

IT'S NOW UP TO YOU
To subscribe for THIS Paper...

ST. JOHNS REVIEW

GET IN THE HABIT
Of advertising in THIS Paper...

Devoted to the interests of the Peasants, the Manufacturing Center of the Northwest

VOL. 6

ST. JOHNS, OREGON, FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1910.

NO. 20

BIG DOINGS IN ST. JOHNS

Mob Chases Hindus from City in a Hurry

St. Johns was in a condition almost bordering on anarchy for a few minutes Monday evening. As a result several Hindu laborers were handled in a manner that was pretty rough and wholesale arrests were made.

the riot, the man indicated was at once placed under arrest. No protestation of innocence or proof of an alibi availed in freeing the suspects...

That the mob was woefully wrong in taking the radical steps they did is conceded by all. It was the very worst method that could possibly be adopted...

While the Hindus are an undesirable class of citizens by reason of their grotesque appearance and filthy condition, yet they are human beings and entitled to our protection...

It is, on the other hand, a far from pleasing sight to see these dark-skinned fellows, who will not conform to American customs, parading up and down the public thoroughfares...

As an instance of how some daily papers will garble, exaggerate and depart from the truth in order to make an article more sensational...

HIGH BRIDGE AT THIS PLACE

Is Deserving of Serious Consideration

The proposition of a high bridge at St. Johns should not be lost sight of these political days. The bridge is a necessity and would be of immense value to the city.

Candidates Galore

Three tickets are in the field for the April election, and three Independents have announced themselves. The Socialist ticket is the last one of these three to enter the race...

The Most Prosperous

A. L. Mills, president of Portland's biggest bank, evidently knows what he is talking about when he says the Pacific Northwest is the most prosperous section of the United States.

Many Men at Work

John F. Stevens, president of the Oregon Trunk railway, now under construction up the Deschutes to Central Oregon, says 5000 men are at work on the 109 miles now under construction...

Crops in Good Shape

Despite heavy weather of the past winter, inquiry into crop and stock conditions show that losses have not been so general as was feared.

Fielder Jones in Charge

Activity in spring athletics has commenced in real earnest at the Oregon Agricultural College. Fielder Jones, the famous ex-manager of the world's champion White Sox baseball team...

WHY I AM A CANDIDATE

For Office of Councilman of Second Ward

In explanation of my becoming an independent candidate for councilman from the second ward at this time, I will say that I do not seek the position for the honor or glory there is in it...

2d Hand Motors for Sale

One 3-hp General Electric, 60 cycle, 1800 R. P. M.; 220 volt, 3 phase induction motor. Price $50.75.

Library Entertainment

The citizens of University and Portsmouth are showing renewed interest in their free reading room and library.

Work is Progressing

The new high school building has taken on a new lease of life. A portion of the structure ruined by the severe winter weather has been removed...

The Pride of His Heart

Cambria, Wis., Mar. 18, 1910. Editor Review: I am a long distance patron of your paper. Will first thank you for getting each and every issue here so promptly...

The Price of Meat

Paradoxical as it may seem to the unenlightened, the increased price of meat unquestionably will be of very great advantage to the public.

BE A MAN! PAY THE PRICE.

Remember to vote for proposed charter amendment 202 if you want street work to progress without a hitch this year.

Declaration of Principles of the Citizens Ticket

I We demand a strict and impartial enforcement of the laws and ordinances of the city.

Almost Completed

Capt. F. E. Smith, whose steamer Sacajawea, was partially destroyed by fire several weeks ago, is having the same rebuilt and enlarged...

Building Permits

No. 43—To Geo. H. McKee to erect a kitchen in his residence on Gresham street between Burr and Alma; cost $200.

A FEW LOCAL BREVITIES

And Items of General Interest to the Public

Brown is in town. The ice plant is getting in shape to start up with a full force next week.

The perfume of burning rubbish is pervading the atmosphere with its odoriferous odor these days.

Cap Snow, like Samson of old, has gotten his hair cut, but he says his strength has not departed with the snowy locks.

P. J. Peterson has removed with his family from Portland to St. Johns, having traded residences with D. G. Busbee.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Trout was gladdened by the arrival of a bouncing boy baby early Monday morning.

Plans are being drawn for a brick building to be erected on the site formerly occupied by Hallberg's furniture store on Jersey street.

Holmes Lodge, Knights of Pythias, held a most enjoyable social session last Friday night.

We demand a strict and impartial enforcement of the laws and ordinances of the city.

We pledge ourselves to a safe, practicable and business-like administration.

We believe in strict economy in civic affairs.

We recommend permanent improvement of streets and walks, and of building an adequate sewer system...

We believe that the question of whether or not the council should issue liquor licenses should be left to the vote of the people.

California Bungalow, $175

Down, balance monthly payments same as rent, at only six per cent. Did you ever have a chance like this before to get a home of your own?