawa on account of the serious illness of her father this week.

E. O. Magoon has purchased C. J. Miller's cigar stand adjoining the Review office and took possession the first of the week.

Hail the size of peas were quite a novelty on the streets Monday evening. January just showed us what she could do before she shuffled into history.

J. W. Davis has disposed of his fine residence on Tyler street to a Mrs. Barton for $2,600. The deal was made by S. J. Downey, the busy real estate man.

Mrs. Sullivan, wife of Frank Sullivan of the steamer Washington, was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital Monday, suffering from a severe attack of the grip.

Now is the time to work for St. Johns. The new year has opened with bright promises and it behooves us one and all to do what we can to aid in the city's progress.

After a month's confinement to his home with a severe attack of pneumonia, J. F. Gillmore, the well known realty man, is once more able to attend to his duties as of yore.

The basket ball game last Friday evening between the Jewish Boys' Brigade of Portland and the Firemen's Athletic club resulted in a victory for the locals, the score being 26 to 12.

Building permits for the month of January totalled more than three times as much as for January of last year. This shows that St. Johns is traveling at a pretty stiff rate just now.

The family of Ed. Rawson, the inventor who has an establishment at the corner of Richmond and Jersey streets, have arrived in St. Johns from Lewiston, Idaho, and have taken up their quarters in the French block.

Mrs. F. W. Valentine chaperoned a party of St. Johns girls to Washougal Saturday night where they witnessed the basket ball game between the club of that place and the Firemen's Athletic club of this city. All report a most enjoyable time.

Whether the groundhog saw his shadow Wednesday or not does not bother Oregon people very much, because that kind of an animal does not make this state his headquarters. There are plenty of hogs in the state but they do not travel under that title.

J. H. Crook, a former well known resident of St. Johns, was in town Tuesday. He states that Mrs. Crook is now in San Francisco on an extended visit and that he soon expects to follow suit. Upon their return he plans to once more become a resident of this city.

Mrs. Eva Racey and daughter Miss Pansy of Jefferson, Oregon, are guests at the home of their old friend, Mrs. B. S. Hoover, this week. The two visitors are in the millinery business, and are accepting the opportunity of spending a few days with their friend while laying in a stock of new spring goods at Portland.

The ferry will once more be in operation in a couple of days. Several needed repairs have been made and the boat is now in good condition to ply for another year across the Willamette. Its resumption will be welcomed by many who have occasion to cross the river from time to time.

Property owners in St. Johns who are desirous of having the street improved in front of their property this year should get busy and circulate a petition to this effect. If petitions are placed with council now they can be gotten in shape for action with the opening of spring.

The Odd Fellows at their regular meeting last week presented C. H. Thayer with a handsome past grand collar as a token of their esteem for him and for his long and faithful service in the order. He has filled every chair in the lodge honorably and well. At the meeting Monday night, after the business had been speedily transacted, the lodge in a body, repaired to Woodburn, in company with the Peninsula lodge. A splendid time was had there and a grand feast helped things along amazingly.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shay of Peoria, Ill., are visiting their son, D. H. Shay, 423 East Allegheny street, and also Mrs. Shay's brother, J. R. Kerr.

The Bachelors' Club announce a dance to be given February 17 and also March 17. Of course both occasions will be fully up to the high standard already established in the past.

The Uniform Rank of W. O. W. will give another one of their jolly good times in Bickner hall next Wednesday evening. Entertainment and refreshments. Admission free.

We have several houses for sale that we will accept a lot as first payment and let you pay balance monthly. If on the buy or trade, call us up or come and see us. McKinney & Davis.

Mrs. J. B. Campbell, formerly of St. Johns but now of Hillsboro, just returned home from Salem last Thursday, after being at the bedside of their son for four weeks, who was ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Ed. Stockton, who is sojourning at Los Angeles, Cal., for a few weeks, reports having a splendid time reveling in the sad sea waves and taking in the sights and scenes of that balmy clime.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church will give a 7-cent social on Feb. 7th at the church. After refreshments a short program will be rendered. A fishing pond and fortune telling will be a couple of the features. All invited.

The St. Johns Protective Association will hold its second open meeting in the Baptist church on Wednesday, Feb. 9. Clarence True Wilson will be the chief speaker. The Randall Glee Club will be here again to furnish songs. All welcome.

The Ladies Home Missionary Society will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Ludom, Feb. 11, and continue their study from the book, "From Darkness to Light," which was begun at the last meeting. This is intensely interesting as well as instructive, and a treat none should miss.

Friends of Mrs. D. L. Page from Hood River, Portland and St. Johns, gave her a very pleasant surprise Wednesday evening, the occasion being her fortieth birthday. Mrs. Page was the recipient of several valuable and useful presents. The company did full justice to the refreshments served by Mrs. D. H. Shay.

Many stiff necks were occasioned by "rubbering" for the comet in the heavens the past week or so. It was quite visible to a number of folks in St. Johns. If the scientists had not called attention to its presence it would never have been noticed. It was never very distinct, but with good eyesight and a strong imagination it was quite discernible.

A large representation of the property owners along Fessenden street met in the city hall last night and decided to pave that street with cement and lay concrete walks six feet wide its entire length from the east city limits to Bradford street, and to trestle it from there to the river. This will be the greatest improvement ever attempted in St. Johns and the property holders deserve the warmest praise for their enterprise and public-spiritedness. More concerning this great boost for St. Johns next week.

Noyes Babbitt has opened a stock of gents' furnishing goods in the Noce building, next to the post-office. Mr. Babbitt, it will be remembered, is one of the Willamette river bridge sand hogs who became paralyzed while at work, and was confined to the hospital for many months. In spite of the fact that he is badly crippled as a result of his terrible experience, he believes he is still capable of making a living for himself, and so has opened up a store in St. Johns as above stated. He fully deserves and we believe he will receive a generous share of the public patronage. He invites all to call in and inspect his goods and prices.

After defeating and accidentally injuring Kid Welch at the wrestling match in the rink Wednesday night, Strangler Smith very generously gave him back $26 of the side bet they had on the result, and a few of his friends chipped in and made up a neat little purse for the Kid, whose pluck was greatly admired by all. Mr. Smith took the defeated lad home with him on the early morning train and is now seeing that he gets the proper care. The intimation in one of the Portland papers that the patrons of the match were handed a "lemon" is without foundation and is resented by many of the club members. The statement that Mr. Welch was seen on the streets Thursday morning is also false.

Come in and see our new line of mattresses. Salmund Bros.

CHANGED HANDS!!

Having purchased the grocery stock, fixtures and good will of J. F. Hendricks on Burlington street, I solicit a continuance of the trade accorded the store in the past and invite the general public to visit my place of business and get acquainted with the prices and quality of goods I carry.

Being thoroughly familiar with the grocery business, I will at all times keep an uptodate stock of staple and fancy groceries, and if courtesy, fair dealing and honest treatment have any merit it will in all cases be accorded to all. Norwegian patronage especially solicited.
