The new lineup of the city council is a splendid one, and they should make a record to be proud of. The opportunity for doing good things this year is abundant, and there is every reason to hope that nothing will be left undone that should be done.

The census enumerators are about ready to quiz the people in an endeavor to learn their pedigree. Some of the questions are of no value to the government or to any one else, but it is best to answer all as nearly correct as possible. A $100 fine may be imposed upon any one refusing to answer the questions as propounded.

An editorial last week in which we stated that one of our advertisers had cut his ad out because the paper did not take up the dry end of the recent issue seems now to be without proper foundation. We have had a heart to heart talk with the party in question and he assures us that he had no objection whatever to the course taken by the paper, but simply ordered his ad. out because the business at the present time did not justify its continuance, and that he expected to resume advertising in a short time. We had been told by pretty good parties that it was on account of the position the paper took that he ordered the ad out, so we believed a few remarks on the matter would not come amiss. However, we are perfectly willing to take the gentleman's word for it, since he says it is untrue.

FOR SALE.

Will receive bids for lot six (6) Block two (2) St. Johns Park Addition to St. Johns up to April 20th, 1910. John Bacon, New Albin, Iowa.

WANTED.—Bright young man to learn the printer's trade. Call at this office.

The above is a good likeness of J. E. Tanch, the late city treasurer, who gives way to W. Scott Kellogg. Mr. Tanch has made a most careful, faithful, painstaking and efficient city official, and his successor will have to "go some" to establish an equal record. Only a freak of the city charter, which prescribes that the treasurer cannot hold office for longer than two terms in succession prevented him from making a run for the office.

Editor: I regret to disturb you or cause you trouble, but I see a letter in the Review, purporting to be an answer to one I published in the Review two weeks ago. Now, all I have to say is this: Having practiced law for 40 years, I have found it necessary in order to win a case to present some facts, at least one fact, to support a proposition I made at law. Now, my friend, R. W. Johns, asserts that what I say is false and untrue, without giving a reason for it. Now, it is clear to my mind, that it is a weak minded man, or a shallow brained one that will make a statement, denying a statement of another without giving some proof in support of his delirious conclusion. I do not think it further necessary to reply to a large bundle of ignorance. B. L. Snow.

The mothers' meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union which was held at the home of Mrs. S. J. Donaldson, Monday afternoon, April 11, was well attended and a most interesting program was rendered. Mrs. Carey sang a most heart stirring song entitled "Backward, Turn Backward, Oh Time in Your Flight." This song was well worth the attention of any one. Mrs. Cole gave a reading, "Why worry," that was full of good cheer. There were so many good numbers on the program that if time and space would permit would be worth mentioning at this time. But for the benefit of those who missed all of these good things will say, do not forget to come to the next mothers' meeting. The announcement will appear in the Review later. Our superintendent of the mothers' meeting always has something good in store.

The lecture given by Mrs. Shepherd Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church was enjoyed by all present. Those who missed hearing Mrs. Shepherd missed a treat as she had so many encouraging things to tell us. One thing that she said that is worth note is although St. Johns was defeated, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union never knew what it was to be defeated, they keep going. These defeats the people talk so much about only help give the temperance workers more vim and fighting qualities and more determined to work for Oregon dry in November, 1910, that will mean St. Johns dry.

Mrs. Scott, President of St. Johns Union, had a surprise for us. She introduced Mrs. Mallet, County President, who took charge of the meeting. Mrs. Mallet's helpful words of cheer and encouragement were much appreciated by all interested in Oregon dry.

At the close of the lecture a good offering was taken to go to help put Oregon dry. Several new members came into the Union to help in the great campaign.—Press Cor.

Charles Bredeson has been succeeded as chief of police by R. McKinney, as per the mayor's appointment Tuesday evening. Mr. Bredeson has made a capable officer, and if the city of St. Johns ever had a better chief of police than he, it has never come to our knowledge. Straight-forward, scrupulously honest, entirely fearless and faithful, he has ever conducted the affairs of the office in a commendable manner. While, naturally, he may have made some enemies in the performance of his duties, yet he has many warm friends and he retires to private life with their very best wishes for his future welfare. The new chief will no doubt measure up fully to the expectations of our citizens. He is so well known to our people, having been on the police force for the past couple of years, that any comment is unnecessary. Robert Johnson, the new day patrolman, is a thorough gentleman and is well fitted in every way to discharge the duties of his new office.

The Philo Christo entertainment in Bickner hall last Tuesday evening was a decided success. A large crowd was in attendance and everything passed off in a most pleasing manner. The participants acquitted themselves exceedingly well in each instance, and plenty of evidence was shown that there is some very good dramatic ability in St. Johns. The audience highly enjoyed the entertainment and are anxiously awaiting the time when another one shall be placed on the boards by the Philo Christos.

A millright named Welsh at the St. Johns Lumber mills was arrested yesterday on the charge of throwing nails at a couple of Hindus from the new water tower that is under way of construction there. The evidence showed, however, that the man had no nails to throw and was not in a position to throw them if they were in his possession, so Judge Eason very rightfully dismissed the case. The Hindus seem to be getting very "touchy" and it is difficult to say whether it will be safe to even look crosswise at them after awhile. It seems to us if a man on a tower 60 feet above the ground threw nails at us and there was a few stones handy we could get enough satisfaction without arresting the man.

Upon examination for verification of the tally sheets of the election officers at the city hall, all were found to be correct with the exception of that of the vote in the First Ward of O. E. Learned for Councilman at Large. It was found that a mistake had been made in this instance of 100 votes placed to Mr. Learned's credit in excess of what he had really received, and which were never cast. The mistake without doubt was unintentional and was so obvious that it was readily discovered when the sheets were being verified.

Property is selling at Whitwood Court at a merry rate. An excellent reservoir is being constructed which will be sufficient to supply every lot on the side hill with water, and it is of the sparkling spring order. The time is not far distant when Whitwood property will be sought as a resident site by many of the wealthy men of Portland on account of its admirable view and splendid water.

HOME CURE FOR ECZEMA

Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, Glycerine, Etc. Used as a Simple Wash.

It really seems strange that so many people suffer year in and year out with eczema, when it is now no longer a secret that oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol, glycerine, etc., makes a wash that is bound to cure.

Old, obstinate cases, it is true, cannot be cured in a few days, but there is absolutely no sufferer from eczema who ever used this simple wash and did not find immediately that wonderfully soothing, calm, cool sensation that comes when the itch is taken away. Instantly upon applying a few drops of the wash the remedy takes effect, the itch is always, there is no need of experiment—the patient knows at once.

Instead of trying to compound the oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., in the right proportions ourselves we are using a preparation which is universally found the most effective. It is known as the D. D. D. Prescription, or Oil of Wintergreen Compound. It is made by the D. D. D. Co. of Chicago, and our long experience with this remedy has given us great confidence in its merits.
