Local News.

Are you using printed back envelopes? If not, why not?

Remember, the price of the Review is only one dollar per year for the next thirty days. We need the money.

See the new St. Johns range at Calef Bros. It's a home product and worth seeing whether you want to buy or not.

Regular nightly gospel talks are given at the Peninsula bank corner by members of the gospel tent on North Jersey.

Councilman A. W. Davis is having a fine modern residence erected on South Ivanhoe. F. S. Lindley has the contract.

L. B. Milton of Seattle has purchased the Bitgood & Cole meat market on Jersey street and is now in possession of same.

Prof. Frank Ely left last week for North Yamhill, where he will reside over a pool and billiard hall for several months.

Mrs. F. C. Moss of Salt Lake City, Utah, is visiting at the home of her son, E. A. Moss, who is now the very efficient assistant at Satterlee's barber shop.

The St. Johns Fire Department will hold a barbecue on the river bank next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Special invitations have been issued to the friends of the department.

The "selling out" fever seems to have attacked several local parties during the past week. The Electric Theatre, Bitgood & Cole meat market and Calef Bros. confectionery store all changing ownership.

J. F. Gilmore reports the business outlook much better lately. He reports having sold $11,000 worth of property, nearly all of which was St. Johns realty, in the last 10 days.

South St. Johns is making splendid progress. Many fine residences have been erected or are under course of construction, and cement sidewalks and macadam streets are becoming quite numerous.

The St. Johns Gas Co. is busily engaged in having their pipes laid to connect with patrons on Jersey street. They expect to have this work all completed before the concrete sidewalk is commenced on Jersey street.

F. W. Valentine has opened a brokerage office at 204 North Jersey in the same room with H. Henderson, the abstractor. Mr. Valentine will handle real estate and life and fire insurance. His sterling qualities are so well known that he is bound to make a success of the business.

Chas. Bailey and Wynn Manning have returned from their Nehalem outing and report a most "splendidous" time. The trip was made on their trusty ponies.

Save one dollar each week. It seems little, but it's a START, that's the important thing. Make a START. The First National Bank issues Time Certificates of Deposit.

Mr. and Mrs. David Burness and family of Los Angeles, Cal., who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar L. Page, 1222 South Jersey Street, have moved into a cottage on Church street, lower Albina.

L. G. Aldridge, wife and daughter of Daws, Iowa, are guests at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. V. W. Mason of this city. They have disposed of their property in the East and are now looking for a new location in this western country. They like it very much in St. Johns, and the chances are that they will decide to locate here.

A Special Attraction

The Marinette Trio will appear at the Princess Vaudeville Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. These artists are off of the big circuit and have filled the houses to their capacity wherever they have appeared. "Skinny the Rube" outclasses them all with his funny costumes and jokes. Don't miss seeing them as it is a rare treat to the people of St. Johns. Something you have never seen before. Look for special attractions next week.
