Local News.

If hard up snow will relieve you.

W. B. Rogers of Hood River was a guest of D. N. Byerlee last Thursday.

Mrs. McKeon is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. H. G. Ogden, at Dayton, Oregon.

Dusty roads this early in February is quite pleasing. Good thing groundhogs do not thrive in Oregon.

Checks to the amount of over $22,000 were cashed by the banks and business men of St. Johns Saturday night. The pay roll in this city is getting to be something immense.

The Eagle dance held in the M. W. A. hall Saturday night was an unqualified success. The attendance was so large that the hall was taxed to its utmost capacity. Every one had a splendid time.

John F. Portz of Jamestown, N. D., made his brother, E. M. Portz of this city, a very pleasant visit last week. The brothers had not seen each other for ten years, and the meeting was a joyful one.

Building permits are being secured at the city hall at an amazing rate, twenty being taken out up to February 7th. For January the total amounted to $10,400, while January, 1909, showed only $2700.

The Peninsula bank has been giving some handsome mementos to its patrons in the shape of ornamental thermometers, which are both useful and decorative. The remembrances are highly appreciated by those who were lucky enough to secure one.

The contractors on the new high school have been given an extension of time for completion of same. The unusually severe winter during the past three months greatly interfered with progress, and it is likely that some of the work will have to be redone on account of the frost cracking some of the bricks.

Muck Mercantile Co. has come right to the front with an illustrated and very interesting series of ads. It will prove profitable to read them each week, because they are of interest to all who have provisions to buy. Their store carries a full and complete line of groceries and dry goods, and if you have never visited there yet you should do so without further delay.

One of the things badly needed in St. Johns is an up-to-date apartment house. There is a crying need for such a structure, and there is money in it for the man who supplies the want. A cemetery and undertaking establishment would also be welcome innovations, although the most of us would rather get along without them.

J. M. Van Ruren and wife of Port Angeles, Wash., are spending the week with their nephew, L. N. Bellinger, and family. They have been visiting a number of the eastern and southern cities, and stopped off on their way home to visit in St. Johns, which latter, by the way, is very pleasing to both of them.

F. M. Phillips' smiling visage was visible upon our streets last Thursday. He is engaged in the furniture business in Vancouver, Wash., where he is making a splendid success of the business. He has many warm friends in St. Johns, where he resided for a number of years, who are glad to learn that he is prospering so well in his new location.

We are willing to forgive the weather man for the many mean and disagreeable things we have said and thought about his work the past three months. The beautiful weather we have enjoyed since February made its appearance in compensation for what we have suffered. But if it is not out of place, we would ask for a continuance of the same for a few days more at least. P. S.—The above was written on Tuesday.

A letter received by the editor from C. W. Potter, formerly a well known and popular resident of this city, but now located in Medford, has the following to say: We (Mr. Gould's family and my own) are well and enjoying our out-of-door life and work very much. This is a great valley, and Medford is a wonderful city for one of its size. The four banks have aggregate deposits of nearly $2,000,000. There are more autos owned in and near Medford than in any city of its size in the country.

The man who rides his bicycle morning, noon and night can pay for a $3,500.00 home when he is fifty years old with the street car fare he saves. The First National Bank will explain this. It issues Time Certificates of Deposit. it

If you want a few dollars see Snow.

E. B. Russell of Portland has been added to the clerical force at the First National bank.

The Electric theatre will present an entertainment of special interest Sunday. Do not fail to see it.

Got $375. I can put you in a good home. Balance any reasonable terms. S. C. Cook, Cement Block, Jersey St.

The H. C. Roe and O. P. Wolcott buildings on Jersey street are practically completed and will be occupied in a few days.

A 500 party was held at the home of City Attorney H. E. Collier last evening. About 35 persons were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

The Buster Brown Shoe Sale is still on at Cobb's. If you haven't supplied your wants in this line, don't delay, for the Sale prices will only last a few more days.

Crossings have been placed by the street committee during the past week at Baltimore, Chicago and Tacoma streets, and the traveling public is now offering up thanks.

We have several houses for sale that we will accept a lot as first payment and let you pay balance monthly. If on the buy or trade, call us up or come and see us. McKinney & Davis.

The Portland hotel changed hands Tuesday, Norman Bros. of Spokane being the new proprietors. The price paid was in the neighborhood of one million dollars. Extensive improvements are planned by the new owners.

Prosperity is the result of prudently preparing for its coming. Prosperity never comes to those who are not prepared. The First National Bank will help YOU and prepare you for prosperity with Time Certificates of Deposit.

G. E. Moulton, who was injured at the St. Johns Lumber company's mill, and has been in St. Vincent hospital the past four and a half months, suffered the amputation of a limb below the knee two weeks ago. He is improving in health quite rapidly.

The United Artisans are carrying the war into Africa, or words to that effect. Last Monday night they initiated a nice little class of candidates. After the frisky goat had been exercised satisfactorily, they enjoyed a season of social games, a feed and general good time.

Hubert Simmons and Mrs. Mary Elliott were united in marriage last Thursday evening, and have taken up their residence in their handsome new home on Hayes street which Mr. Simmons recently purchased from Thos. Cochran. Both are well known here and have many friends who wish them many years of happily wedded life.

With cement streets on Fessenden street as proposed, it will be up to the property owners along Jersey, from Richmond to Fessenden, to go and do likewise. Burlington, Jersey to Hayes, and Philadelphia, Jersey to Hayes, should also become incultured with the same complaint. Hard surface streets have great attractive propensities for the stranger within our gates. Let the good work proceed.

M. E. Loy left last evening for the Malheur oil fields, where he will personally superintend operations now under way for the Eastern Oil & Gas Co. Methods will be adopted to extract the water from the well and ascertain the true quantity of the flow. Oil has been found, but the heavy weight of the water keeping it down prevents the exact capacity from becoming known.

A report was circulated during the past week that a three story brick hotel would be erected upon the corner of Hayes and Burlington street. Inquiry has developed the fact that there is little for credence in the report. The owner of the ground, who resides in Portsmouth, has given the matter some thought, but has not yet decided to erect the structure. We believe, however, that a modern and well appointed hotel would prove a good investment here right at the start, and it is bound to come in the no distant future.

The W. S. Lauthers Mercantile company is having the front of the building, formerly occupied by Thos. Cochran as a livery and feed barn on Burlington street torn away, to be replaced by a glass and corrugated iron business front. The interior is being remodeled and altered and placed in first class condition. We understand that the company will remove its stock from the Jersey street location to the new one as soon as the improvements are completed. The alterations will be a decided improvement for that part of Burlington street.

CHANGED HANDS!!

Having purchased the grocery stock, fixtures and good will of J. F. Hendricks on Burlington street, I solicit a continuance of the trade accorded the store in the past and invite the general public to visit my place of business and get acquainted with the prices and quality of goods I carry.

Being thoroughly familiar with the grocery business, I will at all times keep an up to date stock of staple and fancy groceries, and if courtesy, fair dealing and honest treatment have any merit it will in all cases be accorded to all. Norwegian patronage especially solicited.

A. B. LINDBOE

Successor to J. F. Hendricks
