Remember, the Review will double its size next week. Before it is too late, better get in on the dollar a year subscription. By no manner of means can we get out an eight-page paper for less than $1.50 per year. It will cost us even more than that, so even at that price you will be getting a bargain.

Good streets is the best advertisement any city can have. Progress may be seriously impeded for some time to come unless proposed charter amendment 202 is carried at the election April 4th. Don't be a clog in the wheel of progress. Vote for this proposed amendment and help the city to be placed upon the same footing as Portland in regard to street improvement.

Miss Rosa Dickenson, niece of C. W. Bolen, died Saturday of last week at the residence of her uncle after a few days illness with the measles. The funeral was held at the cemetery at Troutdale, Rev. Gates delivering the address. The young lady's remains were buried by the side of her father Monday noon. The friends of this estimable young woman join us in sincere sympathy with the bereaved ones.
