Local News.

Are you using printed back envelopes? If not, why not?

The relaying of the Philadelphia street sewer is progressing nicely.

H. J. Ames is erecting a small dwelling on Buchanan street, near Bank.

A new daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Esson during the past week.

A young daughter arrived at the home of Rudolph Pochkosky the latter part of last week.

Wanted—A good farm near St. Johns or Peninsula. Address "Mrs. J. S." care Review office.

Mrs. Otis Learned and young son are on a few weeks' visit to her former home at Skamawa.

Mrs. Damon is having a neat little cottage constructed on Charleston street, near Portland boulevard.

Miss Laura Phillips of Vancouver, Wash., spent several days the past week with her St. Johns friends.

Mrs. S. W. Rogers left this week for Minnesota and Michigan, where she will spend two or three months with relatives and old time friends.

Many St. Johns folks are away on their annual vacation, while there are a lot more who would like to go, but for obvious reasons cannot do so.

The proprietors of the Peoples' Market of Portland have purchased the store formerly owned by Davis & Gaines, but lately sold by them to a Mr. Johnson.

Harvey Briggs, formerly clerk in the Peninsula Bank, but now interested in the lumber industry at Bridal Falls, was a visitor to St. Johns the first of the week.

The Peninsula Band will hold a picnic next Sunday at Metzgar Park, on the Oregon Electric car line. Round trip 35c. The boys invite all to go and bring the girls.

Did YOU spend all of your wages today? Hope not. Hope you saved a little and put it away in the First National Bank. Rainy days are bound to come. Pays 3 per cent and compounds interest every six months.

The Peninsula ball team was defeated Sunday afternoon on the Portsmouth grounds by the Dilworth Derbies in a closely contested struggle. The score was 5 to 4 in favor of the latter. The game was quite interesting throughout.

Charley Bailey and Wynn Manning left Monday afternoon for the headwaters of Nehalem river, where they will whip the waters for the gay and festive mountain trout. The boys made the trip with sturdy little ponies, and it is a sure thing that they are having a most pleasurable outing.

For Rent—Modern 6 room house, fine river view. See K. C. Couch.

Mrs. Mae Wright is in Portland visiting friends and relatives after a year's work as teacher of vocal music and elocution at Dallas college. Mrs. Wright has been spending her vacation with her parents near Carlton.

W. F. Johnson of Dille is being named by postmaster-appoint T. J. Monahan as assistant in the postoffice. Mr. Johnson was a former resident of St. Johns, having been employed at the old West Coast laundry.

St. Johns is now divided into three voting precincts—Nos. 156, 157 and 158. No. 156 extends from Charleston street to Willis boulevard and includes the territory southward to the city limits; No. 157 extends from Charleston street to Willis boulevard and embraces the territory on the north, while 158 embraces the territory from Willis boulevard to the city limits on the East. Formerly there were only two precincts—Nos. 90 and 91—with Burlington street as the dividing line.

Work shoes and Dress shoes at Brooks & Son's. Holbrook Block, South Jersey street.

A Choice Attraction.

The Princess Vaudeville Theatre is offering some very choice attractions these days. Prof. L. S. Ellerman has just closed a successful series of attractions in hypnotism, which were well attended and greatly enjoyed. The management has been fortunate enough to secure Miss Edna Larkins, a clever actress who has made a big hit wherever she has appeared, a novelty singing and dancing soubrette, changing her costume with each song. She will make her initial appearance tonight, and will also appear tomorrow and Sunday. If you enjoy something really fine, don't miss seeing Miss Larkins, who was formerly of the Pantages' circuit. Special attractions have been secured for next week.
