I. Hoagland, formerly proprietor of a novelty store in this city, is now located at Scio, Oregon.

A. C. Gesler is having a modern and prettily designed residence erected on Chicago street, to cost $2700.

The Bachelors' club will give a dancing party in the skating rink tomorrow evening, and the usual good time is promised.

Gus Johnson is having the building he recently removed from Tacoma street to Ivanhoe refitted and remodeled. It will be used as a store building, as heretofore.

C. J. Miller is now located at Clackamas, Oregon. He was a well known business man of St. Johns, and for several years was a member of the school board.

Geo. L. Epps, the expert electrician, returned the first of the week from McMinnville, where he had been installing the electrical appliances in a three-story business block.

Miss Victoria Haas of Enterprise, Oregon, was a guest at the home of Rev. C. L. Owen during the past week. She attended the rose carnival last week and was greatly pleased with the same.

W. S. Basey, with his speedy automobile, is busily engaged in billing the surrounding country with the large and attractive Fourth of July posters gotten out by the advertising committee of the big celebration.

Dr. C. C. Poling will preach in the Evangelical church next Sunday morning and also administer the communion. No services will be held in the evening on account of the baccalaureate sermon given in the Baptist church.

Mrs. F. C. Brennan of Seattle and Mrs. Chester Clark of Glens Ferry, Idaho, were guests at the home of Mayor J. F. Hendricks during the past week. They took in the rose carnival during their stay and was greatly delighted with the same.

Miss Tilley Eckert, a charming young lady of Albany has been the guest of Mrs. F. W. Valentine for the past week or so. She was one of the party who accompanied Mrs. Valentine on the Alaska trip not long ago. The two had plenty to talk about, and many happy reminiscences were recalled during the visit.

On account of a typographical error last week the statement was made that J. H. Fletcher was erecting a house on Allegheny street. It should have read 'J. N. Fletcher.' We trust the Governor will overlook the slip and not imagine that we were trying to make an Ed Hurlbert out of him.

Mrs. West Edwards and son Orin of Merkle, Texas, are guests at the home of their daughter and sister, Mr. J. F. Gillmore. Wesley Edwards of Salem, another brother of Mrs. Gillmore is also a guest at the Gillmore home, and will accompany his mother and brother to their Texas home next week.

A lady of highest references would like to find an unfurnished room and board in a quiet educational family, without small children, where she can give lessons in reading and speaking the French and German languages. Leave address at this office.

The teamsters' strike in Portland is beginning to have its effect on the business houses in St. Johns. Tuesday some of the principal grocers ran out of sugar and other staple articles on account of the impossibility of delivery from wholesale houses.

W. E. Whelan, a prominent citizen of Saginaw, Mich., and sister, Mrs. Alice McKey, are guests at the home of John N. Edleson at present. Mr. Whelan is the father of Mrs. Edleson. The probabilities are that he will become a permanent resident of St. Johns.

A friend handed us a copy of the Skamania County Pioneer, a neat little five-column quarto printed at Stevenson, Wash., by J. H. Ginder & Son. John used to be responsible for the White Salmon Enterprise, but the Pioneer is a big improvement over the sheet he put out in the old days.

The jury in the Dickey case rendered a verdict of guilty as charged Wednesday night, but commended him to the extreme leniency of the court. The penalty for the offence is from three to eighteen years in the penitentiary. Dickey was foreman of the Willamette Pulp & Paper company's log loading plant here, and was the first of the alleged rioters to be tried on the indictments by the grand jury. He has a wife and three small children. Sentence will not be imposed for ten days yet.
