The City Election

Wets Win Out with over Two Hundred Votes to the Good

The municipal election Tuesday was the most interesting in the city for a considerable time. The majority vote as recorded was 5 out of 100, and the sentiment of the people as a whole is one of approval. The defeated ones are of course disheartened and the street talk of the moment is of a protest character. In one or two cases there were 100 votes against the old and in one or two cases the old were preferred by a large majority. The heated excitement of the contest is past and the people are looking forward to the issues that will arise in the next election.

The maximum number of votes were cast on the question of the mayor, as this office is one of great importance. The other offices were filled by the old guard, but the mayor was voted into office by a large majority. The mayor is to be congratulated on his victory, and it is hoped that he will be able to carry out the wishes of the people in the coming year.

The mayor's speech was full of promise, and the people are looking forward to his administration. He promised to work hard and to bring about a better condition of affairs. The people are satisfied with his promise, and they are looking forward to the time when the city will be under his control.

The mayor's speech was full of promise, and the people are looking forward to his administration. He promised to work hard and to bring about a better condition of affairs. The people are satisfied with his promise, and they are looking forward to the time when the city will be under his control.

The mayor's speech was full of promise, and the people are looking forward to his administration. He promised to work hard and to bring about a better condition of affairs. The people are satisfied with his promise, and they are looking forward to the time when the city will be under his control.

The mayor's speech was full of promise, and the people are looking forward to his administration. He promised to work hard and to bring about a better condition of affairs. The people are satisfied with his promise, and they are looking forward to the time when the city will be under his control.

The mayor's speech was full of promise, and the people are looking forward to his administration. He promised to work hard and to bring about a better condition of affairs. The people are satisfied with his promise, and they are looking forward to the time when the city will be under his control.

The mayor's speech was full of promise, and the people are looking forward to his administration. He promised to work hard and to bring about a better condition of affairs. The people are satisfied with his promise, and they are looking forward to the time when the city will be under his control.